v.

MEDUSIND, INC.,

Defendant.

PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, Plaintiffs¹ respectfully submit this Unopposed Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement and Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs, supported by the Joint Declaration of Lead Counsel ("Joint Decl."), attached as Exhibit B, and the Declaration of Cameron R. Azari, Esq. Regarding Implementation and Adequacy of Notice Program ("Admin. Decl."), attached as Exhibit C.

On July 22, 2025, this Court preliminarily approved the Settlement, which provides for substantial Settlement Class Member Benefits, including: (1) a non-reversionary, all cash

$5,000,000.00 Settlement Fund, from which Settlement Class Members may elect to receive Cash Payments and Credit Monitoring; and (2) non-monetary injunctive relief consisting of comprehensive and costly security measures that Defendant implemented. The Settlement Fund will be used to pay Settlement Class Member Benefits, Settlement Administration Costs, and Court-awarded attorneys' fees and costs.

Plaintiffs and Class Counsel now move the Court for Final Approval and apply for an award of attorneys' fees and costs. The Settlement satisfies all the criteria for Final Approval. Currently, there are no objections and only two Settlement Class Members have opted-out. This overwhelmingly positive response affirms the Court's initial conclusion that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. Class Counsel has fully evaluated the strengths, weaknesses, and equities of the Parties' respective positions and believe the proposed Settlement fairly resolves their respective differences. For all the reasons set forth herein, the Court should grant Final Approval of the Settlement and Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs.

I. INTRODUCTION AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Defendant is a medical and dental billing and software company that provides services to health providers throughout the country. See generally Complaint, ECF No. 1. Defendant's healthcare customers entrusted Defendant with the Private Information of their patients, including their names, mailing addresses, email addresses, telephone numbers, health insurance and billing information (insurance policy numbers or claims/benefits information), payment information (debit/credit card numbers or bank account information), health information (medical history, medical record numbers, or prescription information), and government identification (Social Security numbers, taxpayer ID numbers, driver's licenses numbers, or passport numbers). Id.

On December 29, 2023, Defendant detected suspicious activity on its computer systems and later confirmed that cybercriminals accessed information stored on those systems. Id. On or about January 7, 2025, Defendant began sending notice letters to approximately 700,000 individuals advising them that their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident. Id.

On January 9, 2025, Plaintiff Owings filed the first-class action lawsuit for the unlawful exposure of her and all similarly situated individuals' Private Information seeking money damages and injunctive relief. Agreement ¶ 62. Thereafter, a number of similar lawsuits with similar claims and overlapping classes were filed against Defendant regarding the Data Incident. Plaintiffs' counsel in the actions conferred and decided to work cooperatively and litigate their actions in a single action. Id. ¶¶ 63-69.

On January 15, 2025, Plaintiff Owings filed a Motion to Consolidate Actions, Appoint Interim Class Counsel, and Set Deadline for Filing of Consolidated Complaint. Id. ¶ 70. On January 20, 2025, the Court granted the motion to consolidate and appointed Jeff Ostrow and Mariya Weekes as Interim Co-Lead Class Counsel. Id.

On February 18, 2025, Plaintiffs filed their consolidated class action complaint seeking a nationwide class and a California subclass of those impacted in the Data Incident alleging claims for negligence, negligence per se, breach of third-party beneficiary, breach of contract, unjust enrichment, and statutory claims for violations of California statutes. Id. ¶ 71. On April 11, 2025, Defendant filed its motion to dismiss the Complaint; on May 15, 2025, Plaintiffs filed a response in opposition; and on June 10, 2025 Defendant filed its reply. Id. ¶ 72.

The Parties decided to conserve resources and explore resolution of the Action. Id. ¶ 73. The Parties set a mediation with former federal magistrate judge and experienced class action mediator, Hon. Diane Welsh (Ret.) with JAMS. Id. In advance of mediation, Plaintiffs requested and Defendant produced informal discovery requests related to liability and damages, including, but not limited to, the number of individuals impacted by the Data Incident, the states in which they resided on the date of the Data Incident, the categories of Private Information involved, and the security enhancements taken since the Data Incident to better protect its computer systems for future data incidents. Id. ¶ 74. The Parties also exchanged detailed mediation statements outlining their positions with respect to liability, damages, and settlement. Id.

The mediation took place in person in Philadelphia on June 10, 2025. Id. ¶ 75. After a full day of negotiations, the Parties agreed to the material Settlement terms. Id. To avoid the risk and expense of litigation, the Parties agreed to a settlement to resolve all of Plaintiffs' claims on a classwide basis. Id. As demonstrated below, the Settlement provides significant relief for the Settlement Class (including the California Settlement Subclass), including a non-reversionary all cash $5,000,000.00 Settlement Fund and valuable injunctive relief.

The Parties filed a Notice of Settlement on June 12, 2025. [ECF No. 47.] Over the next five weeks, the Parties worked diligently to finalize the terms of the Agreement and ancillary documents. Joint Decl. ¶ 9. The Agreement was executed on July 11, 2025. Id. The Parties did not discuss attorneys' fees and costs until after they agreed on all material terms. Id.

Plaintiffs filed their Motion for Preliminary Approval on July 11, 2025, and the Court granted the motion on July 22, 2025. [ECF No. 51, 52]. The Notice Program has now been completed in compliance with the Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order and the Claim Process is ongoing. See generally Admin. Decl.; Joint Decl. ¶¶ 21-41.

II. SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT

A. Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass – Plaintiffs seek Final Approval on behalf of the following Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass:

[A]ll living individuals residing in the United States who were sent a notice of the Data Incident indicating their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

A subset of the Settlement Class is the California Settlement Subclass which includes “Settlement Class Members residing in California as of December 29, 2023.” Excluded from the Settlement Class are (1) all persons who are directors, officers, and agents of Defendant, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliated companies; (2) governmental entities; (3) the Judge assigned to the Action, that Judge’s immediate family, and Court staff; (4) the mediator; and (5) the Parties’ counsel in the Action. Agreement ¶ 55. Also excluded are any Settlement Class Members who timely opt-out of the Settlement.

B. Settlement Fund – The Settlement provides for a non-reversionary $5,000,000 all cash Settlement Fund. Id. ¶ 58. It will be used to pay: (1) Settlement Class Member Benefits to Settlement Class Members who submit Valid Claims; (2) any attorneys’ fees and costs awarded by the Court to Class Counsel; and (3) all Settlement Administration Costs. Id. ¶ 77. Defendant fully funded the Settlement Fund within 40 days of Preliminary Approval. Id. ¶ 76.

C. Settlement Class Member Benefits – When submitting a Valid Claim, Settlement Class Members must choose either Cash Payment A – Documented Losses or Cash Payment B – Alternate Cash. Id. ¶ 80. In addition, each California Settlement Subclass Member who submits a Valid Claim may elect to receive a separate California Statutory Award. Id. ¶¶ 12, 80. All Settlement Class Members may also elect to receive Credit Monitoring. Id. ¶ 80. Settlement Class Member Cash Payments may be subject to a pro rata increase or decrease, depending on the value of all Valid Claims received. Id. If a Settlement Class Member does not submit a Valid Claim, the Settlement Class Member will release his or her claims without receiving a Cash Payment or Credit Monitoring. Id.

Cash Payments - Settlement Class Members who elect Cash Payment A – Documented Losses may receive up to $5,000.00 for reasonable documented losses related to the Data Incident. Id. ¶ 81.a. Alternatively, a Settlement Class Member may elect to receive Cash Payment B – Alternate Cash, which is a cash payment that does not require documentation in the estimated amount of $100.00. Id. ¶ 81.b. In addition to Cash Payment A or Cash Payment B, California Settlement Subclass Members may elect to receive the California Statutory Award in the estimated amount of $100.00. Id. ¶ 81.c.

Credit Monitoring - In addition to Cash Payments, Settlement Class Members may also elect two years of credit monitoring services, which includes: (i) real time monitoring of credit files; (ii) web-based monitoring of personal identifiable information including social security numbers, banking information and credit/debit information, medical ID numbers, email addresses, and phone numbers; and (iii) access to Fraud Consultation and Identity Theft Restoration services, with access to agents to help investigate and resolve instances of identity theft. Id. ¶ 81.d. All costs associated with the provision of Credit Monitoring shall be paid exclusively out of the Settlement Fund. Id.

Injunctive Relief - Prior to Final Approval, Defendant will provide Class Counsel with a written attestation regarding the security measures, including the costs associated therewith, it implemented following the Data Incident (or will implement) to better protect the Settlement Class Members' Private Information from future disclosure resulting from a subsequent data incident. Id. ¶ 81.e. The costs of any such security measures on the part of Defendant were paid or will be paid separately by the Defendant and will not come out of the Settlement Fund. Id.

D. Release – Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members who do not timely and validly opt-out of the Settlement will be bound by the Settlement, including the Releases that discharge the Released Claims against the Released Parties. Id. § XIV. The Released Claims are narrowly tailored and are only claims arising out of or relating to the Data Incident. Joint Decl. ¶ 11.

E. Disposition of Residual Funds – Any funds remaining in the Settlement Fund 240 days after Settlement Class Members receive an email from the Settlement Administrator to select a form of payment shall be distributed to a cy pres recipient approved by the Court. Agreement ¶ 115. The Parties propose the National Cybersecurity Alliance (<https://www.staysafeonline.org/>).

F. Attorneys' Fees and Costs – Pursuant to the Agreement, Plaintiffs request an attorneys' fee award of one-third of the Settlement Fund ($1,666,666.66) and $32,384.30 for litigation costs. Agreement ¶ 112; Joint Decl. ¶ 29. The Notices advised the Settlement Class Members of the amount of attorneys' fees Class Counsel intended to request, and currently no one has objected to the amount requested. Agreement § XII; Joint Decl. ¶ 12.

III. NOTICE PROGRAM, CLAIMS, OPT-OUTS, AND OBJECTIONS

Notice Program – The Settlement Administrator sent the CAFA Notices required by 28 U.S.C. § 1715. Admin. Decl. ¶ 20. Following receipt of the Class List, the Settlement Administrator implemented the Notice Program, which consisted of sending Postcard Notice to Settlement Class Members and a Long Form Notice, which is available on the Settlement Website and which the Settlement Administrator mailed to any Settlement Class Member who requested one. Id. ¶¶ 23-27. The Settlement Administrator's Declaration details the process followed to send 702,081 double-sided Postcard Notices to 702,115 Settlement Class Members (34 Settlement Class Member records did not have a physical mailing address and were not sent Notice). Id. ¶¶ 23-24. The Postcard Notice clearly and concisely summarized the Settlement and the legal rights of the Settlement Class Members and directed Settlement Class Members to visit the Settlement Website for additional information. Id. The Settlement Administrator performed reasonable address traces for Postcard Notices returned undeliverable and then re-mailed 33,115 to Settlement Class Members. Id. ¶ 26. As of November 25, 2025, individual notice efforts have reached approximately 94% of the Settlement Class Members. Id. ¶ 28.

Additionally, as of November 25, 2025, Epiq mailed 560 Settlement packages, including the Long Form Notice and Claim Form, in response to requests via the toll-free telephone number or other means from Settlement Class Members. Id. ¶ 27.

On August 11, 2025, the Settlement Administrator established a dedicated Settlement Website (www.medusinddataincidentsettlement.com) for Settlement Class Members to obtain detailed information about the Action and review important documents, including the Complaint, Agreement, Long Form Notice, Claim Form, Motion for Preliminary Approval, and Preliminary Approval Order. Id. ¶ 29. This Motion for Final Approval will be posted upon filing. The Settlement Website also includes relevant dates, answers to frequently asked questions, opt-out and objection instructions, contact information for the Settlement Administrator, and how to obtain other case-related information. Id. As of November 25, 2025, there have been 19,870 unique visitor sessions to the Settlement Website, and 72,540 web pages have been presented. Id.

Also, on August 11, 2025, the Settlement Administrator established a toll-free telephone number for Settlement Class Members to call for Settlement information and/or to request a Long Form Notice and Claim Form. Id. ¶ 30. As of November 26, 2025, there have been 3,789 calls to the toll-free telephone number representing 9,642 minutes of use. Id.

A postal mailing address and email address were established and remain available to contact the Settlement Administrator to request additional information or ask questions. Id. ¶ 31.

Claim Process – The timing of the Claim Process was structured to ensure that all Settlement Class Members had adequate time to review the Settlement terms, compile documents supporting their Claims, and decide whether to submit a Claim Form in, opt-out of, or object to, the Settlement. Settlement Class Members may continue to submit Claim Forms online or by mail by the December 29, 2025 Claim Form Deadline. Id. ¶ 33. Settlement Class Members have the option of requesting a digital cash payment or a traditional paper check on the Claim Form. Id. As of November 25, 2025, Epiq has received 39,918 Claim Forms (10,631 online and 29,287 by mail). Id. ¶ 34. These numbers are preliminary and expected to increase. Id. Claim Forms are still subject to quality control review, including full assessment of each Claim's validity and a review for duplicate submissions. Id. Class Counsel will update the Court at the Final Approval Hearing as to the number of Claims.

Opt-Outs and Objections – The Objection and Opt-Out Periods end on December 14, 2025. Id. ¶ 32. As of November 25, 2025, the Settlement Administrator received two completed opt-out requests and no objections. Id. The Parties are not aware of any objections. Joint Decl. ¶ 12.

IV. ARGUMENT

A. The Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass Should Be Certified, and the Appointments of Class Representatives, Lead Counsel, Class Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator Should Be Affirmed.

The Motion for Preliminary Approval detailed the bases for certifying the Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a) and (b)(3). In compliance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), the Court's Preliminary Approval Order details its findings for why it would be likely to certify the Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass at the Final Approval stage, finding the following requirements were all met: standing, ascertainability, numerosity, commonality, typicality, adequacy of representation, predominance, and superiority. [ECF No. 231 at 7-15]. Nothing has changed since Preliminary Approval was granted and the Settlement Class (including the California Settlement Subclass) was provisionally certified. Therefore, for brevity's sake, Plaintiffs do not repeat their arguments in support of class certification and instead incorporate by reference their arguments from the Motion for Preliminary Approval. [ECF No. 51 at 11-19].

Plaintiffs' appointment as the Class Representatives should be affirmed as they remain adequate representatives. For the same reasons the Court found them adequate under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4), the Court should also affirm the designation of Jeff Ostrow and Mariya Weekes as Class Counsel for the Settlement Class (including the California Settlement Subclass). Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(g)(1)(A)'s four factors for appointing class counsel for a certified class are (1) "the work counsel has done in identifying or investigating potential claims in the action;" (2) "counsel's experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and the types of claims asserted in the action;" (3) "counsel's knowledge of the applicable law;" and (4) "the resources that counsel will commit to representing the class." The Court may also "consider any other matter pertinent to counsel's ability to fairly and adequately represent the interests of the class[.]" Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g)(1)(B). Here, as the Court has observed in this Action and others, Class Counsel are qualified and competent leaders in the field with extensive experience prosecuting and resolving complex class actions, including data breach class actions. Joint Decl. ¶¶ 15-17. Class Counsel has devoted time and resources to this Action and will continue to do so. Id. ¶¶ 17, 33.

Finally, the Court should confirm its appointment of Epiq as the Settlement Administrator.

B. The Settlement Should be Finally Approved.

The Preliminary Approval Order found the Court would be likely to finally approve the Settlement after considering and finding the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2) and the "Bennett" factors. [DE# 176 at 15-19]. Now, the Court should grant

Final Approval considering those same factors, being able to now judge the Settlement Class Members' positive reaction to the Settlement with no objections and 39,918 Claims to date.

The Rule 23(e)(2) factors are:

- (A) the class representatives and class counsel adequately represented the class;
- (B) the proposal was negotiated at arms' length;
- (C) the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into account:
 - (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal;
 - (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member claims;
 - (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney's fees, including timing of payment; and
 - (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3); and
- (D) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other.

The Bennett factors include the following: (1) the likelihood of success at trial; (2) the range of possible recoveries; (3) the point on or below the range of possible recoveries at which a settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable; (4) the complexity, expense and duration of litigation; (5) the substance and degree of opposition to the settlement; and (6) the stage of the proceedings at which the settlement was achieved. See Bennett v. Behring Corp., 737 F.2d 982, 986 (11th Cir. 1984).

Adequacy of Representation (Rule 23(e)(2)(A)) - This first factor "weighs heavily in favor of granting preliminary approval because both Class Counsel and the Class Representative have adequately represented the Class." In re Fortra File Transfer Software Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 24-MD-03090, 2025 WL 2675178, at *9 (S.D. Fla. Sept. 17, 2025) (citing In re Fortra File Transfer Software Data Security Breach Litig., No. 24-MD-03090-RAR, 2025 WL 457896, at *8 (S.D. Fla. Feb. 11, 2025), and In re Mednax Services, Inc., Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 21-MD-02994-RAR, 2024 WL 1554329, at *6 (S.D. Fla. Apr. 10, 2024)). While Mednax proceeded to a later stage than here before the parties agreed to settle, Class Counsel thoroughly investigated and analyzed Plaintiffs' claims. Defendant's motion to dismiss was fully briefed and decided. [ECF Nos. 35, 40, 46]. Class Counsel also consulted and retained liability and damage experts enabling them to gain an understanding of the evidence related to central questions in the Action and prepared them for well-informed settlement negotiations. See Joint Decl. ¶¶ 7, 17; see also Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329 at *6. Class Counsel used informal discovery to learn what caused the Data Incident and the Private Information impacted, before attending a full-day mediation session. Joint Decl. ¶¶ 6-7. Class Counsel used their experience in complex class action litigation, including similar data breach actions, and devoted their time and resources to vigorous litigation. See id., ¶¶ 16-17.

Also, the Class Representatives have demonstrated their adequacy by (i) having a genuine personal interest in the outcome of the case; (ii) selecting well-qualified Class Counsel; (iii) producing information and documents to Class Counsel to permit investigation and development of the complaints; (iv) being available as needed throughout the litigation; and (v) monitoring the Action. Joint Decl. ¶ 28. Plaintiffs are committed to continue prosecuting this Action through Final Approval and protecting the interests of the Settlement Class (including the California Settlement Subclass). Id. ¶ 27. Plaintiffs' respective interests are coextensive and do not conflict with the interests of the Settlement Class Members. Id. ¶ 26. Plaintiffs have the same interest in the Settlement relief, and the absent Settlement Class Members have no diverging interests. Id.

The Settlement Was Negotiated at Arm's Length (Rule 23(e)(2)(B) and Bennett Factors 5-6) - The Settlement is without collusion and the result of good faith, informed, and arm's-length negotiations between experienced attorneys who are familiar with class action litigation and with the legal and factual issues at stake, and with the assistance of the mediator, Judge Welsh (Ret.). Id. ¶¶ 8, 10, 15-16. "The fact that the Settlement was achieved through well-informed, arm's-length, and neutrally supervised negotiations weighs in favor of granting preliminary approval under Rule 23(e)(2)(B)." Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *10 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *8 (quoting Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329 at *6)). Though the Settlement was reached at any early stage, the record reflects that this Action has been thoroughly investigated by counsel experienced in data breach litigation. Joint Decl. ¶ 25. Moreover, Class Counsel’s informal exchange of discovery and mediation with an experienced mediator has ensured a fair, reasonable, and adequate Settlement. Id. ¶ 17. See, e.g., Saccoccio v. JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., 297 F.R.D. 683, 694 (S.D. Fla. 2014) (approving settlement where parties settled relatively early with experienced counsel who had sufficient information to evaluate merits of the case, engaged in full-day mediation, and engaged in post-mediation discovery).

Currently there is no opposition to the Settlement and only two opt-outs. Lead Counsel will respond to any later filed valid objections, if any, before the Final Approval Hearing.

The Adequacy of the Settlement Relief (Rule 23(e)(2)(C) and Bennett Factors 1-4) -

Although Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe the claims asserted are meritorious and the Settlement Class would ultimately prevail at trial, continued, complex, and expensive litigation against Defendant poses significant risks that make any recovery for the Settlement Class Members uncertain. Joint Decl. ¶ 23. Data breach class actions are risky. Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *10; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *8; Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329 at *7. The Settlement’s fairness is underscored by the obstacles the Plaintiffs would face in ultimately succeeding on the merits, as well as the litigation’s expense and likely duration. Id.; Joint Decl. ¶ 24. Given those risks, the Settlement provides outstanding benefits, including Cash Payments, Credit Monitoring, and injunctive relief for all Settlement Class Members. See In re Equifax Inc. Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., 999 F.3d 1247, 1273 (11th Cir. 2021) (“Settlements also save the bench and bar time, money, and headaches”); FultonGreen v. Accolade, Inc., No. 18-274, 2019 WL 4677954, at *8 (E.D. Pa. Sept. 24, 2019) (noting that data breach class actions are “a risky field of litigation because [they] are uncertain and class certification is rare”)

The Settlement is within the range of possible recoveries and is fair, adequate, and reasonable. See Burrows v. Purchasing Power, LLC, No. 1:12-CV22800, 2013 WL 10167232, at *6 (S.D. Fla. Oct. 7, 2013). In determining whether a settlement is fair and reasonable, the Court must also examine the range of possible damages Plaintiffs could recover at trial and combine this with an analysis of Plaintiffs’ likely success at trial to determine if the settlements fall within the range of fair recoveries. See, e.g., Equifax, 999 F.3d at 1274 (affirming order that settlement was “fair, reasonable, and adequate because the settlement reflects relief the Court finds is in the high range of what could have been obtained had the parties continued to litigate”). Here, Settlement Class Members may elect Cash Payments and/or Credit Monitoring. Agreement ¶¶ 81.a.-c.

The following recent examples of approved data breach settlements from around the country demonstrate how the instant Settlement compares very favorably to other similar common fund data breach settlements: Fortra, No. 24-MD-03090 ($27,000,000 for six million class members); Mednax, No. 21-MD-02994-RAR ($6,000,000 for 2.7 million class members); Summers v. Sea Mar 16 Comm. College, No. 22-2-0073-7 SEA (Super. Ct. Wash.) ($4,400,000 for 1.2 million class members); Owens v. U.S. Radiology Specialists, Inc., et al., No. 22 CVS 17797 (Mecklenburg Cty., NC) ($5,050,000 for 1.3 million class members); In re Wright & Filippis, LLC Data Sec. Breach, No. 2:22-cv-12908-SFC (E.D. Mich.) ($2,900,000 for 877,584 class members); In re Sonic Corp. Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 1:17-md-2807 (N.D. Ohio) ($4,325,000 for 1.5 million class members); Kostka v. Dickey’s Barbeque Restaurants, Inc., No. 3:20-CV-03424-K, 2023 WL 3914266 (N.D. Tex. June 6, 2023) ($2,350,000 for 725,000 class members); In re Lincare Holdings Inc. Data Breach Litig., No. 8:22-cv-04172-AAS, 2024 WL 3104286, at *4 (M.D. Fla. June 24, 2024) ($7,250,000 for 2.9 million class members).

Also, the Claim Process and distribution of Settlement Class Member Benefits is fair, convenient, and effective. Joint Decl. ¶ 14. Settlement Class Members will promptly receive Cash Payments by electronic means or paper check and Credit Monitoring, if elected. Id. The Settlement Administrator is highly qualified to manage the entire process. Id. “Thus, through the Settlement, Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members gain significant benefits without having to face further risk of not receiving any relief at all.” Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *10 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *9 (quoting Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329 at *7)).

Finally, the Parties’ agreements are all in the Agreement. Joint Decl. ¶ 9.

The Equitable Treatment of Settlement Class Members (Rule 23(e)(2)(D)) - As this Court found in Fortra and Mednax, all Settlement Class Members are given an equal opportunity to claim Settlement Class Member Benefits. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *11; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *9; Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *7. Specifically, each Settlement Class Member has the option to claim the same Settlement Class Member Benefits. Thus, “[t]he method of distributing the settlement benefits will be equitable and effective.” Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *11 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *9 (quoting Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *7)). Further, the attorneys’ fees do not impact the other Settlement terms, as Class Counsel and Defendant negotiated and reached agreement regarding attorneys’ fees and costs only after agreeing on all other material Settlement terms. Joint Decl. ¶ 9. The Settlement, including disbursement of the Settlement Class Member Benefits, is also not contingent on approval of the attorneys’ fees and costs award. Agreement ¶ 114.

Thus, the Court should find the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequately protects the interests of the Settlement Class Members as required by the Rule 23(e)(2) and Bennett factors.

C. Notice Was Adequate and Satisfies Rule 23 and Due Process Requirements.

The Court-approved Notice Program carried out by the Settlement Administrator conforms with the procedural and substantive requirements of due process and Rule 23. See supra at 7-8. Settlement Class Members received Notice of the settlement and have the opportunity to be heard and participate in the Action. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). The Court exercised its discretion to approve a reasonable Notice Program. As the Court held when granting Preliminary Approval, the Postcard Notice sent directly to Settlement Class Members and the Long Form Notice posted on the Settlement Website is the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constitutes due and sufficient notice to Settlement Class Members. [ECF No. 52 at 20-21]. The best notice practicable is that which “is reasonably calculated, under all of the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections.” Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Tr. Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950).

The Notices included, among other information: a description of the Settlement’s material terms; how to submit a Claim Form; the Claim Form Deadline; the last day to opt-out of the Settlement Class; the last day to object to the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys’ fees and Costs; the Final Approval Hearing date; and the Settlement Website address at which Settlement Class Members may access this Agreement and other related documents and information. See Admin. Decl., Attachments. The Notice Program also included a toll-free number to ask Settlement-related questions and the Settlement Website containing relevant Settlement information. Finally, the Notice Program satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(h)(1), as the Notices informed the Settlement Class Members that Class Counsel may apply for an award of attorneys’ fees of up to one-third of the Settlement Fund, plus reimbursement of costs. Id.

V. APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

Pursuant to the Settlement and the Notices, and consistent with recognized class action practice and procedure, Class Counsel respectfully request an award of attorneys' fees of $1,666,666.66, which is equal to one-third of the Settlement Fund, and $32,384.30 for litigation costs. Joint Decl. ¶ 29. The requested amounts are within the range of reason when analyzed under the factors listed in Camden I Condo. Ass'n. v. Dunkle, 946 F.2d 768 (11th Cir. 1991).

A. The Law Awards Class Counsel Fees from the Common Fund Created Through Their Efforts.

It is well established that when a representative party has conferred a substantial benefit upon a class, counsel is entitled to attorneys' fees based upon the benefit obtained. Camden I, 946 F.2d at 771; Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980); Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *13; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *11. The common benefit doctrine is an exception to the general rule that each party must bear its own litigation costs. "The doctrine serves the 'twin goals of removing a potential financial obstacle to a plaintiff's pursuit of a claim on behalf of a class and of equitably distributing the fees and costs of successful litigation among all who gained from the named plaintiff's efforts.'" Gevaerts v. TD Bank, N.A., No. 11:14-cv-20744, 2015 WL 6751061, at *10 (S.D. Fla. Nov. 5, 2015) (citation omitted). "The common benefit doctrine stems from the premise that those who receive the benefit of a lawsuit without contributing to its costs are 'unjustly enriched' at the expense of the successful litigant." Id. (citing Van Gemert, 444 U.S. at 478). "As a result, the Supreme Court, the Eleventh Circuit, and courts in this District have all recognized that '[a] litigant or a lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit of persons other than himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee from the fund as whole.'" Id. (citations omitted); see also Camden I, 946 F.2d at 771 ("Attorneys in a class action in which a common fund is created are entitled to compensation for their services from the common fund, but the amount is subject to court approval.”); Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *13; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *12. Courts have also recognized that appropriate fee awards in cases such as this encourage redress for wrongs caused to entire classes of persons and deter future misconduct of a similar nature. See Deposit Guar. Nat’l Bank v. Roper, 445 U.S. 326, 338-39 (1980). Adequate compensation promotes the availability of counsel for aggrieved persons. Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *13; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *12.

In this Circuit, class counsel are awarded a percentage of the funds obtained through a settlement. Id. In Camden I – the controlling authority regarding attorneys’ fees in common-fund class actions – the Eleventh Circuit held that “the percentage of the fund approach [as opposed to the lodestar approach] is the better reasoned in a common fund case. Henceforth in this circuit, attorneys’ fees awarded from a common fund shall be based upon a reasonable percentage of the fund established for the benefit of the class.” 946 F.2d at 774. See also Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *14; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *12.

“The Court has discretion in determining the appropriate fee percentage.” Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *14; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *12. “There is no hard and fast rule mandating a certain percentage of a common fund which may be awarded as a fee because the amount of any fee must be determined upon the facts of each case.” Sunbeam, 176 F. Supp. 2d at 1333 (quoting Camden I, 946 F.2d at 774). Nonetheless, “[t]he majority of common fund fee awards fall between 20 percent to 30 percent of the fund” – though “an upper limit of 50 percent of the fund may be stated as a general rule.” Sunbeam, 176 F. Supp. 2d at 1333 (quoting Camden I, 946 F.2d at 774-75); see also Waters v. Int’l Precious Metals Corp., 190 F.3d 1291 (11th Cir. 1999), cert. denied, 530 U.S. 1289 (2000) (approving fee award where the district court determined that the benchmark should be 30 percent and then adjusted the fee award higher in view of the circumstances of the case). Class Counsel's fee request falls within this accepted range and is consistent with the percentage awarded in the Fortra settlements approved in this Court. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *14; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *11-12.

B. Application of the Camden I Factors Supports the Requested Fee.

The Eleventh Circuit has provided a set of factors the Court should use to determine a reasonable percentage to award as an attorney's fee to class counsel in class actions:

- (1) the time and labor required;
- (2) the novelty and difficulty of the relevant questions;
- (3) the skill required to properly carry out the legal services;
- (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney as a result of his acceptance of the case;
- (5) the customary fee;
- (6) whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
- (7) time limitations imposed by the clients or the circumstances;
- (8) the results obtained, including the amount recovered for the clients;
- (9) the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorneys;
- (10) the "undesirability" of the case;
- (11) the nature and the length of the professional relationship with the clients;
and
- (12) fee awards in similar cases.

Camden I, 946 F.2d at 772 n.3.² These twelve factors are guidelines and are not exclusive. "Other pertinent factors are the time required to reach a settlement, whether there are any substantial objections by class members or other parties to the settlement terms or the fees requested by counsel, any non-monetary benefits conferred upon the class by the settlement, and the economics involved in prosecuting a class action." Sunbeam, 176 F. Supp. 2d at 1333 (quoting Camden I, 946 F.2d at 775). In addition, the Eleventh Circuit has "encouraged the lower courts to consider additional factors unique to the particular case." Camden I, 946 F.2d at 775.

² The seventh and eleventh factors are relatively neutral, though it has certainly been important to Class Counsel to efficiently obtain the Settlement benefits for the Settlement Class impacted by the Data Incident.

1. The Claims Against Defendant Required Substantial Time and Labor.

Prosecuting and settling these claims demanded a considerable amount of time and labor, making this fee request reasonable. Joint Decl. ¶ 33. The organization of Class Counsel ensured the work was coordinated to maximize efficiency and minimize duplication of effort. Id. Class Counsel devoted substantial time to investigating the claims. Id. Class Counsel also expended resources researching and developing the legal claims at issue. Id. Significant time and resources were also dedicated to working with experts, exchanging informal discovery, consolidating and organizing the related actions, responding to the motion to dismiss, and preparing for and attending a successful mediation. Id. Time was then devoted to negotiating and drafting the Agreement, the Preliminary Approval process, and to all actions required thereafter by the Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order. Id. Class Counsel spent substantial time leading up to seeking Final Approval, addressing the Notice Program, Claim Process, and preparing this Motion for Final Approval. Id. Time will also be spent preparing for and attending the Final Approval Hearing. Id. Finally, Class Counsel will devote further time to Settlement administration should Final Approval be granted to ensure Valid Claims are paid and the Settlement is fully implemented. Id.

Class Counsel's coordinated work paid dividends. Id. ¶ 34. Each of the above-described efforts was essential to achieving the Settlement. Id. Class Counsel's time and resources devoted to prosecuting and settling this Action justify the requested fee. Id.

2. The Novelty and Difficulty of the Relevant Questions Required Skilled and Experienced Counsel.

This Court has witnessed the quality of Class Counsel's legal work, which conferred substantial benefits on the Settlement Class Members in the face of significant litigation obstacles. Id. ¶ 35. This factor weighs heavily in support of the requested attorneys' fee award. In fact, courts routinely recognize the novelty and difficulty of the questions present in a case as a "significant factor to be considered in making a fee award.” Francisco v. Numismatic Guaranty Corp. of America, No. 06-61677-CIV, 2008 WL 649124, at *15 (S.D. Fla. Jan. 31, 2008). Data breach class actions are notoriously risky and complex cases that present novel issues of law and fact as data security continues to develop and evolve. See In re Sonic Corp. Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 1:17-md-2807, 2019 WL 3773737, at *7 (N.D. Ohio Aug. 12, 2019) (recognizing that “[data breach litigation is complex and risky. This unsettled area of law often presents novel questions for courts. And of course, juries are not always predictable.”); Fox v. Iowa Health Sys., No. 3:18-cv-00327, 2021 WL 826741, at *5 (W.D. Wis. Mar. 4, 2021) (“Data breach litigation is evolving; there is no guarantee of the ultimate result . . . [they] are particularly risky, expensive, and complex.”).

In evaluating the quality of representation by Class Counsel, the Court should also consider opposing counsel. See Camden I, 946 F.2d at 772 n.3. Defendant is represented by extremely capable counsel who are worthy, highly competent adversaries. Joint Decl. ¶ 20; Walco Invs. v. Thenen, 975 F. Supp. 1468, 1472 (S.D. Fla. 1997).

3. Class Counsel Achieved a Successful Result.

Given the significant litigation risks Class Counsel faced, the Settlement represents a successful result, with $5,000,000.00 recovered for the Settlement Class Members, affording them meaningful Settlement benefits designed to meet the typical repercussions faced by consumers following a data breach. The risk involved is emphasized by the fact that, historically, data breach class actions face substantial hurdles in surviving the class certification stage. See, e.g., Maldini v. Marriott Int’l, Inc., 140 F.4th 123 (4th Cir. 2025) (decertifying data breach class); Theus v. Brinker Int’l, Inc., No. 3:18-cv-686-TJC-MCR, 2025 WL 1786346 (M.D. Fla. June 27, 2025) (denying motion for class certification); In re Blackbaud, Inc., Customer Data Breach Litig., No.: 3:20-mn-

02972-JFA, 2024 WL 2155221 (D.S.C. May 14, 2024) (denying motion for class certification); FultonGreen, 2019 WL 4677954 at *8 (noting that data breach class actions are “a risky field of litigation because [they] are uncertain and class certification is rare”); In re Hannaford Bros. Co. Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., 293 F.R.D. 21 (D. Me. 2013). Further, maintaining class certification through trial is another overarching risk. Joint Decl. ¶ 24. Considering Defendant has compelling defenses, continuing to pursue this case posed a significant risk for Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class Members. Id. Therefore, Class Counsel’s risks weigh in favor of Class Counsel’s requested attorneys’ fee.

4. Class Counsel Assumed Considerable Risk to Pursue This Action on a Pure Contingency Basis and Lost Opportunity for Other Employment.

In undertaking to prosecute this case entirely on a contingent fee basis, Class Counsel assumed risk of nonpayment or underpayment, while foregoing the opportunity to work on other cases. Id. ¶ 32. That risk warrants an appropriate fee. Indeed, “[a] contingency fee arrangement often justifies an increase in the award of attorney’s fees.” Sunbeam, 176 F. Supp. 2d at 1335 (quoting Behrens v. Wometco Enterprises, Inc., 118 F.R.D. 534, 548 (S.D. Fla. 1988)).

Class Counsel remains completely uncompensated for the time invested in the Action, in addition to the substantial costs they have advanced. Joint Decl. ¶¶ 30-34. Public policy concerns—ensuring the continued availability of experienced and capable counsel to represent classes of injured plaintiffs holding small individual claims—also support the requested attorneys’ fee. Joint Decl. ¶ 36. In the court’s words:

Generally, the contingency retainment must be promoted to assure representation when a person could not otherwise afford the services of a lawyer. . . . A contingency fee arrangement often justifies an increase in the award of attorney’s fees. This rule helps assure that the contingency fee arrangement endures. If this “bonus” methodology did not exist, very few lawyers could take on the representation of a class client given the investment of substantial time, effort, and money, especially in light of the risks of recovering nothing.

Behrens, 118 F.R.D. at 548.

5. The Requested Fee Comports with Fee Awards in Similar Cases.

The attorneys' fee award sought here is within the range of fees typically awarded in similar cases in the Eleventh Circuit and in the Southern District. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *13-14 (awarding 33.33%); Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *11-12 (same); In re Indep. Living Sys. Data Breach Litig., No. 1:23-cv-21060-Williams (S.D. Fla. Nov. 24, 2025), ECF No. 106 (same); Cravens v. Garda CL Southeast, Inc., et al., No. 9:24-CV-80400-BER, 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 178343, at *29 (S.D. Fla. Sept. 11, 2025) (same); Mednax, 2024 WL 4415214, at *5 (noting district courts in the Eleventh Circuit routinely approve fee awards of one-third of the common fund settlement). See also, e.g., In re Checking Account Overdraft Litig., No. 1:09-MD-02036-JLK, 2020 WL 4586398, at *16 (S.D. Fla. Aug. 10, 2020) (awarding 35%); Morgan v. Public Storage, 301 F. Supp. 3d 1237, 1257-58 (S.D. Fla. 2016) (awarding 33.33%); *Wolff v. (citing Circuit case law and listing Southern and Middle District of Florida attorneys' fees awards); Waters v. Int'l Precious Metals Corp., 190 F.3d 1291 (11th Cir. 1999) (affirming fee award of 33.33 % of settlement).

Examples of attorneys' fee awards of 33.33% or higher in data breach cases include the two Fortra MDL, Independent Living, and Garda settlements cited in the prior paragraph and the following: Garza v. HealthAlliance, Inc., No. 72450/2023 (NY Sup. Ct., Westchester Cty.) (approving 35% of the settlement fund); In re Snowflake, Inc., Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 2:24-MD-3126-BMM, 2025 U.S. Dist. Data Breach Litig.*, 2024 WL 3104286, at *3 (same); Abrams, et al. v. The Savannah College of Art and Design Inc., No. 1:22-cv-04297-LMM, DE# 29 (N.D. Ga. Sept. 23, 2023) (same); *Phelps, et al. v. Class Counsel's request is also reasonable considering the market rate in the private marketplace "where attorneys typically negotiate percentage fee arrangements with their clients." Pinto v. Princess Cruise Lines, Ltd., 513 F. Supp. 2d 1334, 1341 (S.D. Fla. 2007). As such, "attorneys regularly contract for contingent fees between 30% and 40% directly with their clients." Id. Indeed, this Court has recognized a fee of 33.33% "is at the market rate of what the Class could have negotiated with counsel . . . as a traditional contingency fee arrangement at the outset of the case." Morgan v. Public Storage, 301 F. Supp. 3d 1237, 1255 (S.D. Fla. 2016); see also In re Checking Account Overdraft Litig., 830 F.Supp.2d 1330, 1366 (S.D. Fla. 2011) (acknowledging class counsel's requested fee of 30% "falls on the low end of the average in the private marketplace" where contingency fees of up to 40% are customary in the private marketplace).

6. The Litigation Costs Are Reasonable.

Class Counsel request reimbursement of $32,384.30 for litigation costs that Class Counsel incurred and paid in connection with the prosecution of the Action and the Settlement. The litigation costs include fees related to filing, service, experts, mediation, and travel. Joint Decl. ¶ 29. Ordinary law firm overhead costs, including postage and legal research, are not included. Plaintiffs' attorneys are entitled to reimbursement of reasonable and necessary out-of-pocket expenses incurred in the course of activities benefitting the class. Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *14; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *12; Morgan, 301 F. Supp. 3d at 1258. Further, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(h), a trial court may award nontaxable costs that are authorized by law or the parties' agreement. See also Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *12 (citing Behrens, 118 F.R.D. at 549 (noting plaintiffs' counsel is entitled to be reimbursed for reasonable expenses from the class fund)).

V. CONCLUSION

Plaintiffs and Class Counsel respectfully request this Court enter the Final Approval Order: (1) granting Final Approval to the Settlement; (2) affirming certification of the Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass for settlement purposes, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a) and 23(b)(3); (3) confirming the appointment of Plaintiffs as Class Representatives; Jeff Ostrow and Mariya Weekes as Class Counsel; and Epiq as Settlement Administrator; (5) awarding Class Counsel $1,666,666.66 for attorneys' fees and $32,384.30 for costs; (6) approving payment of any outstanding or future Settlement Administration Costs; (7) overruling timely objections, if any; and (8) entering final judgment dismissing the Action with prejudice and reserving jurisdiction over Settlement implementation. Plaintiffs attach a proposed Final Approval Order as Exhibit D.

CERTIFICATE OF LOCAL RULE 7.1(a)(3) CONFERRAL

Class Counsel certify they have conferred with Defendant's Counsel regarding the relief requested herein, and the Defendant does not oppose the relief requested.

The Settlement Administrator shall exercise, in its discretion, all usual and customary steps to prevent fraud and abuse and take any reasonable steps to prevent fraud and abuse in the Claim Process. The Settlement Administrator may, in its discretion, deny in whole or in part any Claim Form to prevent actual or possible fraud or abuse. By agreement, the Parties can instruct the Settlement Administrator to take whatever steps it deems appropriate if the Settlement Administrator identifies actual or possible fraud or abuse relating to the submission of Claims, including, but not limited to, denying in whole or in part any Claim to prevent actual or possible fraud or abuse. If any fraud is detected or reasonably suspected, the Settlement Administrator and Parties may require information from Claimants or deny Claims, subject to the supervision of the Parties and ultimate oversight by the Court.

100. Claim Forms that do not meet the terms and conditions of this Settlement shall be promptly rejected by the Settlement Administrator and the Settlement Administrator shall advise the Settlement Class member of the reason(s) why the Claim Form was rejected. However, if the Claim Form is rejected for containing incomplete or inaccurate information, and/or omitting required information, the Settlement Administrator may send a Notice of Deficiency explaining what information is missing or inaccurate and needed to validate the Claim and have it submitted for consideration. The Settlement Administrator shall notify the Settlement Class Member using the contact information provided in the Claim Form. The additional information and/or documentation can include, for example, answers to questions regarding the validity of the physical or e-signature. A Settlement Class Member shall have until the Claim Form Deadline, or 15 days after the date the Notice of Deficiency is sent via mail and postmarked or via email, whichever is later, to reply to the Notice of Deficiency and provide the required information. If the Settlement Class Member timely and adequately provides the requested information and/or documentation, the Claim shall be deemed a Valid Claim and processed by the Settlement Administrator. If the Settlement Class Member does not timely and completely provide the requested information and/or documentation, the Settlement Administrator shall reduce or deny the Claim unless Defendant and Class Counsel otherwise agree.

101. Where a good faith basis exists, the Settlement Administrator may reduce or reject a Claim for, among other reasons, the following:

- a. Failure to fully complete and/or sign the Claim Form;
- b. Insufficient documentation;
- c. Illegible Claim Form;

- d. The Claim Form is fraudulent;
- e. The Claim Form is duplicative of another Claim Form;
- f. The Claimant is not a Settlement Class Member;
- g. The Claimant submitted a timely and valid request to opt-out of the Settlement Class.
- h. The person submitting the Claim Form requests that payment be made to a person or entity other than the Claimant for whom the Claim Form is submitted;
- i. Failure to submit a Claim Form by the Claim Form Deadline; and/or
- j. The Claim Form otherwise does not comply with the requirements of this Settlement.

102. The Settlement Administrator's reduction or denial of a Claim is final, subject to the following dispute resolution procedures:

- a. The Settlement Administrator shall have 30 days from the Claim Form Deadline to approve or reject Claims based on findings of fraud or duplication;
- b. A request for additional information by sending a Notice of Deficiency shall not be considered a denial for purposes of this Paragraph;
- c. If a Claim is rejected for fraud or duplication, the Settlement Administrator shall notify the Claimant using the contact information provided in the Claim Form. Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel shall be provided with copies of all such notifications to Claimants; and
- d. The Settlement Administrator's determination as to whether to approve, deny, or reduce a Claim shall be final and binding.

103. The Settlement Administrator shall provide all information gathered in investigating Claims, including, but not limited to, copies of all correspondence and email and all notes of the Settlement Administrator, the decision reached, and all reasons supporting the decision, if requested by Class Counsel or Defendant's Counsel. Additionally, Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel shall have the right to inspect the Claim Forms and supporting documentation received by the Settlement Administrator at any time upon reasonable notice.

104. No person or entity shall have any claim against Defendant, Defendant's Counsel, Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class, Class Counsel, and/or the Settlement Administrator based on any eligibility determinations, distributions, or awards made in accordance with this Settlement.

105. No later than 75 days after Final Approval or 30 days after the Effective Date, whichever is later, the Settlement Administrator shall distribute the Settlement Class Member Benefits.

106. Cash Payments to Settlement Class Members will be made by electronic payment or by paper check. Following Final Approval, the Settlement Administrator will send Settlement Class Members an email to select a form of electronic payment or to receive payment by paper check. In the event a Settlement Class Member does not make an election or there is a problem with issuance of an electronic payment, a paper check will be sent to the Settlement Class Member's last known address. Settlement Class Members shall have 90 days to select their form of payment. Paper checks must be negotiated within 90 days of issuance. In the event the Settlement Administrator is unable to distribute funds to the Settlement Class Members entitled to receive them due to incorrect or incomplete information provided to the Settlement Administrator, the funds shall become residual funds, and such Settlement Class Members shall forfeit their entitlement right to the funds.

107. In the event there are funds remaining in the Settlement Fund 240 days following the date Settlement Class members are sent an email to select their form of payment, said funds attributable to unclaimed and undeliverable funds shall be treated as residual funds as described in Section XII.

108. The Settlement Administrator will send an email to Settlement Class Members with Valid Claims that include an election for Credit Monitoring with information on how to enroll in the Credit Monitoring, including the activation code.

XI. Final Approval Order and Final Judgment

109. Plaintiffs shall file their Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement, inclusive of the Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs, no later than 45 days before the original date set for the Final Approval Hearing. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will hear argument on Plaintiffs' Motion for Final Approval of the Settlement and Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs. In the Court's discretion, the Court will also hear argument at the Final Approval Hearing from any Settlement Class Members (or their counsel) who object to the Settlement and/or to the Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs, provided the objectors submitted timely objections that meet all of the requirements listed in this Agreement.

110. At or following the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will determine whether to enter the Final Approval Order and final judgment thereon, and whether to grant the Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Such proposed Final Approval Order shall, among other things:

- a. Determine that the Settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable;
- b. Finally certify the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only;
- c. Determine the completed Notice Program satisfies Due Process requirements;
- d. Bar and enjoin all Releasing Parties from asserting or otherwise pursuing any of the Released Claims at any time and in any jurisdiction, including during any appeal from the Final Approval Order; and retain jurisdiction over the enforcement of the Court's injunctions;

e. Release Defendant and the Released Parties from the Released Claims, as specified in Section XIII below; and

f. Reserve the Court's continuing and exclusive jurisdiction over the Parties to this Agreement, including Defendant, Plaintiffs, all Settlement Class Members, and all objectors, to administer, supervise, construe, and enforce this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

XII. Attorneys' Fees and Costs

111. Attorneys' Fees and Costs – The Parties did not discuss the amount of attorneys' fees, expenses until after the substantive terms of the Settlement had been agreed upon.

112. As part of the Motion for Final Approval filed 45 days before the scheduled Final Approval Hearing, Class Counsel shall move the Court for an award of attorneys' fees in an amount not to exceed one-third of the Settlement Fund, plus reimbursement of reasonable documented litigation costs and expenses. The amount of attorneys' fees and litigation expense reimbursement shall be determined by the Court.

113. The attorneys' fees and cost awards approved by the Court shall be paid by the Settlement Administrator exclusively out of the Settlement Fund by wire transfer to an account designated by Class Counsel within five days of the Effective Date. After the Settlement Administrator has distributed the attorneys' fees and cost awards approved by the Court, Class Counsel shall solely be responsible for allocating the attorneys' fees and cost awards to any counsel that contributed to the prosecution and/or settlement of the Action.

114. This Settlement is not contingent on approval of the request for attorneys' fees and costs, and if the Court denies the request or grants amounts less than what was requested, the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain in force. The provision for attorneys' fees and costs was not negotiated until after all material terms of the Settlement.

XIII. Disposition of Residual Funds

115. In the event there are funds remaining in the Settlement Fund 240 days following the date Settlement Class members are sent an email to select their form of payment, any residual shall be distributed to the National Cybersecurity Alliance, to be approved by the Court.

XIV. Releases

116. Upon the Effective Date, and in consideration of the Settlement relief and other consideration described herein, the Releasing Parties shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Final Approval Order shall have, fully, finally, and forever released, acquitted, relinquished, and completely discharged Defendant from any and all Released Claims.

117. The Releasing Parties expressly waive all rights under California Civil Code section 1542, which provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

The Releasing Parties also waive the provisions and rights of any law(s) that are comparable in effect to California Civil Code section 1542 (including, without limitation, California Civil Code § 1798.80, et seq., Montana Code Ann. § 28- 1-1602; North Dakota Cent. Code § 9-13-02; and South Dakota Codified Laws § 20-7-11). The Releasing Parties agree that, once this Agreement is executed, they will not, directly or indirectly, individually or in concert with another, maintain, cause to be maintained, or voluntarily assist in maintaining any further demand, action, claim, lawsuit, arbitration, or similar proceeding, in any capacity whatsoever, based on any of the Released Claims.

118. Settlement Class members who opt-out of the Settlement prior to the Opt-Out Deadline do not release their claims arising out of related to the Data Incident, and will not obtain any of the Settlement Class Member Benefits under the Settlement.

119. Upon the Effective Date: (a) this Settlement shall be the exclusive remedy for any and all Released Claims of Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members; and (b) Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members stipulate to be and shall be permanently barred and enjoined by Court order from initiating, asserting, or prosecuting all Released Claim, whether on behalf of Plaintiffs, any Settlement Class Member or others, in any jurisdiction, including in any federal, state, or local court or tribunal.

120. The power to enforce any term of this Settlement is not affected by the releases in this section.

XV. Dismissal

121. Upon Final Approval of this Settlement Agreement by the Court, the Action will be dismissed with prejudice, including the Plaintiffs' individual claims, as provided for in the Final Order final judgment.

122. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over the Action to enforce the terms of this Settlement. In the event that any applications for relief are made, such applications shall be made to the Court. To avoid doubt, the Final Approval Order and final judgment apply to and are binding upon the Parties, the Settlement Class Members, and their respective heirs, successors, and assigns.

XVI. Termination of Settlement

123. This Agreement shall be subject to and is expressly conditioned on the occurrence of all of the following events:

f. Court approval of the Settlement consideration set forth in Section V and the Releases set forth in Section XIII of this Agreement;

g. The Court has entered the Preliminary Approval Order;

h. The Court has entered the Final Approval Order, and all objections, if any, are overruled, and all appeals taken are resolved in favor of Final Approval; and

i. The Effective Date has occurred.

124. If any of the conditions specified in the preceding paragraph are not met, or if the Court otherwise imposes any modification to or condition of approval of the Settlement to which the Parties do not consent, then this Agreement shall be cancelled and terminated.

125. In the event this Agreement is terminated or fails to become effective, then the Parties shall return to the status quo ante in the Action as if the Parties had not entered into this Agreement, and the Parties shall jointly file a status report in the Court seeking to reopen the Action and all papers filed. In such event, the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall have no further force and effect with respect to the Parties and shall not be used in this Action or in any other action or proceeding for any other purpose, and any order entered by this Court in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall be treated as vacated, nunc pro tunc.

126. In the event this Agreement is terminated or fails to become effective, all funds in the Settlement Fund shall be promptly returned to the Defendant as described hereinabove. However, Defendant shall have no right to seek from Plaintiffs, Class Counsel, or the Settlement Administrator the Settlement Administration Costs paid or incurred.

XVII. Effect of Termination

127. The grounds upon which this Agreement may be terminated are set forth in Section

XIV. In the event of a termination, this Agreement shall be considered null and void; all of Plaintiffs', Class Counsel's, Defendant's, and Defendant's Counsel's obligations under the Settlement shall cease to be of any force and effect; and the Parties shall return to the status quo ante in the Action as if the Parties had not entered into this Agreement. In addition, in the event of such a termination, all of the Parties' respective pre-Settlement rights, claims, and defenses will be retained and preserved.

128. In the event the Settlement is terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, any discussions, offers, or negotiations associated with this Settlement shall not be discoverable or offered into evidence or used in the Action or any other action or proceeding for any purpose. In such event, all Parties to the Action shall stand in the same position as if this Agreement had not been negotiated, made, or filed with the Court.

XVIII. Medusind's Denial of Liability

129. Medusind has denied and continues to deny all liability alleged in the Action. In addition, Medusind maintains that it has meritorious defenses to the claims alleged in the Action, believes a litigation class could not be certified, and that it would have prevailed at trial. Nonetheless, taking into account the uncertainty, risks and costs inherent in any litigation, Medusind has concluded that further conduct of the Actions could be protracted, burdensome, expensive and distracting. Medusind has, therefore, determined that it is desirable and beneficial to Medusind that the Actions be settled in the manner and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Settlement Agreement. This Settlement shall in no event be construed or deemed to be evidence of an admission or concession by Medusind with respect to any claim or fault, liability, wrongdoing or damage whatsoever.

130. Class Counsel believe the claims asserted in the Action have merit, and they have examined and considered the benefits to be obtained under the proposed Settlement set forth in this Agreement, the risks associated with the continued prosecution of this complex, costly, and time-consuming litigation, and the likelihood of success on the merits of the Action. Class Counsel fully investigated the facts and law relevant to the merits of the claims, conducted discovery, and conducted independent investigation of the alleged claims. Class Counsel concluded that the proposed Settlement set forth in this Agreement is fair, adequate, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class.

131. The Parties understand and acknowledge that this Settlement Agreement constitutes a compromise.

132. To the extent permitted by law, neither this Settlement Agreement, nor any of its terms, nor any action taken by the Parties in connection with the negotiations of this Agreement, shall be deemed or construed to be an admission of the truth or falsity of any claims or defenses heretofore made, or an acknowledgment or admission by any party of any fault, liability, or wrongdoing of any kind whatsoever.

133. Neither the Settlement, nor any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of the Settlement (a) is or may be deemed to be, or may be used as, an admission of, or evidence of, the validity of any claim made by the Plaintiffs or Settlement Class Members, or of any wrongdoing or liability of the Released Parties; or (b) is or may be deemed to be, or may be used as, an admission of, or evidence of, any fault or omission of any of the Released Parties, in the Action or in any pending or future civil, criminal, administrative or other action or proceeding to establish any liability or admission by either Party.

134. In addition to any other defenses Defendant or the Released Parties may have at law, in equity, or otherwise, to the extent permitted by law, this Agreement may be pleaded as a full and complete defense to and may be used as the basis for an injunction against, any action, suit, or other proceeding that may be instituted, prosecuted, or attempted in breach of this Agreement or the Releases contained herein.

XIX. Miscellaneous Provisions

135. Confidentiality. To the extent permitted by ethics rules, the Parties and their counsel shall keep confidential all settlement communications, including communications regarding the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. This paragraph shall not be construed to limit or impede the Notice requirements contained in this Agreement, nor shall this paragraph be construed to prevent Class Counsel or Defendant's Counsel from notifying or explaining that the Action has settled or limit the representations that the Parties or their counsel may make to the Court to assist in the Court's evaluation of the Settlement, Preliminary Approval, Final Approval, and any objection to the Settlement's terms. Defendant may also provide information about the Agreement to its attorneys, members, partners, insurers, brokers, agents, and other persons or entities as required by securities laws, other applicable laws and regulations, and as necessary to effect the Settlement.

136. Independent Investigation and Decision to Settle. The Parties understand and acknowledge that they: (i) have performed an independent investigation of the allegations of fact and law made in connection with the Actions; and (ii) that even if they may hereafter discover facts in addition to, or different from, those that they now know or believe to be true with respect to the subject matter of the Action that will not affect or in any respect limit the binding nature of this Agreement. It is the Parties intention to resolve their disputes in connection with the Actions pursuant to the terms of this Agreement now and thus, in furtherance of their intentions, the Settlement Agreement shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the discovery of any additional facts or law, or changes in law, and this Agreement shall not be subject to rescission or modification by reason of any changes or differences in facts or law, subsequently occurring or otherwise.

137. Stay of Proceedings. All motions, discovery, and other proceedings in the Action shall be stayed until the Court enters the Final Approval Order and final judgment, or this Settlement Agreement is otherwise terminated. Upon entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, all Settlement Class Members shall be barred and enjoined from prosecuting any of the Released Claims against any of the Released Parties.

138. Construction. As used in this Agreement, the masculine, feminine, or neuter gender, and the singular or plural number, shall each be deemed to include the others whenever the context so indicates.

139. Authority. The individual signing this Agreement on behalf of Medusind represents that he/she is fully authorized by Medusind to enter into, and to execute, this Settlement Agreement on behalf of Medusind. Class Counsel represents that they are fully authorized to conduct settlement negotiations with Medusind's Counsel on behalf of Plaintiffs, and to enter into, and to execute, this Settlement Agreement on behalf of the Settlement Class, subject to Court approval pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e). Plaintiffs enter into and execute this Settlement Agreement on behalf of themselves, and as representatives of and on behalf of the Settlement Class, subject to Court approval pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e).

140. Plaintiff Objections. If, prior to the Effective Date, Class Counsel knows, or has reason to know, of any Plaintiff who intends to exclude himself or herself from the Settlement or who intends to submit an objection to the Settlement, Class Counsel shall promptly notify Medusind's Counsel within three days. The Parties shall thereafter meet and confer within seven days of such notification to determine whether any modifications to the Settlement, or any other actions or filings, are required.

141. No Primary Drafter of Settlement Agreement. The Parties, together with Class Counsel and Medusind's Counsel, have jointly participated in the drafting of this Agreement. No Party hereto shall be considered the drafter of this Agreement or any provision hereof for the purpose of any statute, case law, or rule of interpretation or construction that would or might cause any provision to be construed against the drafter hereof.

142. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to and for the benefit of, the successors and assigns of the Releasing Parties and the Released Parties.

143. Cooperation of Parties. The Parties to this Agreement agree to cooperate in good faith to prepare and execute all documents, seek Court approval, uphold Court approval, and do all things reasonably necessary to complete and effectuate the Settlement described in this Agreement.

144. Obligation to Meet and Confer. Before filing any motion in the Court raising a dispute arising out of or related to this Agreement, the Parties shall consult with each other and certify to the Court that they have met and conferred in an attempt to resolve the dispute.

145. Integration and No Reliance. This Agreement constitutes a single, integrated written contract expressing the entire agreement of the Parties relative to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement is executed without reliance on any covenant, agreement, representation, or warranty by any Party or any Party's representative other than those expressly set forth in this Agreement. No covenants, agreements, representations, or warranties of any kind whatsoever have been made by any Party hereto, except as provided for herein.

146. No Conflict Intended. Any inconsistency between the headings used in this Agreement and the text of the paragraphs of this Agreement shall be resolved in favor of the text.

147. Governing Law. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Agreement shall be construed in accordance with, and be governed by, the laws of the state of Florida, without regard to the principles thereof regarding choice of law or conflicts of law; however nothing in this Agreement shall operate as a waiver of any Party's position regarding the applicable law governing the underlying claims at issue in the Action.

148. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument, even though all Parties do not sign the same counterparts. Original signatures are not required. Any signature submitted through email of a PDF shall be deemed an original.

149. Jurisdiction. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over the implementation, enforcement, and performance of this Agreement, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any suit, action, proceeding, or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement that cannot be resolved by negotiation and agreement by counsel for the Parties. The Court shall also retain jurisdiction over all questions and/or disputes related to the Notice Program and the Settlement Administrator. As part of the agreement to render services in connection with this Settlement, the Settlement Administrator shall consent to the jurisdiction of the Court for this purpose. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over the enforcement of the Court's injunction barring and enjoining all Releasing Parties from asserting any of the Released Claims and from pursuing any Released Claims against the Released Parties at any time and in any jurisdiction, including during any appeal from the Final Approval Order.

150. Change of Time Periods. The time periods and/or dates described in this Agreement with respect to the giving of notices and hearings are subject to approval and change by the Court, or by written agreement of Class Counsel and Defendant's counsel and as approved by the Court, without notice to Settlement Class Members. The Parties reserve the right, by agreement and subject to the Court's approval, to grant any reasonable extension of time that might be needed to carry out any of the provisions of this Agreement.

151. Communication with Medusind's Customers and Other Members of the Public.

Medusind reserves the right to communicate with its customers and members of the public in the ordinary course of business. Medusind will refer any inquiry initiated by a Settlement Class Member about the subject-matter of this Settlement to the Settlement Administrator where possible. With the exception of the Class Notice, no Party or counsel shall issue any statement to the media or press regarding the Agreement.

152. No Disparagement. The Parties and their counsel agree that no Party or counsel shall make any disparaging public statements about the other.

153. Confidentiality of Discovery Materials. The Parties and their counsel agree that all documents shared shall remain confidential. Within 60 days after the Effective Date, Class Counsel and Plaintiffs shall destroy all confidential documents, data and information, and all copies thereof in their possession, custody, or control, provided by Medusind to Class Counsel or anyone they employed or retained in the Litigation. As soon as reasonably practicable, but no later than 75 days after the Effective Date, Class Counsel shall deliver a letter to Medusind's Counsel certifying their compliance with this paragraph.

156. No Waiver. The waiver by any Party of any breach of this Agreement by another Party shall not be deemed or construed as a waiver of any other breach, whether prior, subsequent, or contemporaneous, of this Agreement.

- These rights and options—and the deadlines to exercise them—are explained in this Notice.
- The Court must decide whether to approve the Settlement, attorneys’ fees, and costs. No Settlement Class Member Benefits will be provided unless the Court approves the Settlement.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why is this Notice being provided?

A court authorized this Notice because you have the right to know about the Settlement of this class action lawsuit and about all of your rights and options before the Court decides whether to grant Final Approval to the Settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement, your legal rights, what Settlement Class Member Benefits are available, who is eligible for the Settlement Class Member Benefits, and how to get them.

The Honorable Rodolfo A. Ruiz II of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida is overseeing this class action. The lawsuit is known Ashley Owings v. Medusind, Inc., Case No. 1:25-cv-20117-RAR (“lawsuit”). The individuals who filed this lawsuit are called the “Plaintiffs” and/or “Class Representatives” and the company sued, Medusind, Inc., is called the “Defendant.”

2. What is this lawsuit about?

Plaintiffs filed this lawsuit against the Defendant on behalf of themselves and all others similarly related to a Data Incident that occurred on or about December 29, 2023, involving the Defendant and resulting in the unauthorized access to or acquisition of Settlement Class members’ Private Information as the result of the infiltration of Defendant’s computer systems. Private Information includes personally identifiable information and private health information consisting of, but not limited to, the following: names, physical addresses, email addresses, telephone numbers, health insurance and billing information (insurance policy numbers or claims/benefits information), payment information (debit/credit card numbers or bank account information), health information (medical history, medical record numbers, or prescription information), and government identification (Social Security numbers, taxpayer IDs, driver’s licenses, or passport numbers).

Defendant denies the legal claims and denies any wrongdoing or liability. The Court has not made any determination of any wrongdoing by Defendant, or that any law has been violated. Instead, the Plaintiffs and Defendant have agreed to a settlement to avoid the risk, cost, and time of continuing the lawsuit.

3. Why is there a Settlement?

The Plaintiffs and Defendant do not agree about the legal claims made in this lawsuit. The lawsuit has not gone to trial, and the Court has not decided in favor of the Plaintiffs or Defendant. Instead, the Plaintiffs and Defendant have agreed to settle the lawsuit. The Class Representatives, Defendant, and their lawyers believe the Settlement is best for the Settlement Class because of the Settlement Class Member Benefits available and the risks and uncertainty associated with continuing the lawsuit.

4. Why is this lawsuit a class action?

In a class action, one or more people (called class representatives) sue on behalf of all people who have similar legal claims. Together, all these people are called a class or class members. One court resolves the issues for all class members, except for those class members who timely exclude themselves (opt-out) from the class.

Questions? Go to www.XXXXXXXXXX.com or call 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am included in the Settlement?

You are included in the Settlement Class if you are a living individual residing in the United States and was sent a notice of the Data Incident indicating your Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

You are also included in the California Settlement Subclass if you are a Settlement Class Member residing in California on December 29, 2023.

6. Are there exceptions to being included in the Settlement?

Yes. Excluded from the Settlement Class are: (1) all persons who are directors, officers, and agents of Defendant, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliated companies; (2) governmental entities; and (3) the Judge assigned to the lawsuit, that Judge's immediate family, and Court staff.

7. What if I am still not sure whether I am part of the Settlement?

If you are still not sure whether you are a Settlement Class member, you may go to www.XXXXXXXXXX.com or call toll-free 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

8. What does this Settlement provide?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can submit a Claim Form for the following Settlement Class Member Benefits:

Cash Payment A – Documented Losses

You may submit a Claim Form with reasonable documentation for losses related to the Data Incident for up to $5,000 per Settlement Class Member.

Examples of expenses incurred as a result of the Data Incident include (but are not limited to): unreimbursed losses relating to fraud or identity theft; costs associated with freezing or unfreezing credit with any credit reporting agency; and miscellaneous expenses such as notary, fax, postage, copying, mileage, and long-distance telephone charges.

Examples of reasonable documentation include (but are not limited to): telephone records, correspondence including emails, or receipts. Personal certifications, declarations, or affidavits from the Settlement Class Member do not constitute reasonable documentation but may be included to provide clarification, context, or support for other submitted reasonable documentation.

You will not be reimbursed for expenses if you have been reimbursed for the same expenses by another source, including compensation provided in connection with the identity protection and credit monitoring services offered as part of the notification letter provided by Defendant or otherwise.

If you do not submit reasonable documentation supporting a loss, or if your Claim Form is invalid as determined by the Settlement Administrator, and you do not cure your Claim Form, your Claim Form

Questions? Go to www.XXXXXXXXXX.com or call 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX

for Cash Payment A – Documented Losses will instead be processed as if you elected Cash Payment B – Alternate Cash.

Cash Payment B – Alternate Cash

Instead of selecting Cash Payment A, without providing documentation, you may submit a Claim Form to receive an alternate cash payment in the estimated amount of $100.

California Statutory Award: In addition to Cash Payment A or Cash Payment B, members of the California Settlement Subclass may also elect to receive an additional California Statutory Award in the estimated amount of $100.

Credit Monitoring - In addition to Cash Payment A or Cash Payment B, you may also submit a Claim Form to receive two years of free Credit Monitoring.

Cash Payments - Your Cash Payment may be subject to a pro rata (a legal term meaning equal share) increase if the amount of Valid Claims does not use the entire Net Settlement Fund. Alternatively, if the amount of Valid Claims exceeds the amount of the Net Settlement Fund, calculated after payment for Credit Monitoring has been subtracted your Cash Payment may be subject to a pro rata reduction.

For purposes of calculating the pro rata increase or decrease, the Settlement Administrator must distribute the funds in the Net Settlement Fund first for payment of Credit Monitoring, then to Cash Payment A – Documented Losses, and then for Cash Payment B and for Credit Monitoring. Any pro rata increases or decreases will be on an equal percentage basis.

Injunctive Relief

Defendant is implementing additional security measures following the Data Incident.

9. What am I giving up to receive Settlement Class Member Benefits or stay in the Settlement?

Unless you exclude yourself (opt-out), you will remain in the Settlement Class. If the Settlement is approved and becomes final, all Court orders and any judgments will apply to you and legally bind you. You will not be able to sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Released Parties about the Released Claims in this lawsuit. The specific rights you are giving up are called “Released Claims.”

10. What are the Released Claims?

Section XIII of the Settlement Agreement describes the Releases, Released Claims, and Released Parties, in necessary legal terminology, so please read this section carefully. The Settlement Agreement is available at www.XXXXXXXXXXX.com. For questions regarding the Releases, Released Claims, or Released Parties and what the language in the Settlement Agreement means, you can also contact Class Counsel listed below for free, or you can talk to your own lawyer at your own expense.

EXCLUDE YOURSELF OR OPT-OUT OF THE SETTLEMENT

If you are a member of the Settlement Class and the California Settlement Subclass (if eligible) and want to keep any right you may have to sue or continue to sue the Released Parties on your own about the legal claims in this lawsuit or the Released Claims, then you must take steps to get out of the Settlement. This is called excluding yourself from—or “opting-out” of—the Settlement.

14. How do I opt-out of the Settlement?

To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must mail a written request for exclusion, which includes the following:

- 1) Your name, address, telephone number, and email address (if any);
- 2) Your personal physical signature; and
- 3) A statement that you want to be excluded from the Settlement Class, such as “I hereby request to be excluded from the Settlement Class in the Medusind Data Incident.”

The exclusion request must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator at the following address, and be postmarked by MONTH DD, 20YY:

Medusind Data Incident
Settlement Administrator
PO Box XXXX
Portland, OR 972XX-XXXX

You cannot opt-out (exclude yourself) by telephone or by email.

“Mass” or “class” requests for exclusion filed by third parties on behalf of a “mass” or “class” of Settlement Class members or multiple Settlement Class members where the opt-out has not been signed by each and every individual Settlement Class member will not be allowed.

Questions? Go to www.XXXXXXXXXX.com or call 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX

15. If I opt-out can I still get anything from the Settlement?

No. If you opt-out, you will not be able to receive Settlement Class Member Benefits, and you will not be bound by the Settlement or any judgments in this lawsuit. You can only get Settlement Class Member Benefits if you stay in the Settlement and submit a timely and valid Claim Form.

16. If I do not opt-out, can I sue the Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you opt-out, you give up any right to sue any of the Defendant and Released Parties for the legal claims this Settlement resolves and Releases, and you will be bound by all the terms of the Settlement, proceedings, orders, and judgments in the lawsuit. You must opt-out of this lawsuit to start or continue your own lawsuit or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendant and Released Parties about the Released Claims in this Settlement. If you have a pending lawsuit, speak to your lawyer in that lawsuit immediately.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

17. How do I tell the Court I do not like the Settlement?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can tell the Court you do not agree with all or any part of the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs.

To object, you must file your timely written objection with the Court as provided below by MONTH DD, 20YY, and send by U.S. mail to Class Counsel, Defendant's Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator postmarked by or shipped by private courier (such as Federal Express) by MONTH DD, 20YY, stating you object to the Settlement in Ashley Owings v. Medusind, Inc., Case No. 1:25-cv-20117-RAR.

To file an objection, you cannot exclude yourself from the Settlement Class. Your objection must include all of the following information:

- 1) Your full name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address (if any);
- 2) All grounds for the objection, accompanied by any legal support for the objection known to you as the objector or your own lawyer;
- 3) The number of times you have objected to a class action settlement within the five years preceding the date that you file the objection, the caption of each case in which you have made such objection, and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon your prior objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case;
- 4) The identity of all lawyers representing you, including any former or current lawyers who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys' Fees, and Costs and whether they will appear at the Final Approval Hearing;
- 5) The number of times your lawyer or your lawyer's law firm have objected to a class action settlement within the five years preceding the date of the filed objection, the caption of each case in which your lawyer or the firm has made such objection and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon your lawyer's or the lawyer's law firm's prior objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case;
- 6) A list of all persons who will be called to testify at the Final Approval Hearing in support of your objection (if any);
- 7) A statement confirming whether you intend to personally appear and/or testify at the Final Approval Hearing; and

Class Counsel and/or Defendant's Counsel may conduct limited discovery on any objector or objector's lawyer, including the taking of depositions and requiring the production of documents.

To object, you must file your timely written objection with the Court by MONTH DD, 20YY, and send it by U.S. mail to Class Counsel, Defendant's Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator postmarked by or shipped by private courier (such as Federal Express) by MONTH DD, 20YY, at the following addresses:

18. What is the difference between objecting and asking to be excluded?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Opting-out is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you opt-out, you cannot object because you are no longer part of the Settlement.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

19. Do I have a lawyer in the lawsuit?

Yes. The Court has appointed Jeff Ostrow of Kopelowitz Ostrow P.A. and Mariya Weekes of Milberg Coleman Bryson Phillips Grossman PLLC as Class Counsel to represent you and the Settlement Class for the purposes of this Settlement. You may hire your own lawyer at your own cost if you want someone other than Class Counsel to represent you in this lawsuit.

20. How will Class Counsel be paid?

Class Counsel will file a motion asking the Court to award attorneys' fees of up to 1/3 of the Settlement Fund, plus reimbursement of costs. If awarded by the Court, the attorneys' fees and costs will be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Court may award less than these amounts.

THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

Questions? Go to www.XXXXXXXXXX.com or call 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX

The Court will hold a “Final Approval Hearing” to decide whether to approve the Settlement and Application for Attorneys’ Fees, and Costs. You may attend and you may ask to speak if you file an objection by the deadline, but you do not have to.

21. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on MONTH DD, 20YY, at XX:XX a.m./p.m. before the Honorable Rodolfo A. Ruiz II at the Wilkie D. Ferguson, Jr. United States Courthouse, 400 North Miami Avenue, Miami, FL 33128. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and decide whether to approve the Settlement and Class Counsel’s Application for Attorneys’ Fees and Costs.

If there are objections that were filed by the deadline, the Court will consider them. If you file a timely objection, and you (or your lawyer) ask to speak at the hearing, the Court, at its discretion, may hear objections at the hearing.

Note: The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change without further notice to the Settlement Class. The Court may also decide to hold the hearing via video conference or by telephone. You should check the Settlement Website www.XXXXXXXXXX.com to confirm the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing have not changed.

22. Do I have to attend the Final Approval Hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. However, you are welcome to attend at your own expense. If you file an objection, you do not have to attend the Final Approval Hearing to speak about it. As long as you file your written objection by the deadline, the Court will consider it.

23. May I speak at the Final Approval Hearing?

If there are objections that were filed by the deadline, the Court will consider them. If you file a timely objection, and you (or your lawyer) ask to speak at the hearing, the Court, at its discretion, may hear objections at the hearing.

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

THIS CAUSE comes before the Court on Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval¹ requesting entry of an order: (i) granting Preliminary Approval of the Settlement; (ii) provisionally certifying the Settlement Class for settlement purposes; (iii) appointing Plaintiffs as Class Representatives; (iv) appointing Class Counsel for the Settlement Class; (v) approving the form of Notices and the Notice Program; (vi) approving the Claim Form and the Claim process; (vii) appointing the Settlement Administrator; (viii) establishing procedures for members of the Settlement Class to opt-out of or object to the Settlement; and (ix) scheduling a Final Approval Hearing on whether to grant Final Approval of the Settlement and Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs. [ECF No. 51].

¹ All capitalized terms used herein have the same meanings as those defined in Section II of the Settlement Agreement attached to the Motion for Preliminary Approval as Exhibit A.

Having carefully reviewed the proposed Settlement and its exhibits, all relevant filings, and the record, the Court finds the proposed Settlement satisfies the criteria for preliminary approval, the proposed Settlement Class should be preliminarily certified, the proposed Notice Program and Claim process should be approved, and Class Representatives, Class Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator should be appointed. Accordingly, it is hereby: ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Motion is GRANTED as set forth herein.

BACKGROUND

Defendant is a medical and dental billing and software company that provides services to providers throughout the country. See generally Complaint, [ECF No. 1]. Defendant's healthcare customers entrusted Defendant with the Private Information of their patients, including their names, mailing addresses, email addresses, telephone numbers, health insurance and billing information (insurance policy numbers or claims/benefits information), payment information (debit/credit card numbers or bank account information), health information (medical history, medical record numbers, or prescription information), and government identification (Social Security numbers, taxpayer ID numbers, driver's licenses numbers, or passport numbers). Id.

On December 29, 2023, Defendant detected suspicious activity on its computer systems and later confirmed that cybercriminals accessed certain information stored on those systems. Id. On or about January 7, 2025, Defendant began sending notice letters to approximately 700,000 individuals advising them that their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident. Id. On January 9, 2025, Plaintiff Owens filed an action against Medusind before this Court related to the Data Incident. Id. Thereafter, a number of similar lawsuits with overlapping claims and classes were filed against Defendant regarding the Data Incident. Following a motion for consolidation and appointment of leadership, the Court consolidated all related cases into this action and appointed Jeff Ostrow and Mariya Weekes as Interim Class Counsel. [ECF Nos. 4, 6]. Plaintiffs filed their consolidated class action complaint on February 18, 2025, to which Defendant filed a Motion to Dismiss on April 11, 2025. [ECF Nos. 21, 35]. Plaintiffs filed their response in opposition to the motion to dismiss on May 15, 2025, to which Defendant filed its reply on June 10, 2025. [ECF Nos. 40, 43].

This Settlement was reached before the Court considered the motion to dismiss. Prior to participating in mediation, the Parties engaged in meaningful discovery. Plaintiffs consulted with liability and damages experts and requested pre-mediation informal discovery from Defendant. In response Defendant produced extensive material relating, including but not limited to, the number of individuals and categories of Private Information impacted by the Data Incident. The Parties also exchanged detailed mediation statements outlining their positions with respect to liability, damages, and settlement.

On June 10, 2025, the Parties participated in a full-day private mediation session in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, before experienced class action mediator and retired federal Magistrate Judge Diane Welsh. The mediation concluded with the Parties agreeing to all material terms of the Settlement. The terms of the settlement reached are memorialized in the Agreement, which was negotiated at arm's length, in good faith, and without collusion by capable and experienced counsel with full knowledge of the facts, the law, and the inherent risks in the Action, and with the active involvement of Plaintiffs and Defendant.

The Parties filed a Notice of Settlement with the Court on June 12, 2025. [ECF No. 47]. Over the next five weeks, the Parties worked diligently to finalize the terms of the Agreement and ancillary documents. They signed the agreement on July 11, 2025. The Parties did not discuss attorneys' fees and costs until after they reached agreement on all material Settlement terms.

Specifically, the Settlement provides monetary relief that includes a non-reversionary all-cash Settlement Fund of $5,000,000. The Settlement Fund will be fully funded by Defendant within 40 days of Preliminary Approval. The Settlement Fund will be used to pay: (i) all Settlement Class Member Benefits; (ii) any attorneys' fees and costs awarded by the Court to Class Counsel; and (iii) all Settlement Administration Costs. Once Defendant funds the Settlement Fund, it will not be required to make any other payments to Settlement Class Members under the Settlement. The Settlement also provides that prior to Final Approval, Defendant will provide Class Counsel with an attestation as to the security measures it has implemented and plans to implement following the Data Incident. The costs of any such security measures shall be fully borne by Defendant, and under no circumstances will such costs be deducted from the Settlement Fund.

Plaintiffs now seek Preliminary Approval of the Settlement on behalf of the proposed Settlement Class. Defendant does not oppose the relief sought in the Motion for Preliminary Approval and agrees the Court should grant Preliminary Approval of the Settlement and allow Notice to issue to the Settlement Class. As further discussed below, the Settlement falls within the range of judicial approval and includes comprehensive Notice Program and Claims Process. As such, Preliminary Approval of the proposed Settlement is warranted.

LEGAL STANDARD

It is well established that “[a] class may be certified solely for purposes of settlement [if] a settlement is reached before a litigated determination of the class certification issue.” Borcea v. Carnival Corp., 238 F.R.D. 664, 671 (S.D. Fla. 2006) (cleaned up). “There is a strong judicial policy in favor of settlement, in order to conserve scarce resources that would otherwise be devoted to protracted litigation.” Id. In deciding whether to provisionally certify a settlement class, a court must consider the same factors that it would consider in connection with a proposed litigation class—i.e., all Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a) factors and at least one subsection of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b) must be satisfied— except that the Court need not consider the manageability of a potential trial, since the settlement, if approved, would obviate the need for a trial. See id. at 671–672.; see also Diakos v. HSS Sys., LLC, 137 F. Supp. 3d 1300, 1306 (S.D. Fla. 2015) (explaining a court evaluates whether certification of a settlement class is appropriate under Rule 23(a) and (b)); Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 620 (1997).

Rule 23(a) requires: (1) numerosity, (2) commonality, (3) typicality, and (4) adequacy of representation. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1)–(4). Rule 23(b)(3) requires that (1) “the questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members” and (2) “a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). The Eleventh Circuit also requires that the class representatives have standing to sue and that the proposed class is adequately defined and clearly ascertainable. See Prado v. Bush, 221 F.3d 1266, 1279 (11th Cir. 2000); Little v. T-Mobile USA, Inc., 691 F.3d 1302, 1304 (11th Cir. 2012).

Before addressing any Rule 23 factor, however, the Court must ensure that standing under Article III is met. See Griffin v. Dugger, 823 F.2d 1476, 1482 (11th Cir. 1987) (“[A]ny analysis of class certification must begin with the issue of standing”). To satisfy Article III standing, a plaintiff must “(1) suffer[] an injury in fact, (2) that is fairly traceable to the challenged conduct of defendant, and (3) that is likely to be redressed by a favorable judicial decision.” Spokeo, Inc. v. Robins, 578 U.S. 330, 338 (2016).

If certification of a settlement class is appropriate, a court then determines if the proposal is “fair, reasonable, and adequate.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). To do so, the Court considers whether:

- (A) the class representatives and class counsel have adequately represented the class; (B) the proposal was negotiated at arm’s length; (C) the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into account: (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal; (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member claims; (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney's fees, including timing of payment; and (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3); and (D) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other.

Id. Furthermore, the Eleventh Circuit “instruct[s] district courts to consider several additional factors called the Bennett factors.” In re Equifax Inc. Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., 999 F.3d 1247, 1273 (11th Cir. 2021) (citing Bennett v. Behring Corp., 737 F.2d 982, 986 (11th Cir. 1984)). These additional factors are (a) “there was no fraud or collusion in arriving at the settlement,” and (b) the settlement was fair, adequate and reasonable, considering (1) the likelihood of success at trial; (2) the range of possible recovery; (3) the point on or below the range of possible recovery at which a settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable; (4) the complexity, expense and duration of litigation; (5) the substance and amount of opposition to the settlement; and (6) the stage of proceedings at which the settlement was achieved. Bennett, 737 F.2d at 986 (“Bennett factors”).

Courts have substantial discretion in approving a settlement agreement, Bennett, 737 F.2d at 986, and settlement negotiations that involve arm's-length, informed bargaining with the aid of experienced counsel support a preliminary finding of fairness. See Manual for Compl. Lit., Third, § 30.42 (West 1995) (“A presumption of fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness may attach to a class settlement reached in arm's-length negotiations between experienced, capable counsel after meaningful discovery.” (cleaned up). “Preliminary approval is appropriate where the proposed settlement is the result of the parties’ good faith negotiations, there are no obvious deficiencies, and the settlement falls within the range of reason.” Smith v. Wm. Wrigley Jr. Co., No. 09-60646, 2010 WL 2401149, at *2 (S.D. Fla. June 15, 2010) (cleaned up).

The Court finds, for settlement purposes only and conditioned on final certification of the proposed Settlement Class and entry of a Final Approval Order, that the Settlement Class and proposed Settlement satisfy the requirements of Rule 23(a), 23(b)(3), and 23(e), as well as the Bennett factors.

a. Certification Of The Settlement Class Is Appropriate.

The Court finds, for settlement purposes only, that the Rule 23 factors are satisfied, and certification of the proposed Settlement Class is appropriate under Rule 23. The Court further finds that the Article III standing requirement is met here.

The Court therefore provisionally certifies the following Settlement Class:

All living individuals residing in the United States who were sent a notice of the Data Incident indicating their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

A subset of the Settlement Class is the California Settlement Class of “Settlement Class Members residing in California as of December 29, 2023.”²

The Court will address each Rule 23(a) and 23(b)(3) factor in turn.

1. The Rule 23(a) Factors Are Satisfied.

(i) Rule 23(a)(1) - Numerosity

Rule 23(a)(1) requires that the “class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1). The numerosity requirement is “generally a low hurdle” and, as a baseline, “less than twenty-one is inadequate . . . [and] more than forty is adequate[.]” Vega v. T-Mobile USA, Inc., 564 F.3d 1256, 1267 (11th Cir. 2009) (cleaned up). Here, the numerosity requirement of Rule 23(a)(1) is satisfied because the Settlement Class includes approximately 700,000 individuals. See Cox v. Am. Cast Iron Pipe Co., 784 F.2d 1546, 1553 (11th

² Excluded from the Settlement Class are (1) all persons who are directors, officers, and agents of Defendant, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliated companies; (2) governmental entities; and (3) the Judge assigned to the Action, that Judge’s immediate family, and Court staff.

Cir. 1986) (numerosity generally satisfied where there are more than 40 class members); In re Mednax Serv., Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 21-MD-02994-RAR, 2024 WL 1554329, at *4 (S.D. Fla. Apr. 10, 2024) (Ruiz, II, J.). The joinder of approximately 700,000 Settlement Class Members would certainly be impracticable, and thus numerosity is satisfied.

(ii) Rule 23(a)(2) - Commonality

Rule 23(a)(2) requires that there must be “questions of law or fact common to the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(2). “[C]ommonality requires the plaintiff to demonstrate that the class members have suffered the same injury,” and the plaintiff’s common contention “must be of such a nature that it is capable of class wide resolution—which means that determination of its truth or falsity will resolve an issue that is central to the validity of each one of the claims in one stroke.” Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Dukes, 564 U.S. 338, 349–50 (2011) (cleaned up). The commonality requirement is a “low hurdle.” See Williams v. Mohawk Indus., Inc., 568 F.3d 1350, 1356 (11th Cir. 2009). Courts in this Circuit have previously addressed this requirement in the context of data breach class actions and found it satisfied. See, e.g., Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *4 (commonality satisfied because claims turn on adequacy of defendants’ data security to protect PII and PHI); Desue v. 20/20 Eye Care Network, Inc., No. 21-cv-61275, 2022 WL 17477004, at *4 (S.D. Fla. Dec. 5, 2022); see also Equifax, 999 F.3d at 1274–75, 1277 (affirming district court’s certification of class, including finding of commonality).

Here, Plaintiffs and Settlement Class members all had their Private Information impacted by the Data Incident. Plaintiffs’ claims turn on whether Defendant’s data security environment, was adequate to protect Plaintiffs’ and the Settlement Class’ Private Information. These issues are common to the Settlement Class, are alleged to have injured all Settlement Class Members in the same way and would generate common answers central to the viability of all claims were this case to proceed to trial. In other words, evidence to resolve said claims does not vary among Settlement Class Members and can therefore be fairly resolved, for purposes of settlement, for all Settlement Class Members at once. Thus, commonality is satisfied.

(iii) Rule 23(a)(3) - Typicality

Under Rule 23(a)(3), a class representative's claims must also be typical of the putative class they seek to represent. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(3). Typicality under Rule 23(a)(3) "measures whether a significant nexus exists between the claims of the named representative and those of the class at large." Hines v. Widnall, 334 F.3d 1253, 1256 (11th Cir. 2003); see also Kornberg v. Carnival Cruise Lines, Inc., 741 F.2d 1332, 1337 (11th Cir. 1984) (typicality satisfied where claims "arise from the same event or pattern or practice and are based on the same legal theory"). "Neither the typicality nor the commonality requirement mandates that all putative class members share identical claims, and [] factual differences among the claims of the putative members do not defeat certification." Cooper v. S. Co., 390 F.3d 695, 714 (11th Cir. 2004) (cleaned up); see also Ault v. Walt Disney World Co., 692 F.3d 1212, 1216 (11th Cir. 2012). When the same course of conduct is directed at the named plaintiff and the members of the proposed class, typicality is satisfied. See Kennedy v. Tallant, 710 F.2d 711, 717 (11th Cir. 1983).

Here, Plaintiffs' interests are aligned with the Settlement Class in that they all were sent a notice letter indicating their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident and were therefore all affected by the same purportedly inadequate security that allegedly harmed Settlement Class Members. Their claims are based on the same legal theories and underlying event. Thus, the typicality requirement is satisfied. See Hines, 334 F.3d at 1256; Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *4.

(iv) Rule 23(a)(4) - Adequacy

Adequacy under Rule 23(a)(4) requires that “the representative parties . . . fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4). Adequacy relates to (i) whether the proposed class representative has interests antagonistic to the class, and (ii) whether the proposed class counsel has the competence to undertake this litigation. Fabricant v. Sears Roebuck, 202 F.R.D. 310, 314–15 (S.D. Fla. 2001). The determinative factor “is the forthrightness and vigor with which the representative party can be expected to assert and defend the interests of the members of the class.” Lyons v. Georgia-Pacific Corp. Salaried Emp’s Ret. Plan, 221 F.3d 1235, 1253 (11th Cir. 2000) (cleaned up); Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *5.

Here, like all Settlement Class Members, Plaintiffs have claims against Defendant arising from the Data Incident that allegedly impacted their Private Information. Plaintiffs were similarly injured by Defendant’s allegedly wrongful acts. Proof of Plaintiffs’ claims would necessarily involve adjudicating the same issues of law and fact as the claims of the Settlement Class as a whole. Thus, Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class they seek to represent have the same interests in recovering damages and other relief. Further, Plaintiffs have also diligently and adequately prosecuted this action through Class Counsel by, among other things, reviewing filings, promptly providing documents and information to Class Counsel, acting in the best interest of the Settlement Class, and accepting the classwide Settlement. Plaintiffs are committed to continuing to assist Class Counsel through Final Approval.

As for Class Counsel, they are highly qualified and have a great deal of experience litigating consumer class actions, including in the data privacy context, demonstrating their adequacy. See Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *5 (“Class Counsel are adequate because of their vast experience as vigorous data breach class action litigators.”). Class Counsel have litigated this Action, including evaluating the claims, preparing comprehensive pleadings, serving informal discovery, consulting with data security experts, responding Defendant's Motion to Dismiss, complying with Court orders and requirements, and participating in a mediation that ultimately resulted in this Settlement.

Accordingly, Plaintiffs have no conflicts with the Settlement Class and have demonstrated their adequacy as Class Representatives by "(i) having a genuine personal interest in the outcome of the case; (ii) selecting well-qualified Class Counsel; (iii) producing information and documents to Class Counsel to permit investigation and development of the complaints; (iv) being available as needed throughout the litigation; and (v) monitoring the Litigation." See Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *5. The adequacy requirement is therefore met.

2. The Rule 23(b) Factors Are Satisfied.

Having found that all Rule 23(a) factors are satisfied, the Court proceeds to address at least one subsection of Rule 23(b)—namely, Rule 23(b)(3)—to ascertain whether “questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members,” and to ensure “a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). When assessing predominance and superiority, the court may consider the class will be certified for settlement purposes only, and that a showing of manageability at trial is not required. See Amchem, 521 U.S. at 620 (“Confronted with a request for settlement-only class certification, a district court need not inquire whether the case, if tried, would present intractable management problems, ... for the proposal is that there be no trial.”).

(i) Predominance

The predominance inquiry looks at “the legal or factual questions that qualify each class member's case as a genuine controversy, questions that preexist any settlement.” Id. at 623.

“[C]ommon issues of fact and law predominate if they have a direct impact on every class member’s effort to establish liability and on every class member’s entitlement to injunctive and monetary relief.” Carriuolo v. Gen. Motors Co., 823 F.3d 977, 985 (11th Cir. 2016). Further, “[i]t is not necessary that all questions of law or fact be common, but only that some questions are common and that they predominate over individual questions.” In re Takata Airbag Prod. Liability Litig., No. 2599, 2023 WL 4925368, at *6 (S.D. Fla. June 20, 2023). The focus on a defendant’s security measures in a data breach class action “is the precise type of predominant question that makes class-wide adjudication worthwhile.” In re Anthem, Inc. Data Breach Litig., 327 F.R.D. 299, 312 (N.D. Cal. 2018).

Here, as in other data breach cases, common questions predominate because all claims arise out of a common course of conduct by Defendant. Id. at 312; Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *5. All Settlement Class Members had their Private Information compromised in the Data Incident and the security practices at issue did not vary from person to person. “Thus, because these common questions represent a significant aspect of the case and they can be resolved for all members of the class in a single adjudication, there is a clear justification for handling the dispute on a representative rather than on an individual basis.” See Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *5. The predominance requirement is therefore satisfied.

(ii) Superiority

To satisfy the superiority requirement of Rule 23(b)(3), a movant must show that “a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). “The focus of the superiority analysis is on the relative advantages of a class action suit over whatever other forms of litigation might be realistically available to plaintiffs.” Mohamed v. American Motor Co., LLC, 320 F.R.D. 301, 316 (S.D. Fla.

2017) (cleaned up); Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *5. Here, adjudicating individual actions would be impractical. The amount in dispute for individual class members is too small, the technical issues involved too complex, and the expert testimony and document review too costly. Further, individual claim prosecution would be prohibitively expensive, needlessly delay resolution, and may lead to inconsistent rulings. Accordingly, certification of this suit as a class action is superior to other methods to fairly, adequately, and efficiently resolve the claims asserted.

3. The Article III Standing Requirement Is Met.

To demonstrate Article III standing Plaintiffs must establish that they each “(1) suffered an injury in fact, (2) that is fairly traceable to the challenged conduct of the defendant, and (3) that is likely to be redressed by a favorable judicial decision.” Spokeo, 578 U.S. at 338. Further, “[t]o have standing to represent a class, a party must not only satisfy the individual standing prerequisites, but must also ‘be part of the class and possess the same interest and suffer the same injury as the class members.’” Mills v. Foremost Ins. Co., 511 F.3d 1300, 1307 (11th Cir. 2008) (quoting Prado, 221 F.3d at 1279). There is no requirement that Article III standing be proved with evidentiary support at the settlement approval stage. Equifax, 999 F.3d at 1261 n.8.

Standing exists when a plaintiff’s sensitive personal information is allegedly accessed and exfiltrated in a data breach. Desue v. 20/20 Eye Care Network, Inc., No. 21-cv-61275, 2022 WL 796367, at *4 (S.D. Fla. Mar. 15, 2022); see also Desue v. 20/20 Eye Care Network, Inc., No. 21-cv-61275, 2022 WL 17477004, at *5 (S.D. Fla. Dec. 5, 2022). In a similar data breach class action, this Court extensively addressed standing in data breach class actions, and subsequently relied on that analysis when preliminarily approving a class settlement in that case. See In re Mednax Servs., Inc., Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., 603 F. Supp. 3d 1183, 1200-08 (S.D. Fla. 2022) (denying motion to dismiss for lack of standing, including in the context of TransUnion LLC v. Ramirez, 594 U.S. 2190 (2021)); Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *4 n.2 (citing Green-Cooper v. Brinker Int'l, Inc., 73 F.4th 883 (11th Cir. 2023)) (citing standing analysis from motion to dismiss opinion and preliminarily approving class settlement).

To establish an imminent threat of identity theft based on a data breach, plaintiffs must show that “some misuse of class members’ data” has already occurred. Green-Cooper, 73 F. 4th at 889 (citing Tsao v. Captiva MVP Rest. Partners, LLC, 986 F.3d 1332, 1343 (11th Cir. 2021)). Plaintiffs’ allegations that a criminal ransomware group accessed their Private Information and published it to its data leak site, and that two Plaintiffs’ Private Information is now on the dark web, supports that misuse. See Green-Cooper, 73 F. 4th at 890 (posting of Private Information on the dark web “establishes both a present injury . . . and a substantial risk of future injury”). Therefore, the actual misuse of and actual access to the Settlement Class’ data are injuries-in-fact that plausibly give rise to a substantial risk of future harm from identity theft; emotional injury; the diminution in the value of Plaintiffs’ and Settlement Class Members’ Private Information; and the loss of privacy. Mednax, 603 F. Supp. 3d at 1202–05.

Traceability—the causal connection between the Data Incident and the Settlement Class’ injuries—also exists for Article III standing. Plaintiffs’ and Settlement Class Members’ injuries must be “fairly traceable” to Defendant’s actions, but that does not mean they are required to show proximate cause, as harms flowing indirectly from the Data Incident are sufficient for standing. Id. at 1205. Defendant’s alleged failure to protect the Private Information, resulting in the Data Incident whereby unauthorized access was gained, preceded Plaintiffs’ documented incidents of identity theft, economic losses, lost time, and emotional distress, and put them at a substantial risk of future incidents of identity theft too. Id. at 1206. The Data Incident need not have provided all information necessary to inflict those harms; it is enough the Data Incident could assist give identity thieves in perpetrating them. Id.

Thus, like in Mednax and Desue, because all Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members had their Private Information impacted in the Data Incident, they have all suffered injuries in fact that are fairly traceable to the Data Incident and would likely be redressed by a favorable judgment if this case was litigated through trial, demonstrating Article III standing. The Court therefore provisionally certifies the Settlement Class.

b. Preliminary Approval of the Settlement Is Warranted.

Next, the Court must preliminarily determine whether the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable under Rule 23(e)(2) while also considering the Bennett factors. At this juncture, “the court’s primary objective . . . is to establish whether to direct notice of the proposed settlement to the class, invite the class’s reaction, and schedule a final fairness hearing.” Morris v. US Foods, Inc., No. 8:20-cv-105, 2021 WL 2954741, at *7 (M.D. Fla. May 17, 2021) (quoting William B. Rubenstein, 4 Newberg on Class Actions § 13:10 (5th ed. Supp. 2020)). “Preliminary approval is appropriate where the proposed settlement is the result of the parties’ good faith negotiations, there are no obvious deficiencies, and the settlement falls within the range of reason.” Smith, 2010 WL 2401149, at *2.

The Court finds the Settlement satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(e) as well as the Bennett factors. The Court will address each factor in turn.

1. Rule 23(e)(2) Is Satisfied.

(i) Rule 23(e)(2)(A) - Adequacy of Representation

For the same reasons that led the Court to find Class Counsel adequate for purposes of preliminary Settlement Class certification, Class Counsel have adequately represented the Settlement Class’ interests for purposes of Preliminary Approval of the Settlement. Additionally, as the Court has found for purposes of preliminary certification, Plaintiffs' respective interests are coextensive and do not conflict with the interests of the Settlement Class, demonstrating their adequacy. Plaintiffs have the same interest in the Settlement relief as do Settlement Class Members, and the absent Settlement Class Members have no diverging interests.

Accordingly, the first Rule 23(e)(2) factor weighs heavily in favor of granting Preliminary Approval because both Class Counsel and the Class Representatives have adequately represented the Settlement Class. See Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *6.

(ii) Rule 23(e)(2)(B) - Arm's Length Negotiations

The Court finds the Settlement was reached in the absence of collusion and is the result of good faith, informed, and arm's-length negotiations between experienced attorneys who are familiar with class action litigation and with the legal and factual issues at stake. Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *6. Before discussing a potential resolution, the Parties conducted thorough factual and legal investigation including significant pre-mediation discovery, allowing them to fully understand the claims, defenses, and risks of continued litigation. The Settlement was reached after extensive legal and factual investigation by the Parties, a full-day mediation assisted by a well-respected and experienced mediator, and weeks of additional negotiations to finalize the terms of the Agreement and ancillary documents. The Parties did not discuss attorneys' fees and costs until after they had agreed on all material Settlement terms.

For these reasons and those discussed related to attorneys' fees below, there was no fraud or collusion in arriving at the Settlement. See Bennett, 737 F.2d at 986. Accordingly, "[t]he fact that the Settlement was achieved through well-informed, arm's-length, and neutrally supervised negotiations weighs in favor of granting preliminary approval under Rule 23(e)(2)(B)." Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *6.

(iii) Rule 23(e)(2)(C) - Adequacy of Settlement Relief

The Court finds, considering the likelihood of success at trial, the complexity, expense, and duration of the litigation, the relief provided is reasonable. While Plaintiffs believe the claims asserted in the Action are meritorious and the Settlement Class would ultimately prevail at trial, continued litigation against Defendant poses significant risks that make any recovery for the Settlement Class uncertain. “[D]ata breach class actions are risky cases.” Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *7; see also Fox v. Iowa Health Sys., No. 3:18-cv00327, 2021 WL 826741, at *5 (W.D. Wis. Mar. 4, 2021) (“Data breach litigation is evolving; there is no guarantee of the ultimate result . . . [they] are particularly risky, expensive, and complex.”); Fulton-Green v. Accolade, Inc., No. 18-274, 2019 WL 4677954, at *8 (E.D. Pa. Sept. 24, 2019) (data breach class actions are “a risky field of litigation because [they] are uncertain and class certification is rare.”). And given the complexity of the claims and arguments here, a lengthy trial would likely be required before Settlement Class Members could recover. Maintaining class certification through trial “is another over-arching risk” as well. Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *7. “Thus, through the Settlement, Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members gain significant benefits without having to face further risk of not receiving any relief at all,” weighing heavily in favor of preliminary approval. Id.

Despite the risks involved with further litigation, the Settlement provides outstanding benefits, including Cash Payments and Credit Monitoring for all Settlement Class Members. See Equifax, 999 F.3d at 1273 (“Settlements also save the bench and bar time, money, and headaches”). All Settlement Class Members are given an equal opportunity to claim Settlement Class Member Benefits. Specifically, each Settlement Class Member has the option to be reimbursed for documented losses up to $5,000.00, or they may elect to receive a flat cash payment in the estimated amount of $100.00. Additionally, all California Settlement Class Members are equally entitled to the same Californian Statutory Award in the estimated amount of $100.00. In addition, all Settlement Class Members may elect two years of Credit Monitoring.

The Court further finds the Claim Process and distribution of Settlement Class Member Benefits to be fair, convenient, and effective. Settlement Class Members will promptly receive Cash Payments by electronic means or paper check issued by the Settlement Administrator and Credit Monitoring, if elected. The Settlement Administrator is highly qualified to manage the entire process. Thus, “[t]he method of distributing the settlement benefits will be equitable and effective.” Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *7.

Furthermore, the attorneys’ fees do not impact the other terms of the Settlement. Class Counsel intend to request up to one-third of the Settlement Fund in attorneys’ fees, plus reimbursement of costs, to be paid from the Settlement Fund, subject to this Court’s approval. Class Counsel and Defendant negotiated and reached agreement regarding attorneys’ fees and costs only after reaching agreement on all other material Settlement terms. The Settlement, including disbursement of the Settlement Class Member Benefits, is not contingent on approval of the attorneys’ fee or costs award to Class Counsel. Finally, the Parties’ agreements are all in the Agreement.

The Court therefore finds Rule 23(e)(2)(C)’s requirements are met.

(iv) Bennett Factors

The Court further finds the relevant Bennett factors³ are satisfied. First, the benefits of settlement outweigh the risk of trial given the substantial relief that Settlement Class Members will be afforded, including guaranteed Cash Payments and Credit Monitoring. Second and third, the ³ The fifth Bennett factor—opposition to the Settlement, if any— cannot be discerned at this time because Notice has not yet been given to the Settlement Class. See Mednax, 2024 WL 17477004 at *7.

Settlement is within the range of possible recoveries and is fair, adequate, and reasonable. See Burrows v. Purchasing Power, LLC, No. 1:12-CV22800, 2013 WL 10167232, at *6 (S.D. Fla. Oct. 7, 2013) (considering the second and third Bennett factors together). Given the likelihood of Plaintiffs' success at trial and the range of possible damages that could be recovered, the Settlement provides fair recoveries. See Equifax, 999 F.3d at 1274.

Fourth, continued litigation would be lengthy and expensive. As noted above, data breach litigation is often difficult and complex. Although the Parties reached a Settlement relatively early in litigation, the Settlement negotiations were hard-fought, and the Parties expended significant time and energy on this Action, allowing Plaintiffs to have sufficient information to evaluate the merits and negotiate a fair, adequate, and reasonable settlement. See, e.g., Saccoccio v. JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., 297 F.R.D. 683, 694 (S.D. Fla. 2014) (approving settlement where parties settled relatively early with experienced counsel who had sufficient information to evaluate merits of the case, engaged in full-day mediation, and engaged in post-mediation discovery).

Accordingly, the Court finds the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequately protects the interests of the Settlement Class Members.

c. Appointment of Class Representatives and Class Counsel Is Appropriate.

For the reasons discussed above, the Court finds Plaintiffs have adequately represented the Settlement Class throughout this Action. The Court therefore designates and appoints Plaintiffs, as Class Representatives.

Rule 23(g)(1)(A)'s four factors for appointing class counsel for a certified class are: (1) "the work counsel has done in identifying or investigating potential claims in the action;" (2) "counsel's experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and the types of claims asserted in the action;" (3) "counsel's knowledge of the applicable law;" and (4) "the resources that counsel will commit to representing the class.” Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(g)(1)(A). The Court may also “consider any other matter pertinent to counsel’s ability to fairly and adequately represent the interests of the class.”

The Court finds proposed Class Counsel have a reasonable amount of time, effort, and expense investigating the Data Incident and in litigating this Action. Further, it is clear from their track record of success, as outlined in their resumes, that Class Counsel are highly skilled and knowledgeable concerning class action practice. Therefore, for purposes of the Settlement only, and pursuant to Rule 23(g)(1), the Court appoints Mariya Weekes and Jeff Ostrow as Class Counsel to act on behalf of the Settlement Class with respect to the Settlement. They are experienced and competent counsel and will adequately protect the interests of the Settlement Class.

d. The Notice Program Is Sufficient.

Notice of a proposed settlement must be the “best notice practicable.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). The best notice practicable is that which “is reasonably calculated, under all of the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections.” Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Tr. Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950).

The Court finds the form, content, and method of giving notice to the Settlement Class as described in the Notice Program, including the forms of Postcard Notice, Long Form Notice, Settlement Website, Settlement telephone line for frequently asked questions, and Claim Form (a) constitutes the best practicable notice to the Settlement Class; (b) is reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Action, the terms of the Settlement, the effect of the proposed Settlement (including the Releases contained therein), and their rights under the proposed Settlement, including the right to opt-out of or to object to the proposed Settlement and appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (c) is reasonable and constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to those persons entitled to receive notice; and (d) is written in plain language, uses simple terminology, and is designed to be readily understandable by Settlement Class Members.

Rule 23(h)(1) further requires that “[n]otice of the motion [for attorneys’ fees] must be served on all parties and, for motions by class counsel, directed to class members in a reasonable manner.” The Notice Program satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(h)(1), as it notifies the Settlement Class that Class Counsel will apply to the Court for an award of attorneys’ fees of up to one third of the Settlement Fund, plus reimbursement of costs.

Accordingly, the Notice Program satisfies the requirements of Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B) and due process and is thus approved.

PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

Upon preliminary review, the Court finds the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate; the Settlement Class should be certified for Settlement purposes; and the Notice Program satisfies the requirements of Rule 23 and due process. Accordingly, the Settlement is preliminarily approved.

a. Final Approval Hearing

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing for the following purposes: (a) to determine whether the proposed Settlement, on the terms and conditions provided for in the Settlement, is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and should be approved by the Court; (b) to determine whether an order of Final Judgment should be entered dismissing the Action on the merits and with prejudice; (c) to determine whether the proposed plan of allocation and distribution of the Settlement Fund is fair and reasonable and should be approved; (d) to determine whether the requested award of attorneys' fees and costs should be approved; and (e) to consider any other matters that may properly be brought before the Court in connection with the Settlement. The Court may elect to hold the Final Approval Hearing virtually by Zoom or some other virtual application, and if it does, the instructions on how to attend shall be posted by the Settlement Administrator on the Settlement Website.

The Court will defer ruling on attorneys' fees and costs until the Final Approval Hearing when considering Class Counsel's Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Plaintiffs shall file their Motion for Final Approval no later than 45 days before the original Final Approval Hearing date. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will hear argument from the Parties, and in the Court's discretion, will also hear from any Settlement Class Members (or their counsel) who timely object to the Settlement or to the Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs.

b. Appointment of Settlement Administrator

As agreed by the Parties, the Court appoints Epiq Class Action & Claims Solutions, Inc. as the Settlement Administrator to supervise and administer the Notice Program and Claims Process, as well as to administer the Settlement should the Court grant Final Approval. All Settlement Administration Costs will be paid out of the Settlement Fund.

c. Approval of Settlement Class Notice Program and Notice Forms

The Court approves, as to form and content, the Notice Program, including the Postcard Notice and Long Form Notice, substantially in the forms attached as Exhibits 1-2 to the Agreement. Non-material modifications to these exhibits may be made without further order of the Court. The Settlement Administrator is directed to carry out the Notice Program and to perform all other tasks that the Settlement requires. The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing shall be posted on the Settlement Website and included in the Postcard Notice and Long Form Notice, respectively, before they are emailed, mailed, or published.

d. Approval of Claim Form and Claims Process

The Court approves the Claim Form and the Claims Process to be implemented by the Settlement Administrator. The Claim Form, attached to the Agreement as Exhibit 3, is straightforward and easy to complete, allowing each Settlement Class Member to elect their desired Settlement Class Member Benefits. Settlement Class Members who qualify for and wish to submit a Claim Form shall do so in accordance with the requirements and procedures specified in the Settlement, including the Claim Form. Should the Court grant Final Approval to the Settlement, Settlement Class Members shall be bound by its terms even if they though do not submit Claims.

The Court directs the Settlement Administrator to disseminate the Notices and Claim Form as approved herein. Class Counsel and Defendant Counsel are hereby authorized to use all reasonable procedures in connection with approval and administration of the Settlement that are not materially inconsistent with this order or the Settlement, including making, without the Court's further approval, minor form or content changes to the Notices and Claim Form they jointly agree are reasonable or necessary.

e. Opt-Outs from the Settlement Class

The Notice shall provide that any member of the Settlement Class who wishes to opt-out of the Settlement must request exclusion in writing within the time and manner set forth in the Notice. The Notices shall provide that opt-out requests must be sent to the Settlement Administrator and be postmarked no later than 30 days before the initial date set for the Final Approval Hearing. The opt-out request must be personally signed by the Settlement Class Member and contain the Settlement Class Member's name, postal address, email address (if any), and telephone number; the name of this Action (Owings, et al. v. Medusind, Inc. Case No: 1:25-CV-20117-RAR); and a statement that indicates a desire to be excluded from the Settlement Class. The letter can simply say, "I hereby elect to opt out of the Settlement in Owings, et al. v. Medusind, Inc. Case No: 1:25-CV-20117-RAR class action." If submitted by mail, an opt-out request shall be deemed to have been submitted when posted if received with a postmark date indicated on the envelope if mailed first-class postage prepaid and addressed in accordance with the instructions. If submitted by private courier (e.g., Federal Express), an opt-out request shall be deemed to have been submitted on the shipping date reflected on the shipping label.

Any Settlement Class Member who timely and validly opts-out from the Settlement Class shall, provided the Court grants Final Approval: (a) be excluded from the Settlement Class by order of the Court; (b) not be a Settlement Class Member; (c) not be bound by the terms of the Settlement; and (d) have no right to the Settlement Class Member Benefits. Any Settlement Class Member who does not timely and validly request to opt-out shall be bound by the terms of this Settlement, including all releases and covenants therein, as well as all subsequent proceedings, orders, and judgments applicable to the Settlement Class.

f. Objections to the Settlement

The Notice shall also provide that any Settlement Class Member who does not opt-out from the Settlement Class may object to the Settlement and/or the Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Objections must be filed with the Clerk of the Court and mailed to the Settlement Administrator, Class Counsel, and Defendant's counsel. For an objection to be considered by the Court, the objection must be submitted on behalf of a Settlement Class Member no later than 30 days before the initial date set for the Final Approval Hearing. When submitted by mail, an objection shall be deemed to have been submitted when posted if received with a postmark date indicated on the envelope if mailed first-class postage prepaid and addressed in accordance with the instructions. If submitted by private courier (e.g., Federal Express), an objection shall be deemed to have been submitted on the shipping date reflected on the shipping label.

For an objection to be considered by the Court, the objection must also set forth:

- a. the objector's full name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address (if any);
- b. all grounds for the objection, accompanied by any legal support for the objection known to the objector or objector's counsel;
- c. the number of times the objector has objected to a class action settlement within the five years preceding the date the objector files the objection, the caption of each case in which the objector has made such objection, and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon the objector's prior objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case;
- d. the identity of all counsel who represent the objector, including any former or current counsel who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs;
- e. the number of times in which the objector's counsel and/or counsel's law firm have objected to a class action settlement within the five years preceding the date of the filed objection, the caption of each case in which counsel or the firm has made such objection and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon counsel's or the counsel's law firm's prior objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case in which the objector's counsel and/or counsel's law firm have objected to a class action settlement within the preceding five years;

f. the identity of all counsel (if any) representing the objector, and whether they will appear at the Final Approval Hearing;

g. a list of all persons who will be called to testify at the Final Approval Hearing in support of the objection (if any);

h. a statement confirming whether the objector intends to personally appear and/or testify at the Final Approval Hearing; and

i. the objector's signature (an attorney's signature is not sufficient).

The Parties' counsel may conduct limited discovery on any objector, including taking depositions and propounding document requests, prior to the Final Approval Hearing.

Any Settlement Class Member who does not make an objection in the manner provided herein shall be deemed to have waived the right to object to any aspect of the Settlement and/or to the Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs and, if final judgment is entered, shall forever be barred and foreclosed from raising such objections in any proceeding and from challenging or opposing, or seeking to reverse, vacate, or modify, the Final Judgment or any aspect thereof.

g. Termination of the Settlement and Use of this Preliminary Approval Order

If the Settlement is not finally approved by the Court, or is terminated, canceled, or fails to become effective for any reason, or the Effective Date does not occur, this order shall become null and void and shall be without prejudice to the rights of Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class Members, and Defendant, all of whom shall be restored to their respective positions in the Action as provided in the Agreement.

h. Bar from Continued Claims

Upon the entry of this order, with the exception of Class Counsel, Defendant's Counsel, Defendant, and the Class Representatives' implementation of the Settlement and the approval process in this Action, all members of the Settlement Class shall be provisionally enjoined and barred from asserting any claims or continuing any litigation against Defendant and the Released Parties arising out of, relating to, or in connection with the Released Claims prior to the Court's decision as to whether to grant Final Approval of the Settlement.

i. Jurisdiction

For the benefit of the Settlement Class and to protect this Court's jurisdiction, this Court retains continuing jurisdiction over the Settlement proceedings to ensure effectuation thereof in accordance with the Settlement preliminarily approved herein and the related orders of this Court.

JOINT DECLARATION OF CLASS COUNSEL IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

We, Jeff Ostrow and Mariya Weekes, declare as follows:

1. We are Class Counsel for Plaintiffs¹ and the Settlement Class (including the California Settlement Subclass) in the above-captioned Action. We submit this declaration in support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Final Approval and Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Unless otherwise noted, we have personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this declaration and could and would testify competently to them if called upon to do so.

¹ The capitalized terms used herein shall have the same meanings as those defined in the Settlement Agreement, attached as Exhibit A to the Motion for Final Approval.

Background and Procedural History

2. This Action arises from a Data Incident affecting Defendant's computer systems, which was detected on December 29, 2023. Defendant later confirmed the same day that cybercriminals accessed information stored on those systems.

3. On or about January 7, 2025, Defendant began notifying approximately 700,000 individuals whose Private Information may have been impacted by the Data Incident, including Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members.

4. Before commencing litigation, Class Counsel investigated the potential claims against Defendants, interviewed potential plaintiffs, and gathered information regarding the Data Incident.

5. Details of the Action's procedural history and briefing on Defendant's Motion to Dismiss are outlined in the Agreement and Motion for Final Approval.

6. Plaintiffs requested pre-mediation informal discovery from the Defendant. The Parties also exchanged detailed mediation statements outlining their positions with respect to liability, damages, and settlement.

7. The information the Parties exchanged before mediation allowed Plaintiffs and Class Counsel to enter settlement negotiations with substantial information about the facts and merits of the legal claims. This information and the litigation efforts to date enabled Class Counsel to gain an understanding of the evidence related to central questions in the Action and preparing them for well-informed settlement negotiations.

8. On June 10, 2025, the Parties participated in a successful full-day private mediation in Philadelphia, before former federal magistrate judge and experienced class action mediator Hon. Diane Welsh (Ret.) with JAMS.

9. After notifying the Court of their settlement in principle, over the next five weeks, the Parties worked diligently to finalize the terms of the Settlement Agreement and ancillary documents. The Agreement was executed on July 11, 2025, and the Parties' agreements are all in the Agreement. The Parties did not discuss attorneys' fees and costs until after they reached agreement on all material Settlement terms.

10. The terms were negotiated at arm's length, in good faith, and without collusion by capable and experienced counsel with full knowledge of the facts, the law, and the inherent risks in the Action, and with the Plaintiffs' and Defendant's active involvement.

11. The Released Claims discharged against the Released Parties in the Agreement are narrowly tailored and only release claims arising out of or relating to the Data Incident.

Facts Supporting Final Approval

12. The Notice Program has now been completed in compliance with the Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order, and the Claim Process is ongoing. Currently, there are no objections to the Settlement.

13. Class Counsel have worked closely with Defendant's Counsel and the Settlement Administrator throughout the Notice Program and Claim Process.

14. The Claim Process and distribution of Settlement Class Member Benefits is fair, convenient, and effective. Settlement Class Members will promptly receive Cash Payments by electronic means or paper check and Medical Monitoring, if elected. The Settlement Administrator is highly qualified to manage the entire process.

15. Class Counsel are highly qualified and have a great deal of experience litigating consumer class actions, including in the data privacy context.

16. The Court previously considered the Class Counsel's significant experience in the litigation, certification, trial, and settlement of national class actions, including substantial time and resources dedicated to past and present data breach litigation across the country, when it appointed them to their respective interim leadership positions (ECF No. 6).

17. Class Counsel have devoted substantial time and resources to thoroughly investigate and analyze Plaintiffs' claims, and to vigorously prosecute this Action, which efforts will continue through and after Final Approval is granted. Class Counsel have litigated this Action, including evaluating the claims, preparing comprehensive pleadings, serving informal discovery, consulting with data security experts, responding to Defendant's Motion to Dismiss, complying with Court orders and requirements, and participating in a mediation that ultimately resulted in this Settlement. They then negotiated and drafted the Agreement, Notices, and Claim Form. The Parties negotiated the form of the Notices and Claim Form with the help of the Settlement Administrator.

18. The Settlement Class Member Benefits set forth in the Agreement are more than reasonable when compared to other data breach settlements when considering the type of information at issue and the size of the Settlement Class. Settlement Class Members may all elect Credit Monitoring. They may also elect Cash Payment A – Documented Losses for reimbursement of documented losses up to $5,000.00 or Cash Payment B – Alternate Cash in the estimated amount of $100.00. California Settlement Subclass Members are entitled to Claim an additional estimated $100.00 for the California Statutory Award.

19. Class Counsel are confident the Settlement warrants the Court's Final Approval. Its terms are not only fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class, but also are an extremely favorable result with substantial benefits. The Agreement provides significant and concrete benefits to over 700,000 people.

20. Defendant's Counsel is from a nationally recognized firm and are extremely capable class action litigators, making them worthily, highly competent adversaries.

21. Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel have fully evaluated the strengths, weaknesses, and equities of the Parties' respective positions and believe the proposed settlement fairly resolves their respective differences.

22. The risks, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation support Final Approval. Any settlement requires the parties to balance the merits of the claims and defenses asserted against the attendant risks of continued litigation and delay.

23. Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe the claims asserted are meritorious and that Plaintiffs would prevail if this matter proceeded to trial. However, Class Counsel is also pragmatic and understand the legal uncertainties associated with continued litigation, which would be lengthy and expensive.

24. With the Forta MDL and Mednax as examples, as well as other cases cited in the Motion for Final Approval, data breach litigation is often difficult and complex. Recovery, if any, by any means other than settlement would require additional years of litigation and possibly appeals. Without the Settlement, the Parties faced the possibility of litigating this Action through the completion of fact discovery, class certification, expert discovery, summary judgment, trial, and appeals, which would be complex, time-consuming, and expensive. The Motion to Dismiss was fully briefed when the Parties settled. Continued litigation could have impeded the successful prosecution of these claims at trial and in an eventual appeal, resulting in zero benefit to the Settlement Class. Further, since the Court had not yet certified a class at the time the Agreement was executed, it is unclear whether certification would have been granted. Briefing class certification would have required the Parties to expend significant resources. Maintaining class certification through trial is another overarching risk. Considering Defendant has compelling defenses, continuing to pursue this case posed a significant risk for Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class Members.

25. Although the Parties entered into a Settlement relatively early in litigation, the Settlement negotiations were hard-fought, and the Parties expended significant time and energy on this Action.

26. Like all Settlement Class Members, Plaintiffs have claims against Defendant arising from the Data Incident that allegedly impacted their Private Information. Plaintiffs were similarly injured by Defendant's allegedly wrongful acts. Proof of Plaintiffs' claims would necessarily involve adjudicating the same issues of law and fact as the claims of the Settlement Class as a whole. Thus, Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class Members they seek to represent have the same interests in recovering damages. Thus, Plaintiffs' respective interests are coextensive and do not conflict with the interests of the Settlement Class Members. Plaintiffs have the same interest in the Settlement relief, and the absent Settlement Class Members have no diverging interests.

27. Plaintiffs have cooperated with Class Counsel and assisted in providing important information in the preparation of the complaints filed in this Action. Plaintiffs have also diligently and adequately prosecuted this Action through Class Counsel by, among other things, reviewing filings, promptly providing documents and information to Class counsel, acting in the best interest of the Settlement Class (including the California Settlement Subclass), and accepting the classwide Settlement. Plaintiffs are committed to continue prosecuting this Action through Final Approval and protecting the interests of the Settlement Class Members.

28. The Class Representatives have demonstrated their adequacy by (i) having a genuine personal interest in the outcome of the case; (ii) selecting well-qualified Class Counsel;

(iii) producing information and documents to Class Counsel to permit investigation and development of the complaints; (iv) being available as needed throughout the litigation; and (v) monitoring the Action.

Facts Supporting Attorneys' Fees and Costs

29. Pursuant to the Agreement, Plaintiffs request an attorneys' fee award to Class Counsel of one-third of the $5,000,000.00 Settlement Fund ($1,666,666.66), and $32,384.30 for reimbursement of reasonable litigation costs. Those costs are comprised of actual out-of-pocket costs that Class Counsel reasonably and necessarily incurred and paid in connection with the prosecution of the Action and the Settlement. The costs include fees relating to filing, service, experts, mediation, and travel. A summary of the costs is below.

Category	Amount
Filing and Court Fees	$1,560.00
Service Fees	$80.60
Mediation Fees	$12,483.89
Expert Costs	$15,000.00
Travel	$3,259.81
Total	$32,384.30

30. Class Counsel has not been paid for their extensive efforts in securing the Settlement Class Member Benefits for the Settlement Class Members and has not been reimbursed for litigation costs incurred.

31. Class Counsel took this case on a contingency basis unaware whether they would be paid for their time and costs advanced. Class Counsel assumed the risk of this engagement and worked diligently and efficiently to obtain a substantial result.

32. The retention agreements with the Plaintiffs in this Action are contingent fee agreements. No payment of attorneys' fees would occur in this case but for an attorneys' fee award in an individual or class settlement. Class Counsel took on this case with no guarantee they would receive any compensation for their work, which occupied significant resources at Class Counsel firms even before this case was filed. There was a risk of nonpayment or underpayment for Class Counsel's time, with Class Counsel foregoing the opportunity to work on other cases. Public policy is served by rewarding attorneys who assume representation on a contingent basis with an enhanced fee to compensate them for the risk they might be paid nothing at all for their work. This practice encourages attorneys to assume this risk and allows plaintiffs holding small individual claims, who would otherwise not be able to hire an attorney, to obtain competent counsel.

33. Prosecuting and settling these claims demanded considerable time and labor, making this attorneys' fee request reasonable. Class Counsel's organization ensured the work was coordinated to maximize efficiency and minimize duplication of effort. Class Counsel devoted substantial time to investigating the claims. Class Counsel also expended resources researching and developing the legal claims at issue. Substantial time and resources were also dedicated to working with experts, exchanging informal discovery, consolidating and organizing the related actions, responding to the motion to dismiss, and preparing for and attending a successful mediation. Significant time was then devoted to negotiating and drafting the Agreement, the Preliminary Approval process, and to all actions required thereafter by the Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order. Class Counsel spent substantial time leading up to seeking Final Approval, addressing the Notice Program, Claim Process, and preparing the Motion for Final Approval. Time will also be spent preparing for and attending the Final Approval Hearing. Finally, Class Counsel will devote substantial time to Settlement administration should Final Approval be granted to ensure Valid Claims are paid and the Settlement is fully implemented.

34. Class Counsel's coordinated work paid dividends for the Settlement Class Members. Each of the above-described efforts was essential to achieving the Settlement. Class

Counsel's time and resources devoted to prosecuting and settling this Action justify the requested attorneys' fee.

35. This Court has witnessed the quality of Class Counsel's legal work, which conferred substantial benefits on the Settlement Class Members in the face of significant litigation obstacles.

36. Public policy concerns—ensuring the continued availability of experienced and capable counsel to represent classes of injured plaintiffs holding small individual claims—also support the requested attorneys' fee.

37. The Notices sufficiently informed the Settlement Class Members about the amount of attorneys' fees that Class Counsel would be requesting at Final Approval. Not a single Settlement Class Member has objected to the request for attorneys' fees and costs. There have been only two completed opt-outs to the Settlement to date. The deadline to opt-out or object is December 14, 2025.

38. The Settlement is not contingent on approval of the requests for attorneys' fees and costs, and if the Court grants amounts other than what was requested, the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain in force.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

5. I have served as a notice expert and have been recognized and appointed by courts to design and provide notice in many significant cases, including:

a) In re Juul Labs, Inc. Marketing, Sales Practices, and Products Liability Litigation 19-md-02913 (N.D. Cal.), involved two settlements totaling $300 million for JUUL Labs, Inc. and Altria, which alleged consumers were misled about JUUL products' addictiveness and safety, causing them to pay more, and that JUUL products were unlawfully marketed to minors. Two companion notice programs were implemented with more than 10.7 million email notices and nearly 500,000 postcard notices sent to potential class members and comprehensive media efforts (over 936 million impressions delivered). The notice programs each reached approximately 80% of the class nationwide.

b) In Re: Zoom Video Communications, Inc. Privacy Litigation, 3:20-cv-02155 (N.D. Cal.), involved an extensive notice plan for a $85 million privacy settlement involving Zoom, the most popular videoconferencing platform. Notice was sent to more than 158 million class members by email or mail, and millions of reminder notices were sent to stimulate claim filings. The individual notice efforts reached approximately 91% of the class. A supplemental media campaign provided notice via regional newspaper notice, nationally distributed digital and social media notice (delivering more than 280 million impressions), sponsored search, an informational release, and a settlement website.

c) In re Takata Airbag Products Liability Litigation, MDL No. 2599, 1:15-md-02599 (S.D. Fla.), involved $1.91 billion in settlements with BMW, Mazda, Subaru, Toyota, Honda, Nissan, Ford, and Volkswagen regarding Takata airbags. The notice programs included individual mailed notice to more than 61.8 million potential class members and extensive nationwide media via consumer publications, U.S. Territory newspapers, radio, digital notices, mobile digital notices, and behaviorally targeted digital media. Combined, the notice programs reached more than 95% of adults aged 18+ in the U.S. who owned or leased a subject vehicle, with a frequency of 4.0 times each.

d) In Re: Capital One Consumer Data Security Breach Litigation, MDL No. 2915, 1:19-md-02915 (E.D. Va.), involved an extensive notice program for a $190 million data breach settlement. Notice was sent to more than 93.6 million settlement class members by email or mail. The individual notice efforts reached approximately 96% of the identified settlement class members and were enhanced by a supplemental media plan that included digital and social media notices (delivering more than 123.4 million impressions), sponsored search, and a settlement website.

e) In re: Disposable Contact Lens Antitrust Litigation, 3:15-md-02626 (M.D. Fla.), involved several notice programs to notify retail purchasers of disposable contact lenses for four separate settlements totaling $88 million. For each notice program more than 1.98 million email or postcard notices were sent to potential class members and a comprehensive media plan was implemented, with a well-read nationwide consumer publication, internet digital notices (delivering more than 312.9 million – 461.4 million impressions per campaign), sponsored search listings, and a case website.

f) In re U.S. Office of Personnel Management Data Security Breach Litigation MDL No. 2664, 15-cv-01394 (D.D.C.), involved a $63 million settlement for compromised personal information of then-current and former federal government employees and contractors, and certain applicants for federal employment. An extensive nationwide media notice campaign was implemented using magazines, digital and social media notices (delivering more than 758 million impressions), traditional and satellite radio, and other forms of media. The media notice reached at least 85% of the class. In addition, more than 3.5 million email notices and/or postcard notices were sent to identified class members. The notice program was supplemented with outreach to unions and associations, sponsored search listings, an informational release, and a settlement website.

g) In re: fairlife Milk Products Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation, 1:19-cv-03924 (N.D. Ill.), involved a $21 million settlement against The Coca-Cola Company, fairlife, LLC, and other defendants alleging false labeling and marketing of fairlife milk products. A comprehensive media plan was implemented with a consumer print publication notice, targeted digital and social media notices (delivering more than 620.1 million impressions in English and Spanish nationwide). Combined with individual notice to a small percentage of the class, the notice plan reached approximately 80.2% of the class. The reach was further enhanced by sponsored search, an informational release, and a website.

h) In re: Payment Card Interchange Fee and Merchant Discount Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 1720 (E.D.N.Y.). Second Circuit affirmed. See Fikes Wholesale, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A., Inc. 62 F.4th 704 (2d Cir. 2023). The case involved a $5.5 billion settlement reached by Visa and MasterCard. An intensive initial notice program included more than 19.8 million direct mail notices sent to potential class members, together with insertions in over 1,500 newspapers, consumer magazines, national business publications, trade and specialty publications, with notices in multiple languages, and a digital notice campaign (delivering more than 770 million adult impressions). Sponsored search listings and a settlement website in eight languages expanded the notice program. For the subsequent settlement reached by Visa and MasterCard, an extensive notice program was implemented, which included over 16.3 million direct mail notices to class members together with more than 354 print publication insertions and digital notices (delivering more than 689 million adult impressions).

i) In re: Oil Spill by the Oil Rig "Deepwater Horizon" in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010, MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.), involved landmark settlement notice programs to distinct "Economic and Property Damages" and "Medical Benefits" settlement classes for BP's $7.8 billion settlement of claims related to the Deepwater Horizon oil spill. Notice efforts included more than 7,900 television spots, 5,200 radio spots, and 5,400 print insertions and reached over 95% of Gulf Coast residents.

6. I have served as a notice expert and have been recognized and appointed by courts to design and provide notice in numerous data breach and privacy settlements, including:

7. Courts have recognized our testimony as to which method of notification is appropriate for a given case, and I have provided testimony on numerous occasions on whether a certain method of notice represents the best notice practicable under the circumstances. Numerous court opinions and comments regarding my testimony, and the adequacy of our notice efforts, are included in the Epiq Legal Noticing curriculum vitae included as Attachment 1.

8. In forming expert opinions, my staff and I draw from our in-depth class action case experience, as well as our educational and related work experiences. I am an active member of the Oregon State Bar, having received my Bachelor of Science from Willamette University and my Juris Doctor from Northwestern School of Law at Lewis and Clark College. I have served as the Director of Legal Notice for Epiq since 2008 and have overseen the detailed planning of virtually all of our court-approved notice programs during that time. Overall, I have more than 25 years of experience in the design and implementation of legal notification and claims administration programs, having been personally involved in well over one hundred successful notice programs.

9. The facts in this declaration are based on my personal knowledge, as well as information provided to me by my colleagues in the ordinary course of my business at Epiq and Epiq Legal Noticing (hereinafter “Epiq”).

OVERVIEW

10. This declaration describes the successful implementation of the Settlement Notice Program (“Notice Program”) and notices (the “Notice” or “Notices”) for Ashley Owings, et al. v. Medusind, Inc., Case No. 1:25-cv-20117, pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida. Epiq designed this Notice Program based on our extensive prior experience and research into the notice issues particular to this Settlement. The Notice Program as designed and implemented was the best notice practicable under the circumstances to provide notice to the Settlement Class.

DATA PRIVACY AND SECURITY

11. Epiq has procedures in place to protect the security of data for the Settlement Class. As with all cases, Epiq maintains extensive data security and privacy safeguards in its official capacity as the Settlement Administrator for this Action. A Service Agreement, which formally retains Epiq as the Settlement Administrator, governs Epiq’s Settlement Administration responsibilities for the Action. Epiq maintains adequate insurance in case of errors.

12. With respect to the data it receives, collects, and otherwise hosts, Epiq serves as a data processor and acts only at the direction of the designated data controller or of the Court, as described in applicable contracts, statements of work, and/or Court documents and Orders. Epiq does not utilize or perform other procedures on personal data provided or obtained as part of services as Settlement Administrator. Epiq does not use any information provided by Settlement Class members for any other purpose than the administration of this Action. Specifically, Settlement Class member information is not used, disseminated, or disclosed by or to any other person for any other purpose unrelated to the administration of this Action.

13. The security and privacy of clients' and class members' information and data are paramount to Epiq. That is why Epiq has invested in a layered and robust set of trusted security personnel, controls, and technology to protect the data we handle. To promote a secure environment for client and class member data, industry leading firewalls and intrusion prevention systems protect and monitor Epiq's network perimeter with regular vulnerability scans and penetration tests. Epiq deploys best-in-class endpoint detection, response, and anti-virus solutions on our endpoints and servers. Strong authentication mechanisms and multi-factor authentication are required for access to Epiq's systems and the data we protect. In addition, Epiq has employed the use of behavior and signature-based analytics as well as monitoring tools across our entire network, which are managed 24 hours per day, 7 days per week, by a team of experienced professionals.

14. Epiq's world class data centers are defended by multi-layered, physical access security, including formal ID and prior approval before access is granted, closed-circuit television ("CCTV"), alarms, biometric devices, and security guards, 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. Epiq manages minimum Tier 3+ data centers in 18 locations worldwide. Our centers have robust environmental controls including uninterruptable power supply ("UPS"), fire detection and suppression controls, flood protection, and cooling systems.

15. Beyond Epiq's technology, our people play a vital role in protecting class members' and our clients' information. Epiq has a dedicated information security team comprised of highly trained, experienced, and qualified security professionals. Our teams stay on top of important security issues and retain important industry standard certifications, like SysAdmin, Audit, Network, and Security ("SANS"), Certified Information Systems Security

Professional (“CISSP”), and Certified Information Systems Auditor (“CISA”). Epiq is continually improving security infrastructure and processes based on an ever-changing digital landscape. Epiq also partners with best-in-class security service providers. Our robust policies and processes cover all aspects of information security to form part of an industry leading security and compliance program, which is regularly assessed by independent third parties.

16. Epiq holds several industry certifications including: Trusted Information Security Assessment Exchange (“TISAX”), Cyber Essentials, Privacy Shield, and ISO 27001. In addition to retaining these certifications, we are aligned to Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (“HIPAA”), National Institute of Standards and Technology (“NIST”), and Federal Information Security Management Act (“FISMA”) frameworks. Epiq follows local, national, and international privacy regulations. To support our business and staff, Epiq has a dedicated team to facilitate and monitor compliance with privacy policies. Epiq is also committed to a culture of security mindfulness. All employees routinely undergo cybersecurity trainings to ensure that safeguarding information and cybersecurity vigilance is a core practice in all aspects of the work our teams complete.

17. Upon completion of a project, Epiq continues to host all data until otherwise instructed in writing by a customer to delete, archive or return such data. When a customer requests that Epiq delete or destroy all data, Epiq agrees to delete or destroy all such data; provided, however, that Epiq may retain data as required by applicable law, rule or regulation, and to the extent such copies are electronically stored in accordance with Epiq’s record retention or back-up policies or procedures (including those regarding electronic communications) then in effect. Epiq keeps data in line with client retention requirements. If no retention period is specified, Epiq returns the data to the client or securely deletes it as appropriate.

NOTICE PROGRAM SUMMARY

18. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, Rule 23 directs that notice must be “the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice may be by one or more of the following: United States mail, electronic means, or other appropriate means.”¹ The Notice Program satisfied these requirements.

19. The Notice Program as designed and implemented reached the greatest practicable number of Settlement Class members with individual notice via mail to identified Settlement Class members. With the address updating protocols that were used, the Notice Program individual notice efforts reached 93.8% of the identified Settlement Class. The reach was further enhanced by a Settlement Website. In my experience, the Notice Program was consistent with other court-approved notice programs, was the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and satisfied the requirements of due process, including its “desire to actually inform” requirement.²

CAFA NOTICE

20. On July 21, 2025, Epiq sent 57 CAFA Notice Packages (“CAFA Notice”), as required by the Federal Class Action Fairness Act of 2005 (CAFA), 28 U.S.C. § 1715. The CAFA Notice was mailed via United States Postal Service (“USPS”) Priority Mail to 53 officials, which included the Attorneys General of 47 states, the District of Columbia, and the United States Territories. Per the direction of the Offices of the Nevada, New York, and Connecticut Attorneys General, the CAFA Notice was sent to the Nevada, New York, and Connecticut Attorneys General electronically via email. The CAFA Notice was also sent via United Parcel Service (“UPS”) to the Attorney General of the United States. Details regarding the CAFA Notice mailing are provided in the Declaration of Kyle S. Bingham on Implementation of CAFA Notice, dated July 21, 2025, which is included as Attachment 2.

² Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 315 (1950) (“But when notice is a person’s due, process which is a mere gesture is not due process. The means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it. The reasonableness and hence the constitutional validity of any chosen method may be defended on the ground that it is in itself reasonably certain to inform those affected . . .”).

NOTICE PROGRAM DETAIL

21. On July 22, 2025, the Court approved the Notice Program and appointed Epiq as the Settlement Administrator in the Order Granting Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement ("Preliminary Approval Order"). In the Preliminary Approval Order, the Court provisionally certified the following "Settlement Class":

All living individuals residing in the United States who were sent a notice of the Data Incident³ indicating their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

A subset of the Settlement Class is the California Settlement Class of "Settlement Class Members residing in California as of December 29, 2023."

Excluded from the Settlement Class are (1) all persons who are directors, officers, and agents of Defendant, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliated companies; (2) governmental entities; and (3) the Judge assigned to the Action, that Judge's immediate family, and Court staff.

22. After the Court's Preliminary Approval Order was entered, Epiq implemented the Notice Program. This declaration details the notice activities undertaken to date and explains how and why the Notice Program was comprehensive and well-suited to reach the Settlement Class. This declaration also discusses the administration activity to date.

NOTICE PROGRAM

Individual Notice

23. On July 25, 2025, Epiq received one data file with 715,208 identified Settlement Class member records, which included names, and physical mailing addresses (if available) ("Class List"). Epiq deduplicated and rolled-up the records and loaded the unique, identified Settlement Class member records into its database for this Settlement. These efforts resulted in 702,115 unique, identified Settlement Class member records (of these, 34 records did not have an associated physical mailing address and were not sent Notice).

³ Data Incident means the unauthorized access to or acquisition of the Private Information that took place on or about December 29, 2023, as a result of the infiltration of Defendant's computer systems.

Individual Notice – Direct Mail

24. On August 29, 2025, Epiq commenced sending 702,081 double postcard notices with a postage prepaid detachable Claim Form (“Postcard Notice”) to identified Settlement Class members for whom an associated physical mailing address was available. The Postcard Notice was sent via USPS first-class mail. The Postcard Notice clearly and concisely described the Settlement and the legal rights of the Settlement Class members. In addition, the Postcard Notice also directed the recipients to the Settlement Website where they could access the Long Form Notice and additional information about the Settlement. The Postcard Notice is included as Attachment 3.

25. Prior to sending the Postcard Notice, all mailing addresses were checked against the National Change of Address (“NCOA”) database maintained by the USPS to ensure all address information was up-to-date and accurately formatted for mailing.⁴ In addition, the addresses were certified via the Coding Accuracy Support System (“CASS”) to ensure the quality of the zip code and verified through Delivery Point Validation (“DPV”) to verify the accuracy of the addresses. This address updating process is standard for the industry and for the majority of promotional mailings that occur today.

26. The return address on the Postcard Notices is a post office box that Epiq maintains for this Settlement. The USPS automatically forwarded Postcard Notices with an available forwarding address order that has not expired (“Postal Forwards”). Postcard Notices returned as undeliverable were re-mailed to any new address available through USPS information, (for example, to the address provided by the USPS on returned mail pieces for which the automatic forwarding order had expired but was still within the time period in which the USPS returned the piece with the address indicated), or to better addresses that were found using a third-party address lookup service. Upon successfully locating better addresses, Postcard Notices were promptly remailed. As of November 25, 2025, Epiq has remailed 33,115 Postcard Notices.

⁴ The NCOA database is maintained by the USPS and consists of approximately 160 million permanent change-of-address (COA) records consisting of names and addresses of individuals, families, and businesses who have filed a change-of-address with the Postal Service™. The address information is maintained on the database for 48 months and reduces undeliverable mail by providing the most current address information, including standardized and delivery-point-coded addresses, for matches made to the NCOA file for individual, family, and business moves.

27. Additionally, a Long Form Notice and Claim Form (“Claim Package”) were mailed to all persons who requested one via the toll-free telephone number or other means. As of November 25, 2025, Epiq mailed 560 Claim Packages as a result of such requests. The Long Form Notice is included as Attachment 4. The Claim Form is included as Attachment 5.

Notice Results

28. As of November 25, 2025, a Postcard Notice was delivered to 658,996 of the 702,115 unique, identified Settlement Class members. This means the individual notice effort reached approximately 93.8% of the identified Settlement Class.

Settlement Website

29. On August 11, 2025, Epiq established a dedicated website for the Settlement with an easy to remember domain name (www.MedusindDataIncidentSettlement.com). Relevant documents, including the Consolidated Class Action Complaint, Settlement Agreement, Motion for Preliminary Approval, Preliminary Approval Order, Long Form Notice, and Claim Form are posted on the Settlement Website. In addition, the Settlement Website includes relevant dates, answers to frequently asked questions (“FAQs”), instructions for how Settlement Class members may opt-out (request exclusion) from or object to the Settlement, contact information for the Settlement Administrator, and how to obtain other case-related information. Settlement Class Members are also able to submit a Claim Form on the Settlement Website. The Settlement Website address was prominently displayed in all notice documents. As of November 25, 2025, there have been 19,870 unique visitor sessions to the Settlement Website, and 72,540 web pages have been presented.

Toll-Free Telephone Number and Other Contact Information

30. On August 11, 2025, a toll-free telephone number (1-888-885-6687) was established for the Settlement. Callers are able to hear an introductory message, have the option to learn more about the Settlement in the form of recorded answers to FAQs, and request that a Claim Package be mailed to them. This automated telephone system is available 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. The toll-free telephone number was prominently displayed in all notice documents. As of November 25, 2025, there have been 3,789 calls to the toll-free telephone number representing 9,642 minutes of use.

31. A postal mailing address and email address were established and continue to be available to allow Settlement Class members the opportunity to request additional information or ask questions.

Requests to Opt-Out and Objections

32. The Opt-Out Deadline and Objection Deadline for the Settlement is December 14, 2025. As of November 25, 2025, Epiq has received four opt-out requests, of which two are currently incomplete. As of November 25, 2025, Epiq is aware of no objections to the Settlement.

Claim Submission & Distribution Options

33. The Notices provided a detailed summary of the relevant information about the Settlement, including the Settlement Website address and how Settlement Class Members can submit a Claim Form online or by mail. Settlement Class Members are given the option of receiving a digital payment or a traditional paper check. Epiq worked with counsel for the parties to select an appropriate menu of payment options. The type of digital payment selected does not impact Epiq's compensation for its work as the Settlement Administrator, and no digital option is discouraged relative to other options.

34. The deadline for Settlement Class Members to file a Claim Form is December 29, 2025. As of November 25, 2025, Epiq has received 39,918 Claim Forms (10,631 online and 29,287 paper). Since the December 29, 2025, deadline has not yet passed, these numbers are preliminary and subject to change. As standard practice, Epiq is in the process of conducting a complete quality control review of Claim Forms received. There is a likelihood that after detailed review, the total number of Claim Forms received will change due to duplicate and denied Claim Forms.

PLAIN LANGUAGE NOTICE AND CLAIM FORM DESIGN

35. The Notices were designed to be “noticed,” reviewed, and—by presenting the information in plain language—understood by Settlement Class members. The design of the Notices followed the principles embodied in the Federal Judicial Center’s (“FJC”) illustrative “model” notices posted at www.fjc.gov. Many courts, and the FJC itself, have approved notices that Epiq’s noticing experts have written and designed in a similar fashion. The Notices contained substantial, albeit easy-to-read, summaries of all of the key information about Settlement Class members’ rights and options. Consistent with our normal practice, all notice documents underwent a final edit for grammatical errors and accuracy.

36. The Notices mailed to all identified Settlement Class members provided substantial information to the Settlement Class. The Notices included (i) details regarding the Settlement Class members’ ability to opt-out or object to the Settlement Agreement, (ii) the deadline to opt-out or object, and (iii) the date, time, and location of the Final Approval Hearing, among other information.

CONCLUSION

37. In class action notice planning, execution, and analysis, we are guided by due process considerations under the United States Constitution, by federal and local rules and statutes, and further by case law pertaining to notice. This framework directs that the notice plan be designed to reach the greatest practicable number of potential class members and, in a settlement class action notice situation such as this, that the notice or notice plan itself not limit knowledge of the availability of benefits—nor the ability to exercise other options—to class members in any way. All of these requirements were met in this case.

38. The Notice Program included individual notice via mail to identified Settlement Class members. With the address updating protocols that were used, the Notice Program individual notice efforts reached 93.8% of the identified Settlement Class. The reach was further enhanced by a Settlement Website. In 2010, the FJC issued a Judges’ Class Action Notice and Claims Process Checklist and Plain Language Guide, which is relied upon for federal cases, and is illustrative for state courts. This guide states that, “the lynchpin in an objective determination of the adequacy of a proposed notice effort is whether all the notice efforts together will reach a high percentage of the class. It is reasonable to reach between 70–95%.”⁵ Here, we have developed and implemented a Notice Program that readily achieved a reach at the high end of that standard.

39. The Notice Program followed the guidance for satisfying due process obligations that a notice expert gleans from the United States Supreme Court’s seminal decisions, which emphasize the need: (a) to endeavor to actually inform the Settlement Class, and (b) to ensure that notice is reasonably calculated to do so:

- a) “[W]hen notice is a person’s due, process which is a mere gesture is not due process. The means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it,” Mullane v. Central Hanover Trust, 339 U.S. 306, 315 (1950); and
- b) “[N]otice must be reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections,” Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156 (1974) (citing Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314).

40. The Notice Program as implemented provided the best notice practicable under the circumstances of this case, conformed to all aspects of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 regarding notice, comported with the guidance for effective notice articulated in the Manual for Complex Litigation Fourth and applicable FJC materials, and satisfied the requirements of due process, including its “desire to actually inform” requirement.

41. The Notice Program schedule afforded sufficient time to provide full and proper notice to Settlement Class members before the Opt-Out Deadline and Objection Deadline.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed November 25, 2025.

Case Expertise

In re Juul Labs, Inc. Marketing, Sales Practices, and Products Liability Litigation 19-md-02913 (N.D. Cal.)

For two settlements totaling $300 million involving JUUL Labs, Inc. and Altria, Epiq designed and implemented cutting-edge, companion notice programs. The settlements alleged consumers were misled about JUUL products' addictiveness and safety, causing them to pay more, and that JUUL products were unlawfully marketed to minors. For the notice programs, over 10.7 million email notices and nearly 500,000 postcard notices were sent to potential class members, and a comprehensive media plan was implemented (over 936 million impressions delivered). The notice programs each reached approximately 80% of the class nationwide with combined individual notice and media notice.

The Court directed that Class Notice be given to the Class Members pursuant to the notice program proposed by the Parties and approved by the Court. In accordance with the Court's Preliminary Approval Order and the Court-approved notice program, the Settlement Administrator caused the forms of Class Notice to be disseminated as ordered. The Long-form Class Notice advised Class Members of the terms of the Settlement Agreement; the Final Approval Hearing, and their right to appear at such hearing; their rights to remain in, or opt out of, the Settlement Class and to object to the Settlement Agreement; procedures for exercising such rights; and the binding effect of this Order and accompanying Final Judgment, whether favorable or unfavorable, to the Settlement Class.

The distribution of the Class Notice pursuant to the Class Notice Program constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and fully satisfies the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, the requirements of due process, 28 U.S.C. § 1715, and any other applicable law.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B) requires that the settling parties provide class members with “the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice must clearly and concisely state in plain, easily understood language: (i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of the class certified; (iii) the class claims, issues, or defenses; (iv) that a class member may enter an appearance through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) that the court will exclude from the class any member who requests exclusion; (vi) the time and manner for requesting exclusion; and (vii) the binding effect of a class judgment on members under Rule 23(c)(3).” The Court finds that the Notice Plan, which was direct notice sent to 99.8% of the Settlement Class via email and U.S. Mail, has been implemented in compliance with this Court’s Order (ECF No. 426) and complies with Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

The notice here meets the requirements of due process and notice standards . . . The objectors' complaints provide no reason to conclude that the purposes and requirements of a notice to a class were not met here.

Judge Lance M. Africk, Evans et al. v. TIN, Inc. et al. (July 7, 2013) 2:11-cv-02067 (E.D. La.):

The Court finds that the dissemination of the Class Notice... as described in Notice Agent Lauran Schultz's Declaration: (a) constituted the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances; (b) constituted notice that was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances...; (c) constituted notice that was reasonable, due, adequate, and sufficient; and (d) constituted notice that fully satisfied all applicable legal requirements, including Rules 23(c)(2)(B) and (e)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the United States Constitution (including Due Process Clause), the Rules of this Court, and any other applicable law, as well as complied with the Federal Judicial Center's illustrative class action notices.

Judge Edward M. Chen, Marolda v. Symantec Corporation (Apr. 5, 2013) 3:08-cv-05701 (N.D. Cal.):

Approximately 3.9 million notices were delivered by email to class members, but only a very small percentage objected or opted out ... The Court ... concludes that notice of settlement to the class was adequate and satisfied all requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e) and due process. Class members received direct notice by email, and additional notice was given by publication in numerous widely circulated publications as well as in numerous targeted publications. These were the best practicable means of informing class members of their rights and of the settlement's terms.

Judge Ann D. Montgomery, In re Zurn Pex Plumbing Products Liability Litigation (Feb. 27, 2013) MDL No. 1958, 08-md-01958 (D. Minn.):

*The form and content of the notices provided to the class were direct, understandable, and consistent with the "plain language" principles advanced by the Federal Judicial Center . . . The notice plan's multi-faceted approach to providing notice to settlement class members whose identity is not known to the settling parties constitutes "the best notice [26] that is practicable under the circumstances" consistent with Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

Magistrate Judge Stewart, Gessele et al. v. Jack in the Box, Inc. (Jan. 28, 2013) 3:10-cv-00960 (D. Ore.):

Moreover, plaintiffs have submitted [a] declaration from Cameron Azari, a nationally recognized notice expert, who attests that fashioning an effective joint notice is not unworkable or unduly confusing. Azari also provides a detailed analysis of how he would approach fashioning an effective notice in this case.

Judge Carl J. Barbier, In re Oil Spill by the Oil Rig "Deepwater Horizon" in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010 (Medical Benefits Settlement) (Jan. 11, 2013) MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.):

Through August 9, 2012, 366,242 individual notices had been sent to potential [Medical Benefits] Settlement Class Members by postal mail and 56,136 individual notices had been e-mailed. Only 10,700 mailings—or 3.3%—were known to be undeliverable. (Azari Decl. ¶¶ 8, 9.) Notice was also provided through an extensive schedule of local newspaper, radio, television and Internet placements, well-read consumer magazines, a national daily business newspaper, highly-trafficked websites, and Sunday local newspapers (via newspaper supplements). Notice was also provided in non-measured trade, business and specialty publications, African-American, Vietnamese, and Spanish language publications, and Cajun radio programming. The combined measurable paid print, television, radio, and Internet effort reached an estimated 95% of adults aged 18+ in the Gulf Coast region an average of 10.3 times each, and an estimated 83% of all adults in the United States aged 18+ an average of 4 times each. (Id. ¶¶ 8, 10.) All notice documents were designed to be clear, substantive, and informative. (Id. ¶ 5.)

The Court received no objections to the scope or content of the [Medical Benefits] Notice Program. (Azari Supp. Decl. ¶ 12.) The Court finds that the Notice and Notice Plan as implemented satisfied the best notice practicable standard of Rule 23(c) and, in accordance with Rule 23(e)(1), provided notice in a reasonable manner to Class Members who would be bound by the Settlement, including individual notice to all Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort. Likewise, the Notice and Notice Plan satisfied the requirements of Due Process. The Court also finds the Notice and Notice Plan satisfied the requirements of CAFA.

Judge Carl J. Barbier, In re Oil Spill by the Oil Rig "Deepwater Horizon" in the Gulf of Mexico, on April 20, 2010 (Economic and Property Damages Settlement) (Dec. 21, 2012) MDL No. 2179 (E.D. La.):

The Court finds that the Class Notice and Class Notice Plan satisfied and continue to satisfy the applicable requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(b) and 23(e), the Class Action Fairness Act (28 U.S.C. § 1711 et seq.), and the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution (U.S. Const., amend. V), constituting the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances of this litigation. The notice program surpassed the requirements of Due Process, Rule 23, and CAFA. Based on the factual elements of the Notice Program as detailed below, the Notice Program surpassed all of the requirements of Due Process, Rule 23, and CAFA.

The Notice Program, as duly implemented, surpasses other notice programs ... executed with court approval. The Notice Program included notification to known or potential Class Members via postal mail and e-mail; an extensive schedule of local newspaper, radio, television and Internet placements, well-read consumer magazines, a national daily business newspaper, and Sunday local newspapers. Notice placements also appeared in non-measured trade, business, and specialty publications, African-American, Vietnamese, and Spanish language publications, and Cajun radio programming. The Notice Program met the objective of reaching the greatest possible number of class members and providing them with every reasonable opportunity to understand their legal rights. See Azari Decl. ¶¶ 8, 15, 68. The Notice Program was substantially completed on July 15, 2012, allowing class members adequate time to make decisions before the opt-out and objections deadlines.

The media notice effort alone reached an estimated 95% of adults in the Gulf region an average of 10.3 times each, and an estimated 83% of all adults in the United States an average of 4 times each. These figures do not include notice efforts that cannot be measured, such as advertisements in trade publications and sponsored search engine listings. The Notice Program fairly and adequately covered and notified the class without excluding any demographic group or geographic area, and it exceeded the reach percentage achieved in most other court-approved notice programs.

Judge Alonzo Harris, Opelousas General Hospital Authority, A Public Trust, D/B/A Opelousas General Health System and ArklaMiss Surgery Center, L.L.C. v. FairPay Solutions, Inc. (Aug. 17, 2012) 12-C-1599 (27th Jud. D. Ct. La.):

Notice given to Class Members and all other interested parties pursuant to this Court's order of April 18, 2012, was reasonably calculated to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action, the certification of the Class as Defined for settlement purposes only, the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Members rights to be represented by private counsel, at their own costs, and Class Members rights to appear in Court to have their objections heard, and to afford persons or entities within the Class Definition an opportunity to exclude themselves from the Class. Such notice complied with all requirements of the federal and state constitutions, including the Due Process Clause, and applicable articles of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Class as Defined.

Judge James Lawrence King, Sachar v. Iberiabank Corporation (Apr. 26, 2012) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The Court finds that the Notice previously approved was fully and properly effectuated and was sufficient to satisfy the requirements of due process because it described "the substantive claims ... [and] contained information reasonably necessary to [allow Settlement Class Members to] make a decision to remain a class member and be bound by the final judgment.".... The Notice, among other things, defined the Settlement Class, described the release as well as the amount and method and manner of proposed distribution of the Settlement proceeds, and informed Settlement Class Members of their rights to opt-out or object, the procedures for doing so, and the time and place of the Final Approval Hearing. The Notice also informed Settlement Class Members that a class judgment would bind them unless they opted out, and told them where they could obtain more information, such as access to a full copy of the Agreement. Further, the Notice described in summary form the fact that Class Counsel would be seeking attorneys' fees of up to 30 percent of the Settlement. Settlement Class Members were provided with the best practicable notice "reasonably calculated, under [the] circumstances, to apprise them of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections." Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314. The content of the Notice fully complied with the requirements of Rule 23.

Judge Bobby Peters, Vereen v. Lowe's Home Centers (Apr. 13, 2012) SU10-cv-2267B (Ga. Super. Ct.):

The Court finds that the Notice and the Notice Plan was fulfilled, in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the Amendment, and this Court's Preliminary Approval Order and that this Notice and Notice Plan constituted the best practicable notice to Class Members under the circumstances of this action, constituted due and sufficient Notice of the proposed Settlement to all persons entitled to participate in the proposed Settlement, and was in full compliance with Ga. Code Ann § 9-11-23 and the constitutional requirements of due process. Extensive notice was provided to the class, including point of sale notification, publication notice and notice by first-class mail for certain potential Class Members.

The affidavit of the notice expert conclusively supports this Court's finding that the notice program was adequate, appropriate, and comported with Georgia Code Ann. § 9-11-23(b)(2), the Due Process Clause of the Constitution, and the guidance for effective notice articulate in the FJC's Manual for Complex Litigation, 4th.

Judge Lee Rosenthal, In re Heartland Payment Systems, Inc. Customer Data Security Breach Litigation (Mar. 2, 2012) MDL No. 2046 (S.D. Tex.):

*The notice that has been given clearly complies with Rule 23(e)(1)'s reasonableness requirement ... the notice plan after its implementation and conservatively estimated that notice reached 81.4 percent of the class members. (Docket Entry No. 106, ¶ 32). Both the summary notice and the detailed notice provided the information reasonably necessary for the presumptive class members to determine whether to object to the proposed settlement. See Katrina Canal Breaches, 628 F.3d at 197. Both the summary notice and the detailed notice "were written in easy-to-understand plain English." In re Black Farmers Discrimination Litig., — F. Judge John D. Bates, Trombley v. National City Bank (Dec. 1, 2011) 1:10-cv-00232 (D.D.C.) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft Litigation MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Notice given to the Settlement Class were in full compliance with the Court's January 11, 2011 Order, the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), and due process. The notice was adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. In addition, adequate notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to participate in the final fairness hearing were provided to the Settlement Class.

Judge Robert M. Dow, Jr., Schulte v. Fifth Third Bank (July 29, 2011) 1:09-cv-06655 (N.D. Ill.):

The Court has reviewed the content of all of the various notices, as well as the manner in which Notice was disseminated, and concludes that the Notice given to the Class fully complied with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, as it was the best notice practicable, satisfied all constitutional due process concerns, and provided the Court with jurisdiction over the absent Class Members.

Judge Ellis J. Daigle, Williams v. Hammerman & Gainer Inc. (June 30, 2011) 11-C-3187-B (27th Jud. D. Ct. La.):

Notices given to Settlement Class members and all other interested parties throughout this proceeding with respect to the certification of the Settlement Class, the proposed settlement, and all related procedures and hearings—including, without limitation, the notice to putative Settlement Class members and others ... were reasonably calculated under all the circumstances and have been sufficient, as to form, content, and manner of dissemination, to apprise interested parties and members of the Settlement Class of the pendency of the action, the certification of the Settlement Class, the Settlement Agreement and its contents, Settlement Class members' right to be represented by private counsel, at their own cost, and Settlement Class members' right to appear in Court to have their objections heard, and to afford Settlement Class members an opportunity to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class. Such notices complied with all requirements of the federal and state constitutions, including the due process clause, and applicable articles of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedures, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Settlement Class.

Judge Stefan R. Underhill, Mathena v. Webster Bank, N.A. (Mar. 24, 2011) 3:10-cv-01448 (D. Conn.) as part of In re Checking Account Overdraft Litigation MDL No. 2036 (S.D. Fla.):

The form, content, and method of dissemination of Notice given to the Settlement Class were adequate and reasonable, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice, as given, provided valid, due, and sufficient notice of the proposed settlement, the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and these proceedings to all persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process.

Judge Ted Stewart, Miller v. Basic Research, LLC (Sept. 2, 2010) 2:07-cv-00871 (D. Utah):

Plaintiffs state that they have hired a firm specializing in designing and implementing large scale, unbiased, legal notification plans. Plaintiffs represent to the Court that such notice will include: 1) individual notice by electronic mail and/or first-class mail sent to all reasonably identifiable Class members; 2) nationwide paid media notice through a combination of print publications, including newspapers, consumer magazines, newspaper supplements and the Internet; 3) a neutral, Court-approved, informational press release; 4) a neutral, Court-approved Internet website; and 5) a toll-free telephone number. Similar mixed media plans have been approved by other district courts post class certification. The Court finds this plan is sufficient to meet the notice requirement.

Judge Sara Loi, Pavlov v. Continental Casualty Co. (Oct. 7, 2009) 5:07-cv-02580 (N.D. Ohio):

[T]he elaborate notice program contained in the Settlement Agreement provides for notice through a variety of means, including direct mail to each class member, notice to the United States Attorney General and each State, a toll free number, and a website designed to provide information about the settlement and instructions on submitting claims. With a 99.9% effective rate, the Court finds that the notice program constituted the “best notice that is practicable under the circumstances,” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B), and clearly satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2)(B).

Judge James Robertson, In re Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Data Theft Litigation (Sept. 23, 2009) MDL No. 1796 (D.D.C.):

The Notice Plan, as implemented, satisfied the requirements of due process and was the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice Plan was reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Class Members of the pendency of the action, the terms of the Settlement, and their right to appear, object to or exclude themselves from the Settlement. Further, the notice was reasonable and constituted due, adequate and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why is this Notice being provided?

A court authorized this Notice because you have the right to know about the Settlement of this class action lawsuit and about all of your rights and options before the Court decides whether to grant Final Approval to the Settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement, your legal rights, what Settlement Class Member Benefits are available, who is eligible for the Settlement Class Member Benefits, and how to get them.

The Honorable Rodolfo A. Ruiz II of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida is overseeing this class action. The lawsuit is known Ashley Owings v. Medusind, Inc., Case No. 1:25-cv-20117-RAR (“lawsuit”). The individuals who filed this lawsuit are called the “Plaintiffs” and/or “Class Representatives” and the company sued, Medusind, Inc., is called the “Defendant.”

2. What is this lawsuit about?

Plaintiffs filed this lawsuit against the Defendant on behalf of themselves and all others similarly related to a Data Incident that occurred on or about December 29, 2023, involving the Defendant and resulting in the unauthorized access to or acquisition of Settlement Class members’ Private Information as the result of the infiltration of Defendant’s computer systems. Private Information includes personally identifiable information and private health information consisting of, but not limited to, the following: names, physical addresses, email addresses, telephone numbers, health insurance and billing information (insurance policy numbers or claims/benefits information), payment information (debit/credit card numbers or bank account information), health information (medical history, medical record numbers, or prescription information), and government identification (Social Security numbers, taxpayer IDs, driver’s licenses, or passport numbers).

Defendant denies the legal claims and denies any wrongdoing or liability. The Court has not made any determination of any wrongdoing by Defendant, or that any law has been violated. Instead, the Plaintiffs and Defendant have agreed to a settlement to avoid the risk, cost, and time of continuing the lawsuit.

3. Why is there a Settlement?

The Plaintiffs and Defendant do not agree about the legal claims made in this lawsuit. The lawsuit has not gone to trial, and the Court has not decided in favor of the Plaintiffs or Defendant. Instead, the Plaintiffs and Defendant have agreed to settle the lawsuit. The Class Representatives, Defendant, and their lawyers believe the Settlement is best for the Settlement Class because of the Settlement Class Member Benefits available and the risks and uncertainty associated with continuing the lawsuit.

4. Why is this lawsuit a class action?

In a class action, one or more people (called class representatives) sue on behalf of all people who have similar legal claims. Together, all these people are called a class or class members. One court resolves the issues for all class members, except for those class members who timely exclude themselves (opt-out) from the class.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am included in the Settlement?

You are included in the Settlement Class if you are a living individual residing in the United States and was sent a notice of the Data Incident indicating your Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

You are also included in the California Settlement Subclass if you are a Settlement Class Member residing in California on December 29, 2023.

6. Are there exceptions to being included in the Settlement?

Yes. Excluded from the Settlement Class are: (1) all persons who are directors, officers, and agents of Defendant, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliated companies; (2) governmental entities; and (3) the Judge assigned to the lawsuit, that Judge's immediate family, and Court staff.

7. What if I am still not sure whether I am part of the Settlement?

If you are still not sure whether you are a Settlement Class member, you may go to www.MedusindDataIncidentSettlement.com or call toll-free 1-888-885-6687.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

8. What does this Settlement provide?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can submit a Claim Form for the following Settlement Class Member Benefits:

Cash Payment A – Documented Losses

You may submit a Claim Form with reasonable documentation for losses related to the Data Incident for up to $5,000 per Settlement Class Member.

Examples of expenses incurred as a result of the Data Incident include (but are not limited to): unreimbursed losses relating to fraud or identity theft; costs associated with freezing or unfreezing credit with any credit reporting agency; and miscellaneous expenses such as notary, fax, postage, copying, mileage, and long-distance telephone charges.

Examples of reasonable documentation include (but are not limited to): telephone records, correspondence including emails, or receipts. Personal certifications, declarations, or affidavits from the Settlement Class Member do not constitute reasonable documentation but may be included to provide clarification, context, or support for other submitted reasonable documentation.

You will not be reimbursed for expenses if you have been reimbursed for the same expenses by another source, including compensation provided in connection with the identity protection and credit monitoring services offered as part of the notification letter provided by Defendant or otherwise.

If you do not submit reasonable documentation supporting a loss, or if your Claim Form is invalid as determined by the Settlement Administrator, and you do not cure your Claim Form, your Claim Form

Questions? Go to www.MedusindDataIncidentSettlement.com or call 1-888-885-6687

for Cash Payment A – Documented Losses will instead be processed as if you elected Cash Payment B – Alternate Cash.

Cash Payment B – Alternate Cash

Instead of selecting Cash Payment A, without providing documentation, you may submit a Claim Form to receive an alternate cash payment in the estimated amount of $100.

California Statutory Award: In addition to Cash Payment A or Cash Payment B, members of the California Settlement Subclass may also elect to receive an additional California Statutory Award in the estimated amount of $100.

Credit Monitoring - In addition to Cash Payment A or Cash Payment B, you may also submit a Claim Form to receive two years of free Credit Monitoring.

Cash Payments - Your Cash Payment may be subject to a pro rata (a legal term meaning equal share) increase if the amount of Valid Claims does not use the entire Net Settlement Fund. Alternatively, if the amount of Valid Claims exceeds the amount of the Net Settlement Fund, calculated after payment for Credit Monitoring has been subtracted your Cash Payment may be subject to a pro rata reduction.

For purposes of calculating the pro rata increase or decrease, the Settlement Administrator must distribute the funds in the Net Settlement Fund first for payment of Credit Monitoring, then to Cash Payment A – Documented Losses, and then for Cash Payment B and for Credit Monitoring. Any pro rata increases or decreases will be on an equal percentage basis.

Injunctive Relief

Defendant is implementing additional security measures following the Data Incident.

9. What am I giving up to receive Settlement Class Member Benefits or stay in the Settlement?

Unless you exclude yourself (opt-out), you will remain in the Settlement Class. If the Settlement is approved and becomes final, all Court orders and any judgments will apply to you and legally bind you. You will not be able to sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against the Released Parties about the Released Claims in this lawsuit. The specific rights you are giving up are called “Released Claims.”

10. What are the Released Claims?

Section XIII of the Settlement Agreement describes the Releases, Released Claims, and Released Parties, in necessary legal terminology, so please read this section carefully. The Settlement Agreement is available at www.MedusindDataIncidentSettlement.com. For questions regarding the Releases, Released Claims, or Released Parties and what the language in the Settlement Agreement means, you can also contact Class Counsel listed below for free, or you can talk to your own lawyer at your own expense.

EXCLUDE YOURSELF OR OPT-OUT OF THE SETTLEMENT

If you are a member of the Settlement Class and the California Settlement Subclass (if eligible) and want to keep any right you may have to sue or continue to sue the Released Parties on your own about the legal claims in this lawsuit or the Released Claims, then you must take steps to get out of the Settlement. This is called excluding yourself from—or “opting-out” of—the Settlement.

14. How do I opt-out of the Settlement?

To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must mail a written request for exclusion, which includes the following:

- 1) Your name, address, telephone number, and email address (if any);
- 2) Your personal physical signature; and
- 3) A statement that you want to be excluded from the Settlement Class, such as “I hereby request to be excluded from the Settlement Class in the Medusind Data Incident.”

The exclusion request must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator at the following address, and be postmarked by December 14, 2025:

You cannot opt-out (exclude yourself) by telephone or by email.

Questions? Go to www.MedusindDataIncidentSettlement.com or call 1-888-885-6687

“Mass” or “class” requests for exclusion filed by third parties on behalf of a “mass” or “class” of Settlement Class members or multiple Settlement Class members where the opt-out has not been signed by each and every individual Settlement Class member will not be allowed.

15. If I opt-out can I still get anything from the Settlement?

No. If you opt-out, you will not be able to receive Settlement Class Member Benefits, and you will not be bound by the Settlement or any judgments in this lawsuit. You can only get Settlement Class Member Benefits if you stay in the Settlement and submit a timely and valid Claim Form.

16. If I do not opt-out, can I sue the Defendant for the same thing later?

No. Unless you opt-out, you give up any right to sue any of the Defendant and Released Parties for the legal claims this Settlement resolves and Releases, and you will be bound by all the terms of the Settlement, proceedings, orders, and judgments in the lawsuit. You must opt-out of this lawsuit to start or continue your own lawsuit or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendant and Released Parties about the Released Claims in this Settlement. If you have a pending lawsuit, speak to your lawyer in that lawsuit immediately.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

17. How do I tell the Court I do not like the Settlement?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can tell the Court you do not agree with all or any part of the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys’ Fees and Costs.

To object, you must file your timely written objection with the Court as provided below by December 14, 2025 and send by U.S. mail to Class Counsel, Defendant’s Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator postmarked by or shipped by private courier (such as Federal Express) by December 14, 2025, stating you object to the Settlement in Ashley Owings v. Medusind, Inc., Case No. 1:25-cv-20117-RAR.

To file an objection, you cannot exclude yourself from the Settlement Class. Your objection must include all of the following information:

- 1) Your full name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address (if any);
- 2) All grounds for the objection, accompanied by any legal support for the objection known to you as the objector or your own lawyer;
- 3) The number of times you have objected to a class action settlement within the five years preceding the date that you file the objection, the caption of each case in which you have made such objection, and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon your prior objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case;
- 4) The identity of all lawyers representing you, including any former or current lawyers who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection to the Settlement and/or Application for Attorneys’ Fees, and Costs and whether they will appear at the Final Approval Hearing;
- 5) The number of times your lawyer or your lawyer’s law firm have objected to a class action settlement within the five years preceding the date of the filed objection, the caption of each case in which your lawyer or the firm has made such objection and a copy of any orders related to or ruling upon your lawyer’s or the lawyer’s law firm’s prior objections that were issued by the trial and appellate courts in each listed case;

Questions? Go to www.MedusindDataIncidentSettlement.com or call 1-888-885-6687

- 6) A list of all persons who will be called to testify at the Final Approval Hearing in support of your objection (if any);
- 7) A statement confirming whether you intend to personally appear and/or testify at the Final Approval Hearing; and
- 8) Your signature as the objector (a lawyer's signature is not sufficient).

Class Counsel and/or Defendant's Counsel may conduct limited discovery on any objector or objector's lawyer, including the taking of depositions and requiring the production of documents.

To object, you must file your timely written objection with the Court by December 14, 2025, and send it by U.S. mail to Class Counsel, Defendant's Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator postmarked by or shipped by private courier (such as Federal Express) by December 14, 2025, at the following addresses:

18. What is the difference between objecting and asking to be excluded?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Opting-out is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you opt-out, you cannot object because you are no longer part of the Settlement.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

19. Do I have a lawyer in the lawsuit?

Yes. The Court has appointed Jeff Ostrow of Kopelowitz Ostrow P.A. and Mariya Weekes of Milberg Coleman Bryson Phillips Grossman PLLC as Class Counsel to represent you and the Settlement Class for the purposes of this Settlement. You may hire your own lawyer at your own cost if you want someone other than Class Counsel to represent you in this lawsuit.

20. How will Class Counsel be paid?

Class Counsel will file a motion asking the Court to award attorneys' fees of up to 1/3 of the Settlement Fund, plus reimbursement of costs. If awarded by the Court, the attorneys' fees and costs will be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Court may award less than these amounts.

Questions? Go to www.MedusindDataIncidentSettlement.com or call 1-888-885-6687

THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

The Court will hold a “Final Approval Hearing” to decide whether to approve the Settlement and Application for Attorneys’ Fees, and Costs. You may attend and you may ask to speak if you file an objection by the deadline, but you do not have to.

21. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on January 12, 2026, at 11:00 a.m. before the Honorable Rodolfo A. Ruiz II at the Wilkie D. Ferguson, Jr. United States Courthouse, 400 North Miami Avenue, Miami, FL 33128. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and decide whether to approve the Settlement and Class Counsel’s Application for Attorneys’ Fees and Costs.

If there are objections that were filed by the deadline, the Court will consider them. If you file a timely objection, and you (or your lawyer) ask to speak at the hearing, the Court, at its discretion, may hear objections at the hearing.

Note: The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change without further notice to the Settlement Class. The Court may also decide to hold the hearing via video conference or by telephone. You should check the Settlement Website www.MedusindDataIncidentSettlement.com to confirm the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing have not changed.

22. Do I have to attend the Final Approval Hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. However, you are welcome to attend at your own expense. If you file an objection, you do not have to attend the Final Approval Hearing to speak about it. As long as you file your written objection by the deadline, the Court will consider it.

23. May I speak at the Final Approval Hearing?

If there are objections that were filed by the deadline, the Court will consider them. If you file a timely objection, and you (or your lawyer) ask to speak at the hearing, the Court, at its discretion, may hear objections at the hearing.

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

THIS CAUSE comes before the Court on Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement and Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs [ECF No. 56],¹ filed on August 1, 2025, requesting entry of an order: (1) granting Final Approval of the Settlement; (2) certifying the Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass for settlement purposes, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a) and 23(b)(3); (3) affirming the appointments of the Plaintiffs as Class Representatives, Class Counsel, and the Settlement Administrator; (4) awarding attorneys' fees and costs; (5) approving payment of the Settlement Administration Costs; (6) overruling timely objections, if any; and (7) entering final judgment dismissing the Action with prejudice as to the Defendant and reserving jurisdiction over Settlement implementation. The Court held a hearing on the Motion for Final Approval on January 26, 2026.

Having already analyzed the Settlement in entering the Preliminary Approval Order, [ECF No. 231], and having again carefully reviewed the Motion for Final Approval, the proposed Settlement and its exhibits, all relevant filings, the record, and the argument from the Parties' counsel, the Court finds the Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass should be finally certified, the Settlement satisfies the Final Approval criteria, and the Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs should be granted. Accordingly, it is hereby:

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Motion is GRANTED as set forth herein.

BACKGROUND

The relevant procedural and factual background of this Action is detailed in the Motion for Final Approval. Below is a summary of facts pertinent to the findings and rulings in this Final Approval Order.

Defendant is a medical and dental billing and software company that provides services to providers throughout the country. See generally Complaint, [ECF No. 1]. Defendant's healthcare customers entrusted Defendant with the Private Information of their patients, including their names, mailing addresses, email addresses, telephone numbers, health insurance and billing information (insurance policy numbers or claims/benefits information), payment information (debit/credit card numbers or bank account information), health information (medical history, medical record numbers, or prescription information), and government identification (Social Security numbers, taxpayer ID numbers, driver's licenses numbers, or passport numbers). Id.

On December 29, 2023, Defendant detected suspicious activity on its computer systems and later confirmed that cybercriminals accessed certain information stored on those systems. Id. On or about January 7, 2025, Defendant began sending notice letters to over 700,000 individuals advising them that their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident. Id. On January 9, 2025, Plaintiff Owens filed an action against Defendant before this Court related to the Data Incident. Id. Thereafter, a number of similar lawsuits with overlapping claims and classes were filed against Defendant regarding the Data Incident. Following a motion for consolidation and appointment of leadership, the Court consolidated all related cases into this action and appointed Jeff Ostrow and Mariya Weekes as Interim Class Counsel. [ECF Nos. 4, 6]. Plaintiffs filed their consolidated class action complaint on February 18, 2025, to which Defendant filed a Motion to Dismiss on April 11, 2025. [ECF Nos. 21, 35]. Plaintiffs filed their response in opposition to the motion to dismiss on May 15, 2025, to which Defendant filed its reply on June 10, 2025. [ECF Nos. 40, 43].

This Settlement was reached before the Court considered the motion to dismiss. Prior to participating in mediation, the Parties engaged in meaningful discovery. Plaintiffs consulted with liability and damages experts and requested pre-mediation informal discovery from Defendant. In response Defendant produced extensive material relating, including but not limited to, the number of individuals and categories of Private Information impacted by the Data Incident. The Parties also exchanged detailed mediation statements outlining their positions with respect to liability, damages, and settlement.

On June 10, 2025, the Parties participated in a full-day private mediation session in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, before experienced class action mediator and retired federal Magistrate Judge Diane Welsh. The mediation concluded with the Parties agreeing to all material terms of the Settlement. The terms of the settlement reached are memorialized in the Agreement, which was negotiated at arm's length, in good faith, and without collusion by capable and experienced counsel with full knowledge of the facts, the law, and the inherent risks in the Action, and with the active involvement of Plaintiffs and Defendant.

The Parties filed a Notice of Settlement with the Court on June 12, 2025. [ECF No. 47]. Over the next five weeks, the Parties worked diligently to finalize the terms of the Agreement and ancillary documents. They signed the agreement on July 11, 2025. The Parties did not discuss attorneys' fees and costs until after they reached agreement on all material Settlement terms.

Specifically, the Settlement provides monetary relief that includes a non-reversionary all-cash Settlement Fund of $5,000,000. The Settlement Fund was fully funded after Preliminary Approval. The Settlement Fund will pay: (i) all Settlement Class Member Benefits; (ii) any attorneys' fees and costs awarded by the Court to Class Counsel; and (iii) all Settlement Administration Costs. The Settlement also provides that Defendant will provide Class Counsel with an attestation as to the security measures it has implemented and plans to implement following the Data Incident. The costs of any such security measures shall be fully borne by Defendant, and under no circumstances will such costs be deducted from the Settlement Fund.

Plaintiffs sought Preliminary Approval of the Settlement on behalf of the proposed Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass. See [ECF No. 51]. The Court entered the Preliminary Approval Order, [ECF No. 52], granting the Motion for Preliminary Approval, conditionally certifying the Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass, and finding it was likely to grant Final Approval, and approving a comprehensive Notice Program and Claim Process. Following entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, the Parties and the Settlement Administrator implemented and completed the Notice Program. Motion for Final Approval at 7-9. The Claim Form Deadline was December 29, 2025. Id.

Having completed the Notice Program, Plaintiffs and Class Counsel filed the Motion for Final Approval and Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs. [ECF No. 56]. Only ■ Settlement Class Members have opted-out, who are identified on attached Exhibit A. Those Settlement Class Members will not be bound by the Settlement or release any claims against Defendant. ____ objections were submitted by Settlement Class Members.

LEGAL STANDARDS FOR CLASS SETTLEMENT APPROVAL

It is well established that “[a] class may be certified solely for purposes of settlement [if] a settlement is reached before a litigated determination of the class certification issue.” Borcea v. Carnival Corp., 238 F.R.D. 664, 671 (S.D. Fla. 2006) (cleaned up). “There is a strong judicial policy in favor of settlement, in order to conserve scarce resources that would otherwise be devoted to protracted litigation.” Id. (citing Bennett v. Behring Corp., 737 F.2d 982 (11th Cir. 1984)). In deciding whether to provisionally certify a settlement class, a court must consider the same factors that it would consider in connection with a proposed litigation class—i.e., all Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a) factors and at least one subsection of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b) must be satisfied—except that the Court need not consider the manageability of a potential trial, since the settlement, if approved, would obviate the need for a trial. See id. at 672.; see also Diakos v. HSS Sys., LLC, 137 F. Supp. 3d 1300, 1306 (S.D. Fla. 2015) (explaining a court evaluates whether certification of a settlement class is appropriate under Rule 23(a) and (b)); Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 620 (1997).

Rule 23(a) requires: (1) numerosity, (2) commonality, (3) typicality, and (4) adequacy of representation. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1)–(4). Rule 23(b)(3) requires that (1) “the questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members” and (2) “a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). The Eleventh Circuit also requires that the class representatives have standing to sue and that the proposed class is adequately defined and clearly ascertainable. See Little v. T-Mobile USA, Inc., 691 F.3d 1302, 1304 (11th Cir. 2012).

Before addressing any Rule 23 factor, however, the Court must ensure that standing under Article III is met. See Griffin v. Dugger, 823 F.2d 1476, 1482 (11th Cir. 1987) (“[A]ny analysis of class certification must begin with the issue of standing . . .”). To satisfy Article III standing, a plaintiff must “(1) suffer[] an injury in fact, (2) that is fairly traceable to the challenged conduct of defendant, and (3) that is likely to be redressed by a favorable judicial decision.” Spokeo, Inc. v. Robins, 578 U.S. 330, 338 (2016) (citations omitted).

If certification of a settlement class is appropriate, a court then determines if the proposal is “fair, reasonable, and adequate.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2). To do so, the Court considers whether the following factors are met:

(A) the class representatives and class counsel have adequately represented the class; (B) the proposal was negotiated at arm’s length; (C) the relief provided for the class is adequate, taking into account: (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal; (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of distributing relief to the class, including the method of processing class-member claims; (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney’s fees, including timing of payment; and (iv) any agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3); and (D) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other.

Id. Furthermore, the Eleventh Circuit “instruct[s] district courts to consider several additional factors called the Bennett factors.” In re Equifax Inc. Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., 999 F.3d 1247, 1273 (11th Cir. 2021) (citing Bennett, 737 F.2d at 986). These additional factors are:

[(a)] “there was no fraud or collusion in arriving at the settlement,” and [(b)] the settlement was fair, adequate and reasonable, considering (1) the likelihood of success at trial; (2) the range of possible recovery; (3) the point on or below the range of possible recovery at which a settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable; (4) the complexity, expense and duration of litigation; (5) the substance and amount of opposition to the settlement; and (6) the stage of proceedings at which the settlement was achieved.

Bennett, 737 F.2d at 986 (citations omitted) (“Bennett factors”).

Courts have substantial discretion in approving a settlement agreement, id. at 986, and settlement negotiations that involve arm’s-length, informed bargaining with the aid of experienced counsel support a preliminary finding of fairness. See Manual for Compl. Lit., Third, § 30.42 (West 1995) (“A presumption of fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness may attach to a class settlement reached in arm’s-length negotiations between experienced, capable counsel after meaningful discovery.”) (cleaned up).

ANALYSIS

The Court finds, for settlement purposes only that it should finally certify the proposed Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass and enter this Final Approval Order because the Settlement Class, California Settlement Subclass, and proposed Settlement satisfy the Rule 23(a), 23(b)(3), and 23(e) requirements and the Bennett factors. Nothing has changed since the Court granted Preliminary Approval. Additionally, the response from the Settlement Class Members has been overwhelmingly favorable.

A. Final Certification Is Appropriate.

As the Court found in the Preliminary Approval Order, when it concluded it was likely to certify the Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass, the Court now finds, for settlement purposes only, that the Rule 23 factors are satisfied, and certification of the proposed Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass is appropriate under Rule 23. The Court further finds that the Article III standing requirement is met here.

The Court therefore finally certifies the following Settlement Class:

Settlement Class: All living individuals residing in the United States who were sent a notice of the Data Incident indicating their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident.

A subset of the Settlement Class is the California Settlement Class of “Settlement Class Members residing in California as of December 29, 2023.”²

The Court will address each Rule 23(a) and 23(b)(3) factor in turn.

1. The Rule 23(a) Factors Are Satisfied.

(i) Rule 23(a)(1) - Numerosity

Rule 23(a)(1) requires the “class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1). The numerosity requirement is “generally a low hurdle” and, as a baseline, “less than twenty-one is inadequate . . . [and] more than forty is adequate[.]” Vega v. T-Mobile USA, Inc., 564 F.3d 1256, 1267 (11th Cir. 2009) (cleaned up). Here, the numerosity requirement of Rule 23(a)(1) is satisfied because the Settlement Class includes 702,115 individuals. See Cox v. Am. Cast Iron Pipe Co., 784 F.2d 1546, 1553 (11th Cir. 1986) (numerosity generally satisfied where there are more than 40 class members); In re Fortra File Transfer Software Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 24-MD-03090, 2025 WL 2675178, at *5 (S.D. Fla. Sept. 17, 2025); In re Fortra File Transfer Software Data Security Breach Litig., No. 24-MD-03090-RAR, 2025 WL 457896, at *4 (S.D. Fla. Feb. 11, 2025); In re Mednax Serv., Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 21-MD-02994-RAR, 2024 WL 1554329, at *4 (S.D. Fla. Apr. 10, 2024). The joinder of approximately 700,000 Settlement Class Members would certainly be impracticable, and thus numerosity is satisfied.

(ii) Rule 23(a)(2) - Commonality

Rule 23(a)(2) requires “questions of law or fact common to the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P.

² Excluded from the Settlement Class are (a) all persons who are directors and officers of Defendant, and their respective subsidiaries and affiliated companies; (b) governmental entities; (c) the Judge assigned to the Action, that Judge’s immediate family, and Court staff; and (d) all Settlement Class Members who submit a valid opt-out request by the Opt-Out Deadline.

23(a)(2). “[C]ommonality requires the plaintiff to demonstrate that the class members have suffered the same injury,” and the plaintiff’s common contention “must be of such a nature that it is capable of class wide resolution—which means that determination of its truth or falsity will resolve an issue that is central to the validity of each one of the claims in one stroke.” Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Dukes, 564 U.S. 338, 349–50 (2011) (cleaned up).

The commonality requirement is a “low hurdle.” See Williams v. Mohawk Indus., Inc., 568 F.3d 1350, 1356 (11th Cir. 2009). Courts in this Circuit have previously addressed this requirement in the context of data breach class actions and found it satisfied. See, e.g., Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *5-6; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *4; Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *4 (commonality satisfied because claims turn on adequacy of defendants’ data security to protect PII and PHI); Desue v. 20/20 Eye Care Network, Inc., No. 21-cv-61275, 2022 WL 17477004, at *4 (S.D. Fla. Dec. 5, 2022); see also Equifax, 999 F.3d at 1274-75, 1277 (affirming district court’s certification of class, including finding of commonality).

Here, Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members all had their Private Information impacted by the Data Incident. Plaintiffs’ claims turn on whether Defendant’s data security environment, or their practices or procedures related to the collection of sensitive data or selection of third parties who are given access to that data, was adequate to protect Plaintiffs’ and the Settlement Class Members’ Private Information. These issues are common to the Settlement Class (including the California Settlement Subclass), are alleged to have injured all Settlement Class Members in the same way and would generate common answers central to the viability of all claims were this case to proceed to trial. In other words, evidence to resolve said claims does not vary among Settlement Class Members and can therefore be fairly resolved, for purposes of settlement, for all Settlement Class Members at once. Thus, commonality is satisfied.

(iii) Rule 23(a)(3) - Typicality

Under Rule 23(a)(3), a class representative's claims must also be typical of the putative class they seek to represent. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(3). Typicality "measures whether a significant nexus exists between the claims of the named representative and those of the class at large." Hines v. Widnall, 334 F.3d 1253, 1256 (11th Cir. 2003); see also Kornberg v. Carnival Cruise Lines, Inc., 741 F.2d 1332, 1337 (11th Cir. 1984) (typicality satisfied where claims "arise from the same event or pattern or practice and are based on the same legal theory"). "Neither the typicality nor the commonality requirement mandates that all putative class members share identical claims, and [] factual differences among the claims of the putative members do not defeat certification." Cooper v. S. Co., 390 F.3d 695, 714 (11th Cir. 2004) (cleaned up); see also Ault v. Walt Disney World Co., 692 F.3d 1212, 1216 (11th Cir. 2012). When the same course of conduct is directed at the named plaintiff and the members of the proposed class, typicality is satisfied. See Kennedy v. Tallant, 710 F.2d 711, 717 (11th Cir. 1983).

Here, Plaintiffs' interests are aligned with the Settlement Class Members in that they all were sent a notice letter indicating their Private Information may have been impacted in the Data Incident and were therefore all affected by the same purportedly inadequate security that allegedly harmed Settlement Class Members. Their claims are based on the same legal theories and underlying event. Thus, the typicality requirement is satisfied. See Hines, 334 F.3d at 1256; Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *6; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *5; Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *4.

(iv) Rule 23(a)(4) - Adequacy

Adequacy under Rule 23(a)(4) requires that "the representative parties . . . fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4). Adequacy relates to (i) whether the proposed class representative has interests antagonistic to the class, and (ii) whether the proposed class counsel has the competence to undertake this litigation. See Fabricant v. Sears Roebuck, 202 F.R.D. 310, 314-15 (S.D. Fla. 2001). The determinative factor “is the forthrightness and vigor with which the representative party can be expected to assert and defend the interests of the members of the class.” Lyons v. Georgia-Pacific Corp. Salaried Emp’s Ret. Plan, 221 F.3d 1235, 1253 (11th Cir. 2000) (cleaned up); Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *6; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *5; Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *5.

Here, like all Settlement Class Members, Plaintiffs have claims against Defendant arising from the Data Incident that allegedly impacted their Private Information and were similarly injured by Defendant’s allegedly wrongful acts. Proof of Plaintiffs’ claims would necessarily involve adjudicating the same issues of law and fact as the claims of the Settlement Class as a whole. Thus, Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class Members have the same interests in recovering damages and other relief. Further, Plaintiffs have also diligently and adequately prosecuted this action through Class Counsel by, among other things, reviewing filings, promptly providing documents and information to Class Counsel, acting in the best interest of the Settlement Class Members, and accepting the classwide Settlement. Plaintiffs are committed to continuing to assist Class Counsel through Final Approval.

Class Counsel “are highly qualified and have a great deal of experience litigating consumer class actions, including in the data privacy context, demonstrating their adequacy.” Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *7 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *5, and Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *5). Class Counsel have litigated this Action by evaluating the claims, preparing comprehensive pleadings, serving informal discovery, consulting with data security experts, responding to Defendant’s motion to dismiss [ECF Nos. 35, 40, 46], complying with Court orders and requirements, and participating in a mediation that ultimately resulted in this Settlement. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *7; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *5.

Accordingly, Plaintiffs have no conflicts with the Settlement Class Members and have demonstrated their adequacy as Class Representatives by “(i) having a genuine personal interest in the outcome of the case; (ii) selecting well-qualified counsel; (iii) producing information and documents to counsel to permit investigation and development of the complaints; (iv) being available as needed throughout the litigation; and (v) monitoring the Litigation.” Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *7 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *5 (quoting Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *5)). The adequacy requirement is therefore met, and the Court confirms its appointments of Plaintiffs as the Class Representatives and Class Counsel. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *7 (appointing Class Counsel and plaintiffs as class representatives); Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *6 (same).

2. The Rule 23(b)(3) Factors Are Satisfied.

Having found all Rule 23(a) factors are satisfied, the Court proceeds to address at least one Rule 23(b) subsection—namely, Rule 23(b)(3)—to ascertain whether “questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members,” and to ensure “a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). For predominance and superiority, the court may consider the class will be certified for settlement purposes only, and that a showing of manageability at trial is not required. See Amchem, 521 U.S. at 620 (“Confronted with a request for settlement-only class certification, a district court need not inquire whether the case, if tried, would present intractable management problems, . . . for the proposal is that there be no trial.”).

(i) Predominance

The predominance inquiry looks at “the legal or factual questions that qualify each class member's case as a genuine controversy, questions that preexist any settlement." Id. at 623. "[C]ommon issues of fact and law predominate if they have a direct impact on every class member's effort to establish liability and on every class member's entitlement to injunctive and monetary relief." Carriuolo v. Gen. Motors Co., 823 F.3d 977, 985 (11th Cir. 2016) (quotation omitted). Further, "[i]t is not necessary that all questions of law or fact be common, but only that some questions are common and that they predominate over individual questions." In re Takata Airbag Prod. Liability Litig., 677 F. Supp. 3d 1311, 1324 (S.D. Fla. 2023) (cleaned up). The focus on a defendant's security measures in a data breach class action "is the precise type of predominant question that makes class-wide adjudication worthwhile." In re Anthem, Inc. Data Breach Litig., 327 F.R.D. 299, 312 (N.D. Cal. 2018).

Here, as in other data breach cases, common questions predominate because all claims arise out of a common course of conduct by Defendant. Id. at 312; Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *8; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *6; Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *5. All Settlement Class Members had their Private Information compromised in the Data Incident and the security practices at issue did not vary from person to person. "Thus, because these common questions represent a significant aspect of the case and they can be resolved for all members of the class in a single adjudication, there is a clear justification for handling the dispute on a representative rather than on an individual basis." Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *7 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *6 (quoting Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *5)). The predominance requirement is therefore satisfied.

(ii) Superiority

To satisfy the superiority requirement of Rule 23(b)(3), a movant must show that "a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). "The focus of the superiority analysis is on the relative advantages of a class action suit over whatever other forms of litigation might be realistically available to plaintiffs.” Mohamed v. American Motor Co., LLC, 320 F.R.D. 301, 316 (S.D. Fla. 2017) (quotation omitted); Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *8 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *6, and Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *5). Here, adjudicating individual actions would be impractical. The amount in dispute for individual class members is too small, the technical issues involved too complex, and the expert testimony and document review too costly. Further, individual claim prosecution would be prohibitively expensive, needlessly delay resolution, and may lead to inconsistent rulings. Accordingly, certification of this suit as a class action is superior to other methods to fairly, adequately, and efficiently resolve the claims asserted. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *8; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *6.

3. The Article III Standing Requirement Is Met.

To demonstrate Article III standing Plaintiffs must establish that they each “(1) suffered an injury in fact, (2) that is fairly traceable to the challenged conduct of the defendant, and (3) that is likely to be redressed by a favorable judicial decision.” Spokeo, 578 U.S. at 338. Further, “[t]o have standing to represent a class, a party must not only satisfy the individual standing prerequisites, but must also ‘be part of the class and possess the same interest and suffer the same injury as the class members.’” Mills v. Foremost Ins. Co., 511 F.3d 1300, 1307 (11th Cir. 2008) (quoting Prado-Steinman ex rel. Prado v. Bush, 221 F.3d 1266, 1279 (11th Cir. 2000)). There is no requirement that Article III standing be proved with evidentiary support at the settlement approval stage. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *8 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *7, and Equifax, 999 F.3d at 1261 n.8).

“Standing exists when a plaintiff’s sensitive personal information is allegedly accessed and exfiltrated in a data breach.” Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *8 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *6, and Desue v. 20/20 Eye Care Network, Inc., No. 21-cv-61275, 2022 WL 796367, at *4 (S.D. Fla. Mar. 15, 2022)); see also Desue, 2022 WL 17477004, at *5. In a similar data breach class action, this Court extensively addressed standing in data breach class actions, and subsequently relied on that analysis when preliminarily approving a class settlement in that case. See In re Mednax Servs., Inc., Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., 603 F. Supp. 3d 1183, 1200-08 (S.D. Fla. 2022) (denying motion to dismiss for lack of standing, including in the context of TransUnion LLC v. Ramirez, 594 U.S. 2190 (2021)); Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *4 n.2 (citing Green-Cooper v. Brinker Int'l, Inc., 73 F.4th 883 (11th Cir. 2023) (citing standing analysis from motion to dismiss opinion and preliminarily approving class settlement)).

To establish an imminent threat of identity theft based on a data breach, plaintiffs must show that “some misuse of class members’ data” has already occurred. Green-Cooper, 73 F. 4th at 889 (citing Tsao v. Captiva MVP Rest. Partners, LLC, 986 F.3d 1332, 1343 (11th Cir. 2021) (emphasis in original)). Plaintiffs’ allegations that a criminal ransomware group accessed their Private Information and published it to its data leak site, and that two Plaintiffs’ Private Information is now on the dark web, supports that misuse. See Green-Cooper, 73 F. 4th at 890 (posting of Private Information on the dark web “establishes both a present injury . . . and a substantial risk of future injury”). Thus, the actual misuse of and actual access to the Settlement Class Members’ data are injuries-in-fact that plausibly give rise to a substantial risk of future harm from identity theft; emotional injury; the diminution in the value of Plaintiffs’ and Settlement Class Members’ Private Information; and the loss of privacy. See In re Fortra File Transfer Software Data Security Breach Litig., No. 24-MD-03090-RAR, 2024 WL 4547212, at *3-7 (S.D. Fla. Feb. 11, 2025) (denying motion to dismiss for lack of standing); Mednax, 603 F. Supp. 3d at 1202-05.

Traceability—the causal connection between the Data Incident and the Settlement Class

Members’ injuries—also exists for Article III standing. Plaintiffs’ and Settlement Class Members’ injuries must be “fairly traceable” to Defendant’s actions, but that does not mean they are required to show proximate cause, as harms flowing indirectly from the Data Incident are sufficient for standing. See Fortra, 2024 WL 4547212, at *6-7; Mednax, 603 F. Supp. 3d at 1205. Defendant’s alleged failure to protect the Private Information, resulting in the Data Incident whereby unauthorized access was gained, preceded Plaintiffs’ documented incidents of identity theft, economic losses, lost time, and emotional distress, and put them at a substantial risk of future incidents of identity theft too. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *9; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *7; Mednax, 603 F. Supp. 3d at 1206. The Data Incident need not have provided all information necessary to inflict those harms; it is enough the Data Incident could assist give identity thieves in perpetrating them. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *9; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *7; Mednax, 603 F. Supp. 3d at 1206.

“Thus, like in Fortra, Mednax, and Desue, because all Plaintiffs and Settlement Class members had their Private Information impacted in the Data Incident, they have all suffered injuries in fact that are fairly traceable to the Data Incident and would likely be redressed by a favorable judgment if this case was litigated through trial, demonstrating Article III standing. The Court therefore finally certifies the Settlement Class.” See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *9; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *8.

B. Final Approval of the Settlement Is Warranted.

The Court already determined it was likely to grant Final Approval of the Settlement in the Preliminary Approval Order. Now, the Court must finally determine whether the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable under Rule 23(e)(2) while also considering the Bennett factors, with the Settlement Class Members having now been given Notice of the Settlement and the opportunity to opt-out of or object to it. The Court finds the Settlement satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(e) as well as the Bennett factors. The Court will address each factor in turn.

1. Rule 23(e)(2)(A) – Adequacy of Representation

For the same reasons that led the Court to find Class Counsel adequate to certify the Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass, Class Counsel have adequately represented the Settlement Class Members’ interests for purposes of Final Approval. Additionally, as the Court has found for purposes of preliminary certification, Plaintiffs’ respective interests are coextensive and do not conflict with the interests of the Settlement Class Members, demonstrating their adequacy. Plaintiffs have the same interest in the Settlement relief as do Settlement Class Members, and the absent Settlement Class Members have no diverging interests. Accordingly, the first Rule 23(e)(2) factor weighs heavily in favor of granting Preliminary Approval because both Class Counsel and the Class Representatives have adequately represented the Settlement Class (including the California Settlement Subclass). See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *9; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *8; Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *6.

2. Rule 23(e)(2)(B) and Bennett Factors 5-6 – Arm’s Length Negotiations

The Court finds the Settlement was reached in the absence of collusion and is the result of good faith, informed, and arm’s-length negotiations between experienced attorneys who are familiar with class action litigation and with the legal and factual issues at stake. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *10; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *8; Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *6. Before discussing a potential resolution, the Parties conducted thorough factual and legal investigation including significant pre-mediation discovery, allowing them to fully understand the claims, defenses, and risks of continued litigation. Motion for Final Approval at 3-4. The Settlement was reached after extensive legal and factual investigation by the Parties, a full-day mediation assisted by a well-respected and experienced mediator, and weeks of additional negotiations to finalize the terms of the Agreement and ancillary documents. Id. The Parties did not discuss attorneys' fees and costs until after they had agreed on all material Settlement terms. Id.

For these reasons and those discussed related to attorneys' fees below, there was no fraud or collusion in arriving at the Settlement. See Bennett, 737 F.2d at 986. Accordingly, "[t]he fact that the Settlement was achieved through well-informed, arm's-length, and neutrally supervised negotiations weighs in favor of granting preliminary approval under Rule 23(e)(2)(B)." Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *10 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *8 (quoting Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *6)).

3. Rule 23(e)(2)(C) and Bennett Factors 1-4 – Adequacy of Settlement Relief

The Court finds, considering the likelihood of success at trial, the complexity, expense, and duration of the litigation, the relief provided is reasonable. While Plaintiffs believe the claims asserted in the Action are meritorious and the Plaintiffs would ultimately prevail at trial, continued litigation against Defendant poses significant risks that make any recovery for the Settlement Class Members uncertain. "[D]ata breach class actions are risky cases." Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *10 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *9 (quoting Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *7) (citation omitted); see also Fox v. Iowa Health Sys., No. 3:18-cv00327, 2021 WL 826741, at *5 (W.D. Wis. Mar. 4, 2021) ("Data breach litigation is evolving; there is no guarantee of the ultimate result . . . [they] are particularly risky, expensive, and complex."); Fulton-Green v. Accolade, Inc., No. 18-274, 2019 WL 4677954, at *8 (E.D. Pa. Sept. 24, 2019) (data breach class actions are "a risky field of litigation because [they] are uncertain and class certification is rare.")). And given the complexity of the claims and arguments here, a lengthy trial would likely be required before Settlement Class Members could recover. Maintaining class certification through trial "is another over-arching risk" as well. Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *10 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *9 (quoting Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *7)). “Thus, through the Settlement, Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members gain significant benefits without having to face further risk of not receiving any relief at all,” weighing heavily in favor of preliminary approval. Id.

Despite the risks involved with further litigation, the Settlement provides outstanding benefits, including Cash Payments, Credit Monitoring, and injunctive relief for all Settlement Class Members. See [ECF No. 235-1] at ¶¶ 123, 126; see also Equifax, 999 F.3d at 1273 (“Settlements also save the bench and bar time, money, and headaches”) (citation omitted)). All Settlement Class Members are given an equal opportunity to claim Settlement Class Member Benefits. Specifically, each Settlement Class Member has the option to be reimbursed for documented losses up to $5,000.00, or they may elect to receive a flat cash payment of an estimated $100.00. See [ECF No. 56-1] at ¶ 81.a.-b. Additionally, California Settlement Subclass Members may elect to receive the California Statutory Award in the estimated amount of $100.00. Id. ¶ 81.c. In addition, all Settlement Class Members may elect Credit Monitoring. Id. ¶ 81.e.

Based upon the number of Claims submitted to the Settlement Administrator, the Court observes the Settlement Class Members have reacted favorably by submitting Claims. See Motion for Final Approval at 9. The Court further finds the Claim Form submission process and distribution of Settlement Class Member Benefits to be fair, convenient, and effective. Settlement Class Members will promptly receive Cash Payments by electronic means or paper check issued by the Settlement Administrator and Credit Monitoring, if elected. Id. The Settlement Administrator is highly qualified to manage the entire process. Thus, “[t]he method of distributing the settlement benefits will be equitable and effective.” Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *11 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *9 (quoting Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *7)).

Furthermore, the attorneys' fees do not impact the other Settlement terms. The request for one-third of the Settlement Fund in attorneys' fees, plus reimbursement of costs, to be paid from the Settlement Fund, is subject to this Court's approval. Class Counsel and Defendant negotiated and reached agreement regarding attorneys' fees and costs only after reaching agreement on all other material Settlement terms. The Settlement, including disbursement of the Settlement Class Member Benefits, is not contingent on approval of the attorneys' fee or costs award. Finally, the agreements between the Plaintiffs and Defendant are all in the Agreement. The Court therefore finds Rule 23(e)(2)(C)'s requirements and the first four Bennett factors are met.

4. Rule 23(e)(2)(D) – Equitable Treatment of Settlement Class Members

As this Court found in Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *11; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *9, and Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *7, all Settlement Class Members are given an equal opportunity to claim Settlement Class Member Benefits. Thus, "[t]he method of distributing the settlement benefits will be equitable and effective." Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *11 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *9 (quoting Mednax, 2024 WL 1554329, at *7)). Further, the attorneys' fees do not impact the other Settlement terms, as Class Counsel and Defendant negotiated and reached agreement regarding attorneys' fees and costs only after agreeing on all other material Settlement terms. The Settlement, including disbursement of the Settlement Class Member Benefits, is not contingent on approval of the attorneys' fee or costs award. [ECF No. 56-1] at ¶ 114. Finally, the agreements between the Plaintiffs and Defendant are all in the Agreement. Motion for Final Approval at 15.

C. Appointment of Class Representatives and Class Counsel Is Appropriate.

For the reasons discussed above, the Court finds that the Plaintiffs have adequately represented the Settlement Class Members throughout this Action. The Court therefore designates and appoints the Plaintiffs as Class Representatives.

Rule 23(g)(1)(A)'s four factors for appointing class counsel for a certified class are: (1) "the work counsel has done in identifying or investigating potential claims in the action;" (2) "counsel's experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and the types of claims asserted in the action;" (3) "counsel's knowledge of the applicable law;" and (4) "the resources that counsel will commit to representing the class." Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(g)(1)(A). The Court may also "consider any other matter pertinent to counsel's ability to fairly and adequately represent the interests of the class." Id.

The Court finds Class Counsel have expended a reasonable amount of time, effort, and expense investigating the Data Incident and in litigating this Action. Further, it is clear from their track record of success, as outlined in their resumes, that Class Counsel are highly skilled and knowledgeable concerning class action practice. Therefore, for purposes of the Settlement only, and pursuant to Rule 23(g)(1), the Court appoints Class Counsel to act on behalf of the Settlement Class (including the California Settlement Subclass) with respect to the Settlement. They are experienced and competent counsel and will adequately protect the interests of the Settlement Class Members. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *12; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *10.

D. The Notice Program Was Properly Administered.

Notice of a proposed settlement must be the "best notice practicable." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). The best notice practicable is that which "is reasonably calculated, under all of the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections." Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Tr. Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950).

Having consider the results of the Notice Program implementation, the Court now finds the form, content, and method of giving notice to the Settlement Class Members as described in the Notice Program, including the forms of Postcard Notice and Long Form Notice, Settlement Website, Settlement telephone line for frequently asked questions, and Claim Form was (a) the best practicable notice to the Settlement Class Members; (b) reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise Settlement Class Members of the pendency of the Action, the terms of the Settlement, the effect of the proposed Settlement (including the Releases contained therein), and their rights under the proposed Settlement, including the right to opt-out of or to object to the proposed Settlement and appear at the Final Approval Hearing; (c) reasonable and constituted due, adequate, and sufficient notice to those persons entitled to receive notice; and (d) written in plain language, using simple terminology, and designed to be readily understandable by Settlement Class Members. Accordingly, the Notice Program satisfied the Rule 23(c)(2)(B) and due process requirements. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *12; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *10.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 (h)(1) further requires that “[n]otice of the motion [for attorneys’ fees] must be served on all parties and, for motions by class counsel, directed to class members in a reasonable manner.” The Notice Program satisfied that requirement, as it notified the Settlement Class Members that Class Counsel will apply to the Court for an award of attorneys’ fees of up to one-third of the Settlement Fund, plus reimbursement of costs. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *12; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *11.

Upon final review, the Court finds the proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate; the Settlement Class and California Settlement Subclass are certified for Settlement purposes; and the Notice Program satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 and due process. Accordingly, Final Approval is granted.

ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS AWARD

Pursuant to the Settlement and the Notices, and consistent with recognized class action practice and procedure, the Court hereby awards $_____ for attorneys' fees, which is equal to __% of the $5,000,000.00 Settlement Fund, and $_____ for reasonable litigation costs. Class Counsel shall determine the allocation of attorneys' fees to all Plaintiffs' counsel.

The requested attorneys' fee award is within the range of reason under the factors listed in Camden I Condo. Ass'n. v. Dunkle, 946 F.2d 768 (11th Cir. 1991);³ see also Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *13; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *11. It is well established that when a representative party has conferred a substantial benefit upon a class, counsel is entitled to attorneys' fees based upon the benefit obtained. Camden I, 946 F.2d at 771; Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980); Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *13; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *11. The common benefit doctrine is an exception to the general rule that each party must bear its own litigation costs. "The doctrine serves the 'twin goals of removing a potential financial obstacle to a plaintiff's pursuit of a claim on behalf of a class and of equitably distributing the fees and costs of successful litigation among all who gained from the named plaintiff's efforts.'" Gevaerts v. TD Bank, N.A., No. 11:14-cv-20744, 2015 WL 6751061, at *10 (S.D. Fla. Nov. 5, 2015) (citation omitted). "The common benefit doctrine stems from the premise that those who receive the benefit of a lawsuit without contributing to its costs are 'unjustly enriched' at the expense of the successful litigant."

³ The factors include: (1) the time and labor required; (2) the novelty and difficulty of the relevant questions; (3) the skill required to properly carry out the legal services; (4) the preclusion of other employment by the attorney as a result of his acceptance of the case; (5) the customary fee; (6) whether the fee is fixed or contingent; (7) time limitations imposed by the clients or the circumstances; (8) the results obtained, including the amount recovered for the clients; (9) the experience, reputation, and ability of the attorneys; (10) the "undesirability" of the case; (11) the nature and the length of the professional relationship with the clients; and (12) fee awards in similar cases. Camden I, 946 F.2d at 772 n.3.

Id. (citing Van Gemert, 444 U.S. at 478).

“As a result, the Supreme Court, the Eleventh Circuit, and courts in this District [including in this MDL] have all recognized that ‘[a] litigant or a lawyer who recovers a common fund for the benefit of persons other than himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorney’s fee from the fund as whole.’” See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *13 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *12 (quoting Gevaerts, 2015 WL 6751061, at *10) (citations omitted)); see also Camden I, 946 F.2d at 771 (“Attorneys in a class action in which a common fund is created are entitled to compensation for their services from the common fund, but the amount is subject to court approval.”). Courts have also recognized that appropriate fee awards in cases such as this encourage redress for wrongs caused to entire classes of persons and deter future misconduct of a similar nature. See Deposit Guar. Nat’l Bank v. Roper, 445 U.S. 326, 338-39 (1980). Further, “[a]dequate compensation promotes the availability of counsel for aggrieved persons.” Millstein v. Holtz, No. 21-CV-61179, 2022 WL 18024840, at *8 (S.D. Fla. Dec. 30, 2022) (citation omitted); Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *13; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *12.

In the Eleventh Circuit, class counsel are awarded a percentage of the funds obtained through a settlement. In Camden I – the controlling authority regarding attorneys’ fees in common-fund class actions – the Eleventh Circuit held that “the percentage of the fund approach [as opposed to the lodestar approach] is the better reasoned in a common fund case. Henceforth in this circuit, attorneys’ fees awarded from a common fund shall be based upon a reasonable percentage of the fund established for the benefit of the class.” Camden I, 946 F.2d at 774; Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *14; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *12.

The Court has discretion in determining the appropriate fee percentage. “There is no hard and fast rule mandating a certain percentage of a common fund which may be awarded as a fee because the amount of any fee must be determined upon the facts of each case.” In re Sunbeam Sec. Litigation, 176 F. Supp. 2d 1323, 1333 (S.D. Fla. 2001) (quoting Camden I, 946 F.2d at 774). Here, the attorneys’ fee request falls within this accepted range. See Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *14 (citing Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *12, and In re Mednax Servs., Inc., Customer Data Sec. Breach Litig., No. 21-MD-02994-RAR, 2024 WL 4415214 (S.D. Fla. Oct. 5, 2024) (district courts in the Eleventh Circuit routinely approve fee awards of one-third of the common fund settlement)). See also, e.g., In re Checking Account Overdraft Litig., No. 1:09-MD-02036-JLK, 2020 WL 4586398, at *16 (S.D. Fla. Aug. 10, 2020) (awarding a 35% fee); Morgan v. Public Storage, 301 F. Supp. 3d 1237, 1257-58 (S.D. Fla. 2016) (awarding 33.33%); Wolff v. Cash 4 Titles, No. 03-22778-CIV, 2012 WL 5290155, at *5-6 (S.D. Fla. Sept. 26, 2012) (“The average percentage award in the Eleventh Circuit mirrors that of awards nationwide—roughly one-third.”) (citing Circuit case law and listing Southern and Middle District of Florida attorneys’ fees awards); Waters v. Int’l Precious Metals Corp., 190 F.3d 1291, 1291 (11th Cir. 1999), cert. denied, 530 U.S. 1289 (2000) (affirming fee award of 33.33 % of settlement).

The litigation costs, comprised of actual out-of-pocket costs Plaintiffs’ Counsel reasonably and necessarily incurred and paid in connection with the prosecuting the Action and the Settlement, are reasonable. “Upon submission of adequate documentation, plaintiffs’ attorneys are entitled to reimbursement of those reasonable and necessary out-of-pocket expenses incurred in the course of activities that benefitted the class.” Morgan, 301 F.Supp.3d at 1258. See also Fortra, 2025 WL 2675178, at *14; Fortra, 2025 WL 457896, at *12. Further, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(h), a trial court may award nontaxable costs that are authorized by law or the parties’ agreement. See also Behrens v. Wometco Enterprises, Inc., 118 F.R.D. 534, 549 (S.D. Fla. Jan. 8, 1988) (noting plaintiffs’ counsel is entitled to reimbursement from the class fund for reasonable expenses).

RELEASES, ENTRY OF FINAL JUDGMENT, AND RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

With the exception of those listed on Exhibit A, the Court adjudges that the Class Representatives and all Settlement Class Members are bound by this Final Approval Order.

Because the Court approves the Settlement set forth in the Agreement as fair, reasonable, and adequate, the Court authorizes and directs implementation of all terms and provisions of the Agreement, including the payment of Valid Claims, attorneys' fees and costs, and the Settlement Administration Costs.

Judgment shall be, and hereby is, entered dismissing the Action with prejudice, on the merits, and without taxation of costs in favor of or against any Party.

As of the Effective Date, the Releasing Parties hereby fully and irrevocably release and forever discharge the Released Parties of and from the Released Claims. Notwithstanding, the Releases shall not interfere with a Settlement Class Member's right to communicate with a government or law enforcement agency regarding any inquiries involving the Data Incident.

Upon the entry of this Final Approval Order, with the exception of Class Counsel, Defendant's Counsel, Defendant, and the Class Representatives' implementation of the Settlement and the approval process in this Action, all Settlement Class Members shall be enjoined and barred from asserting any claims or continuing any litigation against Defendant and the Released Parties arising out of, relating to, or in connection with the Released Claims.

Any residual funds remaining in the Settlement Fund 240 days following the date Settlement Class members are sent an email to select their form of payment shall be distributed to the National Cybersecurity Alliance (<https://www.staysafeonline.org/>) as the cypres recipient. The Court finds that its mission matches the goals of this Action to redress and protect the privacy rights for consumers.

The Court hereby decrees that neither the Agreement, nor this Final Approval Order, nor the fact of the Settlement, is an admission or concession by Defendant or the Released Parties of any fault, wrongdoing or liability whatsoever, or as an admission of the appropriateness of class certification for trial or dispositive motion practice. This Final Approval Order is not a finding of the validity or invalidity of any of the claims asserted or defenses raised in the Action. Nothing relating to the Settlement shall be offered or received in evidence as an admission, concession, presumption, or inference against Defendant or the other Released Parties in any proceeding, other than such proceedings as may be necessary to consummate or enforce the Settlement Agreement or to support a defense based on principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, release, good faith settlement, judgment bar or reduction, or any other theory of claim preclusion or issue preclusion or similar defense.

The Court hereby retains and reserves jurisdiction over: (a) implementation of this Settlement and any distributions from the Settlement Fund; (b) the Action, until the Effective Date, and until each and every act agreed to be performed by the Parties shall have been performed pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement, including the exhibits appended thereto; and (c) all Parties, for the purpose of enforcing and administering the Settlement.

In the event the Effective Date of the Settlement Agreement does not occur, the Settlement shall be rendered null and void to the extent provided by and in accordance with the Settlement Agreement, and this Order shall be vacated. In such event, all orders entered and releases delivered in connection with the Settlement shall be null and void and the Action shall return to its status immediately prior to execution of the Settlement Agreement.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Plaintiffs' Motion for Final Approval, [ECF No. 56], is GRANTED. This case is DISMISSED *with prejudice with respect to the Defendant herein, and no costs shall be awarded other than specified in this Order or provided by the Settlement Agreement. There being no reason for delay, the Clerk of Court is hereby directed to enter final judgment forthwith pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 58.
